November 2012 - Volume 12 Number 11
Newsletter of the Lake County (IL)
Philatelic Society
"Lake County's Stamp Club"

Last month, Jerry Netterstrom gave an excellent presentation on "New Sweden" that covered the history of the colony founded along the Delaware River in 1638 and commemorated stamps issued in 1938 and 1988 on both sides of the Atlantic.

We also selected the Gurnee Golden Corral as the site for Holiday Brunch on 8 December at 11:30 am.

The treasury has $3,221.31 in the bank.

This month, the topic is: "Juan Fernandez Island - Stamps of Chile" Chuck Skittino developed an interest in this intriguing area and shares his wealth of information (too bad it is not all about "Friday").

William Goddard

The Colonial Period – Part 3

William Goddard (1740–1817) was an American patriot and printer born in New London, CT and lived through the era of the American Revolution. Goddard served as an apprentice printer under James Parker and then in 1762 became an early American publisher who eventually founded several newspapers during his lifetime. His mother, father and sister were also involved with printing and publishing in the middle 18th century. For a short term William was also a postmaster of Providence, RI. Later his newspaper partnership with Franklin in Philadelphia would play an important role in the development of Franklin's ideas for a postal system in the soon to be united colonies.
