Cover Story

Beat the Heat, Stay Cool

It's that time of year again when the temperature rises, and the potential for heat-related illness becomes a factor in your daily work routine.

Beat the heat with these quick tips:

1. Hydrate before, during, and after work. Prevention is important; maintain good hydration by drinking at least 8 ounces of water every 20 minutes.
2. Dress appropriately for the weather. On warm days, wear light-colored, loose-fitting, and breathable clothing to keep your body temperature down.
3. Use the shade to stay cool. When possible, use shaded areas to stay out of direct sunlight.
4. Know the signs of heat stress. Understand what heat stress is, and how it can affect your health and safety. Watch out for:
   - Hot, dry skin or profuse sweating;
   - Headaches;
   - Confusion or dizziness;
   - Nausea;
   - Muscle cramps;
   - Weakness or fatigue; and
   - Rashes.

Notify your supervisor or call 911 if you experience signs of heat-related illness. This not only ensures your safety, but can also save your life.

DMM Revision: Address Information System Services

Effective July 10, 2017, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®), section 509.1.0, Address Information System Services, to clarify the processes for obtaining delivery statistics and receiving product updates from the Postal Service. Additionally, we will revise various DMM subsections related to this clarification.

On November 17, 2010, the Postal Service published a Federal Register final rule (77 FR 70128–70132) that included a revision to section 509.1.0, Address Information System Services, which added a comprehensive list of Address Information System (AIS) products and services available from the National Customer Support Center (NCSC). In the revision, we consolidated and renumbered text on the delivery statistics file. However, we omitted the information on Postmasters in Post Offices™ with rural delivery, highway contract box delivery, and PO Boxes™, who provide delivery statistics. The information remained in other sections in support of Postmasters who provide delivery statistics. For clarification, the Postal Service is reinserting the text in DMM subsection 509.1.11 that refers to Postmasters in certain Post Offices who provide delivery statistics. We will also update this section to provide the Every Door Direct Mail® website as an alternative process to obtain delivery statistics, rather than the Simplified Mailing Process website.

In Fiscal Year (FY) 2013, the NCSC notified all licensees and AIS product subscribers who received product updates from the Postal Service that effective October 1, 2014, hard copy fulfillment (e.g., CDs/DVDs) would cease, and the Postal Service would require licensees and product subscribers to retrieve product updates from the Electronic Product Fulfillment (EPF) web service at epf.usps.gov. The Postal Service will update subsections 509.1.5 and 509.1.11 to reflect the EPF web service as the source to retrieve product updates. We will also revise various subsections to correct DMM reference numbers and website addresses related to the above revisions.

Although we will not publish these revisions in the DMM until July 10, 2017, the standards are effective immediately.

Information Security

Look Before You Book

Travel season provides hackers with many opportunities to access personal, sensitive information through online scams. Hackers prey on unsuspecting victims looking for enticing travel deals by using bogus websites to steal credit card numbers and other personal information.

Whether you're traveling for business or pleasure, be on the lookout for travel scams. The American Hotel and Lodging Association estimates that approximately 15 million online hotel reservations are made on bogus third-party sites every year.[1] In fact, cybercriminals may pocket upwards of $1.3 billion in fake hotel reservations.[2] Alarmingly, even "sponsored" websites that appear in Google searches can be fraudulent.[3] Similar scams also extend to airline flights and rental cars.

To protect yourself from travel scams:

- Verify travel websites. Before you make a reservation, research the booking site. You can check that the web address begins with "HTTPS," search for reviews and comments online, and verify legitimacy with the Better Business Bureau. Additionally, beware of look-alike websites — hackers may impersonate a well-known company to access your information.[4]
- Choose your payment method wisely. Use a credit card instead of a debit card when making a payment to avoid giving hackers access to bank information.[5] Be suspicious of non-traditional collection methods, such as direct bank transfers or wire transfers.
- Confirm transparency. When making a reservation, you should see the cost breakdown, such as taxes and other fees.
- Check for trust marks and security seals. Verify that the booking site has a mark or seal that indicates it is secure (e.g., the "McAfee® Secure" and "PayPal Verified" symbols).[6]

When in doubt, call the company you want to book with to verify any information. As a reminder, for official Postal Service™ travel, book through Omega World Travel, accessed at wcp.getthere.net/govtomegaworld. If you suspect a scam while using a Postal Service device, report it to the CyberSecurity Operations Center (CSOC) at cybersafe@usps.gov.

For more information on cybersecurity best practices, visit the new public-facing CyberSafe at USPS™ website at uspscybersafe.com or the CyberSafe at USPS pages on Blue (blue.usps.gov/cyber/) and LiteBlue (liteblue.usps.gov/cyber/).

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
   - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
   - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word "USPS®" repeated.
   - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changed.

   These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm.
3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service® Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserviced.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark must affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. Each cover must have sufficient postage to meet First-Class Mail® requirements. Customers may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-782-6724, or at The Postal Store® website at usps.com/shop.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16 inches side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2 inches high by 4 inches long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers must submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers must affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Address customer requests for digital color postmarks to:

FDOI – (Name of Stamp Issue)
