

Perforations

The October meeting saw a varied group of collectable items — ranging from match book covers, bicycle pins, magazines all away down to 'just' everyday stamps.

We also learned a little about match book cover collecting from Glenn Zinck.

This month's theme is USPS items that are NOT stamps. We will also have an Bill's update on how the "$1000.00 stamp investment" is doing.

As usual feel free to bring items in for trading.

Remember that this month's meeting is the LAST Tuesday of the month – 30 November.

Coil Pair of New Forever Stamps

I was in error last month. The USPS will issue two more stamps in coil format on 1 December.

A new coil of forever stamps featuring two designs was announced November 4 by the United States Postal Service.

The Forever (44¢) Lady Liberty and (44¢) American Flag stamps will be issued, with alternating designs, in coil rolls of 100. Since all three of the USPS contract printers will produce the stamps, we might come up with an additional six different collectible stamps.

January 2011 Issues

January 2011 is rumored to see the issue of the first of commemorative Forever stamps.

The Lunar New Year issue is scheduled for 22 January in Atlanta and the Kansas Sesquicentennial on 28 January in Topeka.

Additional stamps to be issued in 2011:

Barbara Jordan (Black Heritage)	Ronald Reagan
Garden of Love	Jazz
Gregory Peck (Legends of Hollywood)	Helen Hayes
The Civil War, 1861	Indianapolis 500
Edward Hopper, "The Long Leg" (American Treasures)
Mercury Project &amp; MESSENGER Mission	U.S. Merchant Marine
American Scientists	Latin Music Legends
Romare Bearden	Pioneers of American Industrial Design
Mark Twain (Literary Arts)
Madonna of the Candelabra	Holiday Baubles
