Branded for bidders: USPS and eBay — showing their brands on Priority Mail packaging

The eagle is flying high on new co-branded USPS® and eBay shipping supplies. The newly designed Priority Mail® boxes come in three sizes and all display the eBay and Postal Service™ logos. There's co-branded tape, too!

eBay already offers online USPS shipping solutions, which allow sellers to calculate rates, purchase postage and print shipping labels from their computers. With this new service, co-branded Priority Mail boxes can be ordered for delivery directly to an eBay member's home.

The new shipping materials can be ordered for free exclusively through eBay's site beginning in late July.

Co-branded shipping supplies — just another way USPS is delivering results through product innovations that help customers grow their businesses.

The best keep on getting better: USPS named to FORTUNE's 50 Best Companies for Minorities

Inclusiveness. Celebrating a diverse workforce and opening doors to better understanding at the same time. Working hard to make sure its workforce reflects the communities it serves. These are just a few of the reasons FORTUNE, one of America's leading business magazines, named USPS to its list of 50 Best Companies for Minorities for the fifth year in a row. USPS finished sixth this year.

According to the article, the top 50 are firms that "make an effort not only to hire minorities but also retain them and promote them through the ranks."

FORTUNE gave USPS high honors, noting that 59 percent of new hires were minorities. And with 24 percent of its 50 top-paid positions held by minorities, USPS has one of the better records for making sure "diversity percolates to the top."

Accolades galore: USPS is the place to be if you work in IT

93rd in the annual survey.

Computerworld asked nearly 17,000 IT professionals to rate the places where they work — both private and public sector. They were asked about benefits, competitive salaries, opportunities for training and advancement as well as interesting project work and a flexible and diverse work environment.

USPS scored high in several categories. It's ranked 23rd in percentage of minority IT staff (34 percent), 24th in minority IT managers as a percentage of all managers (19 percent), 32nd in percentage of women IT staff (37 percent) and 33rd in average training budget per IT employee ($2,000).

The winners are published in the June 14 issue of Computerworld. Go online to www.computerworld.com to read all about it. It's a prestigious salute to the folks who deliver the digital universe ... when we need it and when we want it.

Take that to the bank: New campaign focuses on saving sick leave

Building a cushion or a nest egg to protect yourself during hard times makes sense. You get a little money and set it aside in case your roof needs repairs or your car needs work.

That's exactly what banking your sick leave is like. It's a little something set aside for days when you're physically unable to make it to work due to illness or injury.

And, that's the theme behind a new employee awareness campaign from Health and Resource Management called "Protect Your Future — Bank Your Sick Leave." The message — sick leave is an employee benefit — a cushion — for when you fall on hard times. And it's one you can bank on.

About 10,000 Postal Service facilities received a copy of the field kit containing a "Don't Let Your Team Down" video, related service talk and poster. New kits will be issued every other month.

Techies rule! The Postal Service is one of the top 100 best places to work in Information Technology (IT), says Computerworld magazine. USPS is ranked

The art of the deal: USPS proposes negotiated service agreements with BankOne, Discover

In business, negotiations are everything. Each side gives a little to get a little. For USPS, that means offering pricing incentives to companies to encourage them to do more business with us, and in some cases, setting standards for mail preparation and mail return that allow us to be more cost efficient.

It's called a negotiated service agreement (NSA), and USPS has filed proposals with the Postal Rate Commission for NSAs with BankOne and Discover Financial Services.

Under the terms of the separate agreements, BankOne and Discover Financial Services will receive pricing incentives on any First-Class Mail® items each company generates above a negotiated threshold. BankOne and Discover also agreed to convert to our address change service, a system that electronically updates forwarding orders and information on the undeliverability of mailpieces.

And to save even more money, USPS will avoid the costs of collecting, packaging and delivering return mailpieces to BankOne and Discover.

Reagan stamp

A stamp honoring former President Ronald Reagan will be issued next February, Postmaster General Jack Potter announced at a recent Board of Governors meeting in Washington, DC.

Potter said that while it is USPS tradition to honor prominent Americans with a stamp a minimum of 10 years after their deaths, the one exception is when a president dies. Then the stamp is issued on the first birth date following the president's death. For Reagan that will be February 6, 2005.

Label it a landmark

Click-N-Ship® service has passed a landmark — $100 million in projected revenue. That's a whole lot of quick, easy and convenient online label printing — and shipping, of course. And teamed with Carrier Pickup service, it's a winning combination for the Postal Service.

And, by the way, happy birthday Click-N-Ship service. You're two — and you're terrific!

Stop Redistributing the Postal Bulletin to CPUs, and Decrease Your Subscription Accordingly.

Why?

We now have access to the master mailing list for contract postal units (CPUs). Effective with this issue of the Postal Bulletin, we are mailing the Postal Bulletin directly to all CPUs.

What Does This Mean for You?

Less work.

Since we are mailing the Postal Bulletin directly to CPUs, you won't have to spend your time and energy doing it. We'll do it for you.

You must do the following if you are redistributing to CPUs:

- Immediately stop redistributing.
- As soon as possible, contact us to decrease your subscription (since you won't need those extra copies to redistribute anymore).

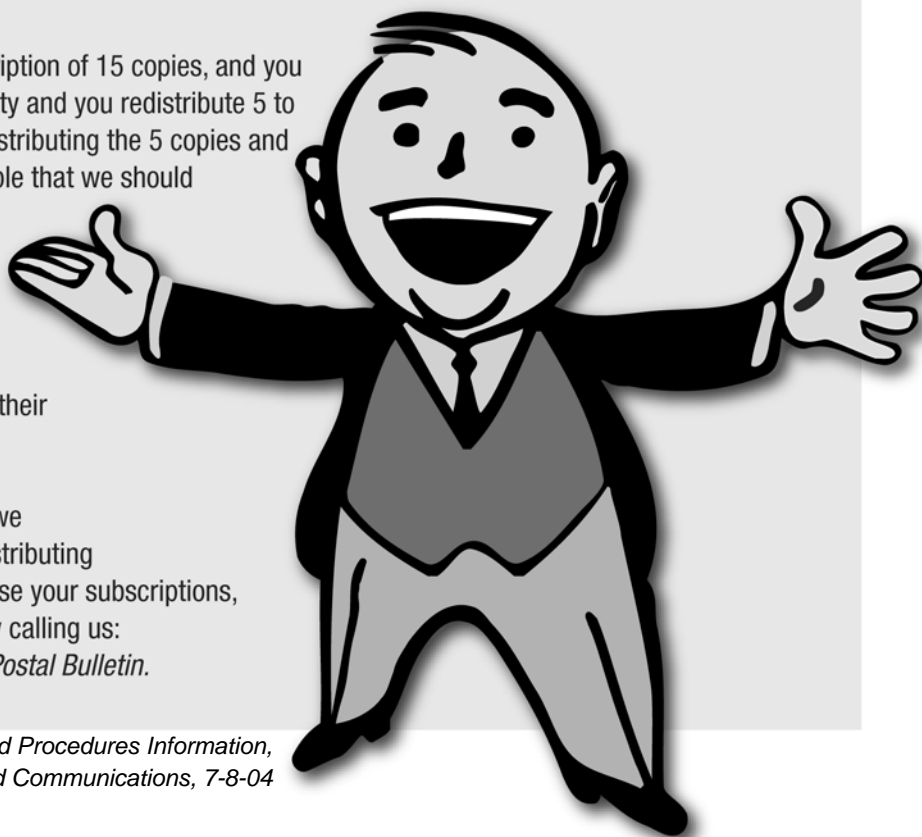

Example:

If you currently have a subscription of 15 copies, and you usually keep 10 for your facility and you redistribute 5 to CPUs, you'll need to stop redistributing the 5 copies and let us know as soon as possible that we should decrease your subscription from 15 to 10.

How Do You Decrease Your Subscription?

We have the list of CPUs and their mailing lists, but we don't know how many you are forwarding to your CPUs. So we need your help. If you're redistributing to CPUs, contact us to decrease your subscriptions, by sending us an e-mail or by calling us:

- Send an internal e-mail to Postal Bulletin.
- Call us at 703-292-3655.

*PUBLICITY KITThe Art of Disney: Friendship

Disneyland — the “Happiest Place on Earth” — became even more animated on June 23, 2004, when the U.S. Postal Service® issued The Art of Disney: Friendship postage stamps. The first day of issue dedication ceremony took place at the Disneyland Resort in Anaheim, California.

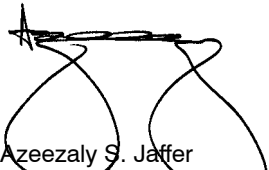

The stamps feature Mickey Mouse, Goofy, Donald Duck, and a host of Disney friends. In addition, a new set of stamped postal cards and stamped stationery will make it easy to write home.

The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps are expected to be very appealing to youngsters and to the millions of Mickey Mouse and other Disney character enthusiasts. Many community and youth outreach events are taking place surrounding the announcement of The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps.

This stamp issuance leverages our relationship with the Walt Disney Company to maximize publicity and revenue opportunities by conducting events inside more than 300 shopping malls that house Disney retail store outlets. And, with your help, our stamps will once again help spread a message of friendship on millions of letters mailed all across America.

Inside this field publicity kit, you will find suggestions and ideas to help you implement events in your community surrounding The Art of Disney: Friendship stamp. Be sure to use the expertise of your Public Affairs and Communications team as you develop and plan your local events.

As we make plans to promote The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps, I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your support. Promoting the Postal Service's™ stamp program provides us with a unique way to gain community support for Postal Service public policy programs and helps strengthen our ties with the communities we serve.

Publicity Ideas to Interest the Media

Stamp Dedication Ceremonies in Malls That House Disney Stores

The key to generating additional revenue and media attention is to publicize the event as a unique opportunity to have the Disney stamps postmarked on anything — including Disney collectibles — on the day of the special stamp dedication ceremony. Conducting the event in your mall's public access area near a Disney Store will assist in attracting collectors of Disney memorabilia.

Disney Stores are similar to those found in the Disney theme parks in Anaheim, California, and Orlando, Florida, in that they sell Disney-themed toys, dolls, movies, games, clothes, accessories, art, and other collectibles. More than 300 Disney Stores are located in shopping malls across America.

Due to space constraints and potential disruptions to Disney Store retail operations, events cannot be held in Disney Stores. Before moving forward, postmasters must first obtain permission from mall management to conduct the ceremony in the public access area. In some situations, mall management may require a fee.

We ask postmasters not to contact their local Disney Store. Contact Clint Johnson with the Disney Store's corporate offices at 818-265-4232 as soon as possible. Clint will contact the store to share the information so that the store employees can inform customers of the upcoming event and staff their store accordingly.

Stamp Dedication Ceremonies at Post Offices

If a Disney Store is outside of your service area, consider conducting either a ceremony at your Post Office™ or a local youth outreach event. Disney is also assisting us through its Disney Radio Station network. This relationship extends publicity assistance through the Disney Radio Station network that operates affiliates in the following 11 major metropolitan areas:

- Atlanta, Georgia
- Boston, Massachusetts
- Chicago, Illinois
- Dallas/Ft. Worth, Texas
- Denver/Boulder, Colorado
- Houston, Texas
- Kansas City, Missouri
- Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota
- New York, New York
- Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
- Portland, Oregon

Our Public Affairs and Communications (PA&C) team will work with Disney to promote your activities.

Disney Contacts

Following is a list of Disney Store locations. Please contact Clint Johnson at the Disney Store's corporate offices (818-265-4232) rather than call a store directly. Clint will contact your local Disney Store's management to let them know your event's date. As part of their day-to-day customer retail activities, Disney Store staff will raise awareness among Disney customers. Disney Store management will also staff accordingly on the day of your event. Disney Radio Station Network contacts can be made through your PA&C team office. See PA&C contact listing on page 32.

The Walt Disney Company maintains a retail outlet network of more than 300 Disney Stores.

The Art of Disney: Friendship Stamps Facts and Suggested Talking Points

The U.S. Postal Service® will issue four new postage stamps on June 23, 2004, at Disneyland in Anaheim, California. The stamps celebrate friendship as portrayed by the Walt Disney studio, honoring some of the most beloved animated characters in the history of American entertainment.

The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps feature several world-famous friends:

- Mickey Mouse, Goofy, and Donald Duck as the perfect fun-loving group.
- Bambi and Thumper as childhood best friends.
- Mufasa and Simba show the powerful bond between parent and child.
- Pinocchio and Jiminy Cricket exemplify a mentoring relationship.

The stamps feature illustrations by Disney artist Peter Emmerich. David Pacheco from Walt Disney Art Classics was the concept artist for the stamps.

Thanks to a new set of stamped postal cards and stamped stationery now available, the Postal Service and Disney are using The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps images to make it easy to write home.

A booklet of twenty, 23-cent stamped postal cards is available for $9.75, and a colorful 37-cent stamped stationery pad containing 12 sheets of the four designs will make it even easier to keep in touch with friends for just $14.95.

For Disney memorabilia fans, there’s a host of other collectibles, including:

- A set of four 8 x 10 inch stamp-affixed Disney Prints depicting each of the stamps for $14.95.
- A composite 18 x 10 inch stamp-affixed Disney Metallic Print for $14.95.
- A Disney Cancellation Keepsake for $10.40, which includes a sheet of 20 stamps and a set of four envelopes bearing first day issue postmarks, including one postmark for each stamp design.

To see The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps, visit the online Postal Store at www.usps.com/shop; under “Collector’s Corner,” click on Stamp Issues.

Current U.S. stamps and stationery — as well as a free catalog — are available by toll-free telephone order at 800 STAMP-24. In addition, a selection of stamps and other philatelic items are available at the online Postal Store at www.usps.com/shop. Custom-framed art prints of original stamp art are available at www.postalartgallery.com.

By conducting this ceremony near a Disney store, the Postal Service is making it easy for stamp and Disney enthusiasts to enhance their collectibles by having this special pictorial postmark applied to stamps that are affixed to virtually anything, including Disney collectibles. (This point is optional if conducting ceremony at a mall that houses a Disney Store.)

Follow up the written invitation with a telephone call to the elected official's scheduler within a week if you have not received a reply. You may need to call more than once.

Keep in touch with all elected officials who respond. If asked, provide updated information to the elected official's staff as it becomes available (e.g., names of other participants, where and when to meet, what his or her role will be, etc.). Emphasize that remarks should be brief and limited to the unveiling of The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps and recognition of the role the U.S. Postal Service plays in sponsoring National Stamp Collecting Month.

Include names of all participating elected officials on the official program as honored guests and mention them in all media advisories.

Provide a courtesy copy of the program to the elected official in advance.

After the Event

Send a written thank-you letter (see page 24) to all elected officials who participated in the ceremony, expressing your appreciation.

Provide copies of any newspaper articles about the event to their offices. Even though they might see those articles on their own, you can take the opportunity to remind them of the press coverage the event received.

Provide a supply of extra cachets with the special cancellation, if applicable, to elected officials, even to those who could not attend. These make great give-away gifts and serve as a positive reminder of the event.

Obtain and frame a photo of the elected official posing beside the stamp images and make an appointment to present it in person, if possible. A matted, well-framed photograph stands a good chance of being hung on the wall of the official's office, again serving as a positive reminder of the event.

Keep in touch with your elected officials. Good relationships are built over time.

Sample Stamp Dedication Speech

The following suggested speech may be used at local ceremonies and events to support and promote The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps. Feel free to customize it to fit your local event and community.

Good [INSERT MORNING/AFTERNOON].

I'm [INSERT NAME OF POSTMASTER/DISTRICT MANAGER/MC] and it's a tremendous honor for me to represent the United States Postal Service® today as we dedicate The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps.

The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps are a welcome addition to our gallery of stamps that join the Postal Service's 2004 stamp program, celebrating the people, events, and history of our nation. Many Americans become inspired to learn more about the stamp subjects they see on their letters and packages, and thousands more become collectors every year.

Stamps are unique reminders of the amazing, triumphant, and spectacular accomplishments that shape the world we live in, and clearly show that the Postal Service™ does more than provide mail service. The real power of the Postal Service is our ability to connect people.

The U.S. Postal Service® dedicated four new postage stamps on June 23 at Disneyland in Anaheim, California, that celebrate friendship as portrayed by the Walt Disney studio, honoring some of the most beloved animated characters in the history of American entertainment.

The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps feature several world-famous friends:

- Mickey Mouse, Goofy, and Donald Duck as the perfect fun-loving group.
- Bambi and Thumper as childhood best friends.
- Mufasa and Simba show the powerful bond between parent and child.
- Pinocchio and Jiminy Cricket exemplify a mentoring relationship.

This is the first of three stamp panes honoring the art of Disney that we will issue this year. Celebration and Romance are the themes for 2005 and 2006 stamps in this series. Each year features four themed stamps, showcasing a breadth of quintessential Disney moments.

Thanks to a new set of stamped postal cards and stamped stationery now available, the Postal Service and Disney are using The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps images to make it easy to write home.

I would like to thank all of you and all of our guests for joining us here today.

Now, would [INSERT NAMES OF DEDICATION PARTICIPANTS IF APPLICABLE] join me as we dedicate The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps.

SAMPLE NEWS RELEASE

[Use this as a guide for creating your “day-of” event news release. Use past tense and include information such as crowd turnout, activities associated with the event, etc.]

MICKEY MOUSE AND FRIENDS DELIVER FOR [INSERT TOWN’S NAME] POST OFFICE

[INSERT NAME OF YOUR CITY] — The [NAME] Post Office™ is putting Disney friends to work. Beginning today, The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps will go on sale as a set of four commemorative postage stamps honoring friendship as it appears in the art of Walt Disney. The stamps feature Mickey Mouse, Goofy, Donald Duck and a host of Disney friends. And thanks to a new set of stamped postal cards and stamped stationery available that day, the Postal Service™ and Disney are making it easy to write home about it.

“With this stamp pane, the U.S. Postal Service® honors the “art” of friendship as portrayed by Walt Disney and his studio animators,” said [TOWN NAME] Postmaster [NAME], who officiated the event. “Now, with the help of some famous friends — who are also some of Disney’s most beloved animated characters — it’s easy to add a cheerful touch to your envelopes.”

The Art of Disney: Friendship self-adhesive 37-cent stamps, available in panes of twenty, feature world-famous Disney friends on four stamp designs.

- Mickey Mouse, Goofy and Donald Duck as the perfect fun-loving group. Mickey Mouse made his debut on November 18, 1928, in the first synchronized sound cartoon, Steamboat Willie. With help from his pals, Goofy and the “fowl-tempered” Donald Duck, clever little Mickey quickly became an American icon.
- Bambi and Thumper as childhood best friends. A friend can make good times even more fun and make bad times more bearable. In Walt Disney’s Bambi (1942), an energetic rabbit named Thumper becomes a lifelong friend to a young deer. Thumper accompanies Bambi in both pleasurable pursuits — such as their winter adventures on ice — and in adversity.
- Mufasa and Simba show the powerful bond between parent and child. Our parents can be our best friends, as the cub Simba learns in The Lion King (1994) when his father, Mufasa, comes to his rescue after Simba is chased by hyenas. Simba idolizes Mufasa and hopes to grow up to be just like him.
- Pinocchio and Jiminy Cricket exemplify a mentoring relationship. Sometimes, as in Walt Disney’s animated film classic Pinocchio (1940), a friend acts as our conscience and keeps us out of trouble — or, at least, tries to. After he is magically brought to life, the wooden marionette Pinocchio is assisted by diminutive Jiminy Cricket in his effort to become a real boy.

A booklet of twenty, 23-cent stamped postal cards will be available for $9.75, and a colorful 37-cent stamped stationery pad containing 12-sheets of the four designs will make it even easier to keep in touch with friends for just $14.95.

For Disney memorabilia fans, there's a host of other collectibles, including:

- A set of four 8 x 10-inch stamp-affixed Disney prints depicting each of the stamps for $14.95.
- A composite 18 x 10 inch stamp-affixed Disney Metallic Print for $14.95.
- A Disney Cancellation Keepsake for $10.40.

To see The Art of Disney: Friendship stamps, visit the online Postal Store at www.usps.com/shop; under "Collector's Corner," click on Stamp Issues.

Current U.S. stamps and stationery, as well as a free comprehensive catalog, are available by toll-free telephone order at 800 STAMP-24. A wide selection of stamps and other philatelic items is also available at the Postal Store at www.usps.com/shop. Custom-framed art prints of original stamp art are available at www.postalartgallery.com.

Since 1775, the U.S. Postal Service has connected friends, families, neighbors and businesses by mail. It is an independent federal agency that visits more than 141 million homes and businesses every day and is the only service provider to deliver to every address in the nation. The Postal Service receives no taxpayer dollars for routine operations, but derives its operating revenues solely from the sale of postage, products and services. With annual revenues of more than $68 billion, it is the world's leading provider of mailing and delivery services, offering some of the most affordable postage rates in the world. The U.S. Postal Service delivers more than 46 percent of the world's mail volume — some 202 billion letters, advertisements, periodicals and packages a year — and serves 7 million customers each day at its 38,000 retail locations nationwide.

Include the following Stamp Subject Selection Criteria and Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee fact sheets with your "day-of" news release press kit. If available, also include biographies of event principals.

Stamp Subject Selection Criteria

The U.S. Postal Service® and the members of the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee ("CSAC" or "committee") have set certain basic criteria used in determining the eligibility of subjects for commemoration on U.S. stamps and stationery. These criteria first were formulated about the time of Postal Service™ reorganization in the early 1970s and have been refined and expanded gradually since then.

Following are the 12 major areas now guiding subject selection:

1. It is a general policy that U.S. postage stamps and stationery primarily will feature American or American-related subjects.
2. No living person shall be honored by portrayal on U.S. postage.
3. Commemorative stamps or Postal Service™ stationery items honoring individuals usually will be issued on or in conjunction with significant anniversaries of their birth, but no Postal Service item will be issued sooner than 10 years after the individual's death. The only exception to the 10-year rule is the issuance of stamps honoring deceased U.S. presidents. They may be honored with a memorial stamp on the first birth anniversary following death.
4. Events of historical significance will be considered for commemoration only on anniversaries in multiples of 50 years.
5. Only events, persons, and themes of widespread national appeal and significance will be considered for commemoration. Events, persons, or themes of local or regional significance may be recognized by a philatelic or special Postal Service cancellation, which may be arranged through the local postmaster.
6. Stamps or stationery items will not be issued to honor fraternal, political, sectarian, or service/charitable organizations. Stamps or stationery will not be issued to promote or advertise commercial enterprises or products. Commercial products or enterprises might be used to illustrate more general concepts related to American culture.
7. Stamps or stationery items will not be issued to honor cities, towns, municipalities, counties, primary or secondary schools, hospitals, libraries, or similar institutions. Due to the limitations placed on annual Postal Service programs and the vast number of such locales, organizations and institutions in existence, it would be difficult to single out any one for commemoration.
8. Requests for observance of statehood anniversaries will be considered for commemorative postage stamps only at intervals of 50 years from the date of the state's first entry into the Union. Requests for observance of other state-related or regional anniversaries will be considered only as subjects for Postal Service stationery, and again only at intervals of 50 years from the date of the event.
9. Stamps or stationery items will not be issued to honor religious institutions or individuals whose principal achievements are associated with religious undertakings or beliefs.
10. Stamps or Postal Service stationery items with added values, referred to as "semi-postals," will be issued every 2 years in accordance with Public Law 106253. Semi-postals will not be considered as part of the commemorative program and separate criteria will apply.
11. Requests for commemoration of universities and other institutions of higher education will be considered only for stamped cards and only in connection with the 200th anniversaries of their founding.
12. No stamp will be considered for issuance if one treating the same subject has been issued in the past 50 years. The only exceptions to this rule are traditional themes such as national symbols and holidays.

Ideas for stamp subjects that meet the criteria may be addressed to:

CITIZENS STAMP ADVISORY COMMITTEE
C/O STAMP DEVELOPMENT
US POSTAL SERVICE
475 L'ENFANT PLZ SW RM 5670
WASHINGTON DC 20260-2437

Subjects should be submitted at least 3 years in advance of the proposed date of issue to allow sufficient time for consideration and for design and production, if the subject is approved.

The selection of subjects for U.S. postage stamps and stationery is a difficult task since only a limited number of new commemorative items can be issued annually. To help in this selection process, the postmaster general established the CSAC over 40 years ago. Members are appointed to the committee by the postmaster general. They reflect a wide range of educational, artistic, historical, and professional expertise.

Once a subject is approved, the Postal Service relies heavily on design coordinators for the selection of artists who will execute the designs. Stamp designing is an unusual art form requiring exacting skill in portraying a subject within very small dimensions. Due to the demands of stamp design and reproduction requirements, it is our policy not to review or accept unsolicited artwork.

The Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee

The U.S. Postal Service® is proud of its role in portraying the American experience to a world audience through the issuance of postage stamps and stationery.

The public suggests almost all subjects chosen to appear on U.S. postage stamps and stationery. Each year, Americans submit proposals to the Postal Service™ on literally thousands of different topics, and every stamp suggestion receives equal consideration, regardless of who makes it or how it is presented. (Note: suggestions must be submitted in writing).

On behalf of the postmaster general, the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee (CSAC) evaluates the merits of all stamp proposals. Established in 1957, the committee provides the Postal Service with a "breadth of judgment and depth of experience in various areas that influence subject matter, character, and beauty of postage stamps."

The committee's primary goal is to select subjects for recommendation to the postmaster general that are both interesting and educational. In addition to the Postal Service's extensive line of regular stamps, the committee recommends approximately 25 new subjects for commemorative stamps each year. The wishes and desires of all Postal Service customers influence stamp selections. A good mix of subjects, both interesting and educational, is essential to the stamps program of the U.S. Postal Service.

The postmaster general of the U.S. Postal Service appoints committee members, who serve at his discretion. The committee is composed of 15 members whose backgrounds reflect a wide range of educational, artistic, historical, and professional expertise. All share an interest in philately and the needs of the mailing public.

The committee itself employs no staff. The Postal Service's Stamp Development group handles committee administrative matters, maintains records, and responds to as many as 50,000 stamp subject and design recommendations annually.

The committee meets four times yearly in rotating locations. At the meetings, the members review all proposals received since the previous meeting. Proponents are not permitted to attend committee meetings. The members also review and provide guidance on artwork and designs for stamp subjects scheduled for issuance. The criteria established by this independent group ensure that stamp subjects stand the test of time, are consistent with public opinion, and have broad national interest.

Stamp Selection Process

Stamp subject and design suggestions must meet selection criteria and submitted in writing to:

CITIZENS STAMP ADVISORY COMMITTEE
C/O STAMP DEVELOPMENT
US POSTAL SERVICE
475 L'ENFANT PLZ SW RM 5670
WASHINGTON DC 20260-2437

Submit subject or design suggestions at least three years in advance of the proposed date of issue to allow sufficient time for consideration, design, and production, if the subject is approved.

Stamp proposals must be submitted in writing to the CSAC (i.e., stamped card, letters, or petitions) to allow everyone the same opportunity to suggest a new stamp subject or design.

After a proposal's evaluation is complete and deemed to meet selection criteria, research is done on the proposed stamp subject. The committee's agenda for its next meeting will list all new proposals received since their last meeting. The committee considers all new proposals and will either reject the new proposal or set it aside for future consideration. If set aside for future consideration, the subject is filed and presented for periodic review by the committee.

If approved for issuance, proponents of the subject or design are advised when a general announcement is made to the public. While the Postal Service relies heavily upon the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee, it has the exclusive and final authority to determine both subject matter and designs for U.S. postage stamps and stationery.

Artwork for Stamp Designs

Once a stamp suggestion or design receives approval, the Postal Service relies heavily on design coordinators for the selection of artists who will execute the designs. Stamp designing is an unusual art form that requires exacting skill to portray a subject within very small dimensions.

Unsolicited artwork is not accepted due to the demands of stamp design and reproduction requirements.

Professional artists who wish consideration for a design assignment must request a copy of the "Stamp Design Requirements" package:

DMM REVISION

New Terminology for Presorted Destination Mail

Effective July 8, 2004, the Domestic Mail Manual (DMM™) is revised to change terminology from “package(s)” to “bundle(s)” and from “packaging” to “bundling” when referring to all classes of individual presorted destination pieces secured together for workshare mailings. As examples, “5-digit packages” becomes “5-digit bundles,” and “firm packages” becomes “firm bundles.” This change in terminology will alleviate the confusion that occurs when “packages” and “packaging standards” are used to mean both presorted pieces secured together and individual parcels. This change affects terminology only and does not represent any change to mail preparation standards or Postal Service™ policy.

The revised terminology will ensure that both employees and mailers understand that any official references to “packages” and “packaging” refer to parcels prepared as individually addressed pieces, and any references to “bundles” and “bundling” refer to presorted destination letters, flats, and irregular parcels in workshare mailings. The term “bundle” often is used already by both mailers and Postal Service personnel when referring to presort destination mail.

We recognize that the use of the term “packages” when referring to bundles will likely continue, just as packages are sometimes called “bundles” today. However, all official Postal Service communication must use the new terminology for clarity. All official publications, such as posters and training materials, will be updated as they are reprinted or revised to incorporate the new terminology.

We will incorporate these revisions into the printed version of DMM 59 and into the monthly update of the online DMM available via Postal Explorer® at <http://pe.usps.gov>.

DMM REMINDER

Standard Mail Low-Weight Flats: 15-Piece Minimum for 5-Digit and 5-Digit Scheme Packages

Employees are reminded that effective August 1, 2004, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM™) E620.2.0, E640.1.5, M610.4.2, M820.5.1, and M950.3.2 are revised to raise the required minimum number of pieces from 10 to 15 at which 5-digit and optional 5-digit scheme presort destination packages are prepared in a Standard Mail® job consisting of flat-size pieces each weighing no more than 5 ounces (0.3125 pound) and measuring no more than 3/4 inch thick. When presenting mailings of pieces (5 ounces or less and not more than 3/4 inch thick), mailers will be required to prepare 5-digit packages whenever there are 15 or more pieces to a destination and will not be permitted to prepare packages containing fewer than 15 pieces to a 5-digit ZIP Code™ or optional 5-digit scheme destination.

For Standard Mail mailings that contain any pieces that weigh more than 5 ounces, and for mailings of upgraded flat sorting machine (UFSM) 1000 automation rate flats measuring more than 3/4 inch thick, regardless of weight, mailers will be required to prepare 5-digit packages whenever there are 10 or more pieces to a destination. Mailers must also use the 10-piece 5-digit package minimum for mailings of nonidentical-weight pieces if any pieces in the mailing weigh more than 5 ounces.

Also effective August 1, 2004, mailers are no longer permitted to use the current optional 5-digit package minimum, from 10 to 17 pieces.

Standard Mail flats entered for verification and acceptance beginning Sunday, August 1, 2004, must meet the new standards.

See Postal Bulletin 22125 (4-1-04, pages 12–14) for additional details regarding this change.

Background

Thanks to the throughput efficiency of the automated flat sorting machine (AFSM) 100, small 5-digit packages of certain low-weight flats are no longer cost-effective to sort and process. For example, the overall mail processing costs for handling 48 flats prepared in one single 3-digit package may be lower than if they are prepared by the mailer in four 5-digit packages of 12 pieces each.

Because mailers pay the same postage for Standard Mail flats prepared in either 3-digit or 5-digit packages (the 3/5 rate), the Postal Service™ can change the minimum piece per package threshold without petitioning the Postal Rate Commission.

Approximately 1 year ago, the Postal Service increased the point at which mailers were required to make 5-digit packages from 10 to 17 pieces, thus allowing business mailers to set their own minimum threshold anywhere from 10 to 17 pieces. While some mailers converted to the new, higher 17-piece minimum level, many have continued to use the 10-piece minimum, primarily because it represents the default setting in most presort software.

Setting a new required minimum of 15 pieces per 5-digit package for Standard Mail mailings of pieces that weigh 5 ounces or less represents an opportunity for modest cost savings for the Postal Service and commercial printers and requires only minor changes to presort software. More importantly, the change represents progress in postal efficiency. Updating the package minimum to reflect current flats technology and improved piece processing productivities is one of the Product Redesign steps called for in the Transformation Plan. Making the change now will accrue cost savings through reduced package handling costs and gives a clear indication of the direction the Postal Service is moving in future efforts and in the next omnibus rate case.

You Can Take That to the Bank — New Campaign Focuses on Saving Sick Leave

Building a cushion or a nest egg to protect yourself during hard times makes sense. You get a little money and set it aside in case your roof needs repairs or your car needs work.

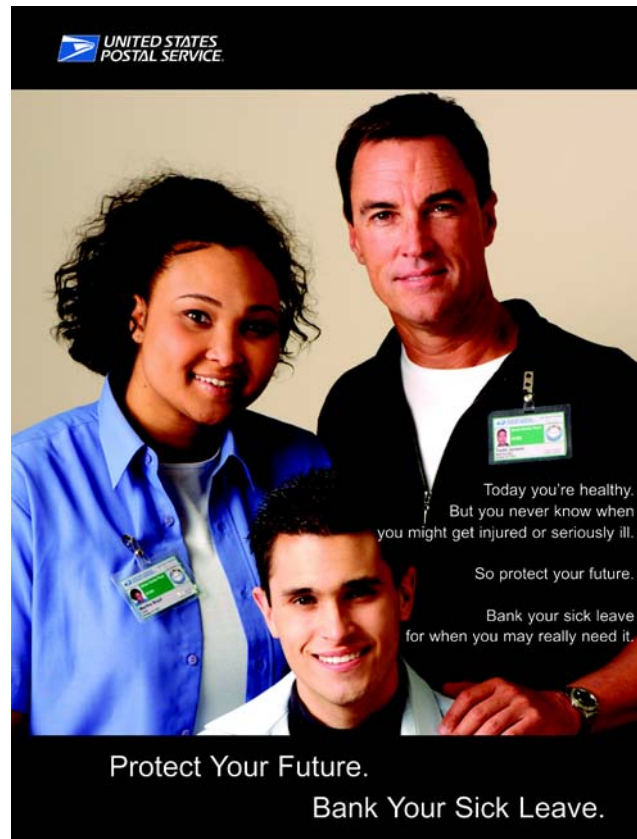

That's exactly what banking your sick leave is like. It's a little something set aside for days when you're physically unable to make it to work due to illness or injury.

That's the theme behind a new employee awareness campaign from Health and Resource Management called "Protect Your Future — Bank Your Sick Leave."

About 10,000 Postal Service™ facilities will receive a copy of the field kit this month. The kit contains a video titled "Don't Let Your Team Down," related service talk, and poster. Six new kits will be issued every other month.

Remember, sick leave is an employee benefit — a cushion — for when you fall on hard times.

And it's one you can bank on.

WORKING FOR YOU.

“Working for You” is the theme of our fall advertising campaign. More important, it’s about what Postal Service employees are doing for their customers every day.

That’s why we’ve selected actual letter carriers to play themselves in upcoming print, radio and TV advertising.

Pat Donahoe, Chief Operating Officer, explains it best, “Our carriers are well-liked by their customers, so it makes perfect sense to feature real carriers in our ads.”

We’re proud to present the nine employees who will be telling our customers, “We’re working for you!” They’re featured on the cover of this Postal Bulletin.

For many customers, letter carriers stand for our entire organization. They symbolize the team that delivers the best service possible – from retail to collection, from transportation to processing – for every letter, every package, every catalog and every magazine we deliver.

These nine were selected from a group of 80 talented employees who will represent the Postal Service in local promotional and public relations events. They’re all pictured on the next four pages.

“Choosing these carriers was a rewarding experience,” said Donahoe. “They are all so enthusiastic and they made us feel great about how well they represent all of us at the Postal Service. They will be excellent radio and TV ambassadors for the Postal Service.”

Overseas Military Mail

Mail addressed to military post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Acceptance clerks may contact the Military Postal Service Agency with any questions regarding APO/FPO ZIP Codes, toll free, at 800-810-6098, Monday–Friday, 0730–1630.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the APO/FPO Table below.

STAMP ANNOUNCEMENT 04-24

Martin Johnson Heade, Giant Magnolias on a Blue Velvet Cloth Commemorative Stamp

Copyright USPS 2003

The Postal Service™ will issue a 37-cent, Martin Johnson Heade, Giant Magnolias on a Blue Velvet Cloth commemorative stamp (Item 673100) in a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) double-sided book of 20 on August 12, 2004, in Sacramento, California. The stamp, designed by Derry Noyes of Washington, DC, goes on sale nationwide August 13, 2004.

Inaugurated in 2001 with the Amish Quilts stamp pane, the American Treasures series showcases beautiful American fine art and crafts. The 2002 and 2003 issuances featured artwork by John James Audubon and Mary Cassatt, respectively.

For this fourth issuance in the American Treasures series, art director Derry Noyes chose Giant Magnolias on a Blue Velvet Cloth, a circa 1890 oil-on-canvas by Martin Johnson Heade. The painting is in the collection of the National Gallery of Art in Washington, DC.

Pictorial Cancellations Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial cancellations to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial cancellations are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial cancellation appears in italics under the date. Also provided, as space permits, are illustrations of those cancellations that were reproducible and available at press time.

People attending these local events may obtain the cancellation in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event, but who wish to obtain the cancellation, may submit a mail order request. Pictorial cancellations are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be post-marked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial cancellation date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for cancellation may not include postage issued after the date of the requested cancellation. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a cancellation should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL CANCELLATIONS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP+4® CODE, exactly as listed below (using all capitals and no punctuation, except the hyphen in the ZIP+4 code).

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for cancellation, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial cancellation, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

So long Shrek

Summer/Fall is now!

Is your Post Office™ ogre-less? The new Summer/Fall drive period began July 1, which means the old signs of the Spring drive period — all those Shrek-related images — should be off your walls and just a memory by now. It's time for Summer/Fall drive period point-of-purchase (POP) elements. Put them up and keep them up through Oct. 31! Follow the planogram in your POP kit for proper placement.

Among the new elements for Summer/Fall are two signs that team up to promote Priority Mail® bundles. Be sure to hang them together so customers can see all four Priority Mail bundles lined up in a row. One sign includes information about Priority Mail bundled three ways: with Delivery Confirmation™ service, with insurance, and with both insurance and Delivery Confirmation service. A separate sign features a fourth bundle: Priority Mail with Signature Confirmation™ service. This one is aimed particularly at small-business owners, as are many of the other POP elements. This is a small-business drive period.

Also featured in the Summer/Fall POP is an element teaming the Postal Service™ with eBay. This sign encourages customers to save on business supplies and products by going to usps.com/ebay for the “Deal of the Week.”

Show them your signs — and watch your sales grow!

Check the expiration date

Look for the arrows

Stay in sync! It's important to keep your POP current so our customers get the same Postal Service retail message from coast to coast. An old sign left over from a long forgotten POP campaign puts you out of sync with everyone else. When you remove the signs promptly, you stay in sync with every other Post Office — and our customers get one, consistent message about our available products and services no matter which Post Office they visit.

Postmasters, station managers, and branch managers received a postcard reminding them of the importance of keeping POP current. Remember: Check the expiration date! Look for the up/down arrows at the bottom right corner of every POP sign. It tells you when to put up the sign — and when to take it down.

When in doubt, just follow the arrows!

New holiday closing sign

9x11 envelope!*

A new holiday closing sign is coming to replace the one your office got in its Summer/Fall POP kit. The original cling sign, which was blue, had the wrong day of the week listed for Veterans Day. The new sign, which is red, reflects the correct information: “Thursday, November 11: Veterans Day.”

Keep the original sign displayed until you receive your new one. Post Offices also will receive a writing table correction sticker. Instructions will be included in the packet. Expect the corrected POP elements to arrive at all retail units around July 12.

Want to brush up on all things POP — or continuity? Be sure to visit the Advertising Web site at <http://blue.usps.gov/advertising> to learn more about the Summer/Fall POP and the continuity menuboard — and why they are different but equally important to our sales efforts.

Also, don't forget to check out MessageMaker 2, which provides field advertising elements. Many of the Direct Mail pieces, such as postcards, clings, and signs, can be customized with information specific to your Post Office.

Expedited vs. express

Express Mail service is extra

When it comes to passport processing, “expedited” and “express” don’t mean the same thing. The Department of State charges a $60 fee, in addition to the regular passport fee, for the “expedited” processing of these important documents. Many customers assume this “expedited” processing includes Express Mail® service — but it doesn’t. The fee only insures that the State Department will expedite the processing of the customer’s passport application so that it’s completed within 3 business days from the time the agency receives it.

In most cases, the expeditiously handled passports are mailed back to the customer via First-Class Mail® service. Be sure to let your customers know that the extra fee they are paying for expedited processing refers strictly to how the State Department handles their application. Encourage them to add Express Mail service to make the return of their passports even that much quicker — but, of course, they’ll have to pay the additional Express Mail service fee.

Phone cards and flags

Promotion ends Sept. 30

Independence Day celebrations may be over but our “Salute to America” is still going strong. Please remind customers that when they buy any two phone cards — including both FIRSTCLASS PHONECARDS® and the new global cards that are available in select Post Offices — they can send away for a free indoor/outdoor American flag.

Important: Our FIRSTCLASS PHONECARDS are not activated until a customer purchases them. Therefore, the fear of theft should not prevent you from displaying these cards in your lobbies for customers to see. If theft does occur, just call 800-711-0428 to order more. It’s important that customers have access to our FIRSTCLASS PHONECARDS and the new global cards. The cards should be displayed in their own merchandisers only. If you don’t have a merchandiser, hang them on your slat wall.

Summer/Fall '04 Retail Drive Period

7/1/04 – 10/31/04

Make Summer/Fall POP Your Business.

The Summer/Fall Drive Period POP speaks to our valued small-business customers. It shows that we understand the needs of small-business owners and provide solutions that benefit their business.

By pairing our unique product benefits with small-business owners' needs, the United States Postal Service® is building and improving our relationship with small-business customers. Every opportunity you take to recommend our services to small-business customers increases our revenue.

Remind customers how Click-N-Ship® can help them work smarter, not harder. And remember that all revenue generated in your ZIP Code™ is credited to your Post Office™. Also, recommend Priority Mail® bundle #4 with Signature Confirmation™ — it's beneficial for small-business owners since it lets them know that their shipment arrived in the right hands.

FIRSTCLASS PHONECARD Salutes America!

The new FIRSTCLASS PHONECARD® offer begins July 1 in honor of Independence Day. Now when customers purchase two FIRSTCLASS PHONECARDs, they can receive an American flag by mail! A Counter Card with tear-pad will promote the offer and provide details.

Keep Your POP Fresh.

When customers see current, relevant signage it has a positive impact on sales. Accurate product and pricing information and a professional-looking retail environment give customers the confidence they need to make purchasing decisions.

You should already have received the POP Removal Guide in your Continuity Signage Kit. It provides detailed guidelines on what types of POP you should remove from your Post Office™. For example, please remove:

- All POP with a take down date of 6/30/04 or earlier
- Any signage or brochure that mentions DHL or includes the DHL logo
- All POP which depicts First-Class Mail® postage less than 37¢
- All POP which uses the phrase "Fly Like An Eagle"
- All outdated Promotional POP (Drive Period) signage not part of the Summer/Fall 2004 Kit

Also remove any handwritten or computer-generated signage you have made yourself. If you need custom signage, see your district retail manager for information on MessageMaker 2. In addition, make sure you keep all internal employee communications out of customer view and display them where only employees can see them.

Let's Celebrate Lance's Historic Ride!

You will soon be receiving a poster celebrating Lance Armstrong and the U.S. Postal Service® Pro Cycling team as they ride toward a record-breaking sixth straight Tour de France victory. The poster is shipping on its own, separate from the materials for the Summer/Fall Drive Period.

On July 1, hang this poster in the Full Service Lobby. After the conclusion of the Tour de France on July 25, take the poster down.

Refer to the "Retail Employee Calendar" hanging in the Employee Zone of your Post Office™ for additional information. Visit <http://blue.usps.gov/marketing/retail> to access the Retail Intranet Site.

INSTALLATION HEADS/MAOs

Semiannual Review of Capital Records

The procedures for conducting a semiannual review of capital records are in Handbook AS-701, Material Management, Section 541.28, Internal Reviews. The policy requires either the installation head or material accountability officer (MAO) to conduct a semiannual internal review and evaluation of the status of property records and files.

If you are an installation head or MAO, you must complete the review and evaluation process by following these steps:

- Meet with delegated MAO assistants (if you have them) and discuss the material accountability background of the installation.

- Review the local standard operating procedures.
- Randomly select and inventory 10 percent of capital items and 10 percent of sensitive items.
- Review files and records to verify that those required by Handbook AS-701, Chapter 5, Asset Accountability, are being maintained.
- Review the past six property changes for the month to ensure that they have been properly verified.

Omega World Travel and Trip Manager Reservations

The transaction fee for the online booking of air travel reservations through Trip Manager is reduced to $7.50 per transaction, effective July 1, 2004. The new fee also applies to all Southwest Airlines call-in reservations made through Omega World Travel. Omega World Travel has an online help desk to assist travelers and travel agents with password resets, profile issues, and booking travel online. The telephone number for the online help desk is 888-301-8467 and the e-mail address is uspshelpdesk@owt.net.

Handbook F-15, Travel and Relocation, requires Postal Service™ employees to use a designated travel agency when booking official air travel. Omega World Travel is the Postal Service's current travel agency under this requirements contract. The contract ensures standardization of air travel, reporting, and safety issues for Postal Service employees. The contract also ensures compliance under the General Service Administration's (GSA) Airline City Pair Program, which provides travelers the benefit and flexibility of government fares. The program can be reviewed at www.gsa.gov; click on Services, then Travel, and then City Pair Program. The program offers many features that allow government employees flexibility in planning official travel, including:

- One-way fare pricing that allows agencies to plan multiple destinations.
- No advance purchase requirement.
- No minimum or maximum stay requirement.
- Refundable tickets.
- No charge for cancellations or changes.
- Last seat availability.

The Airline City Pair Program is awarded each fiscal year and remains in place for the entire year. You can review carriers and pricing for any market at <http://apps.fss.gsa.gov/citypairs/search/>. The negotiated fare for the government under the Airline City Pair Program is not necessarily the least expensive fare in a market, but comes with the advantages listed above. The current pricing is effective until September 30, 2004.

Travelers and agents will not be able to obtain government fares for travel scheduled after October 1, 2004 (either via Trip Manager or through Omega World Travel), while the GSA negotiates contracts for FY 2005. Please inform travelers and agents not to book travel after October 1, 2004, until the GSA announces the awards and loads the rates into the reservation systems. The GSA will likely announce the award the first week of September.

New Contract for Integrated Pest Management Services

On July 21, 2004, a new contract for integrated pest management (IPM) services becomes effective. On April 21, 2004, the Postal Service™ awarded a national contract to Ecolab, Inc. (contract number 2CESER-04-Q-4463) for purchasing integrated pest management (IPM) services. Ecolab, Inc., is the exclusive source for all IPM services. IPM services include identifying pest infestations, controlling those infestations with short-term solutions (including the use of pesticides), and reducing or eliminating the causes of infestations with long-term solutions, such as structural modifications. You can order IPM services with a credit card until the contract is available on eBuy (some time before the end of FY 2004). We will publish an article in a future issue of the Postal Bulletin letting you know when the contract is available on eBuy.

The supplier will provide IPM services to Postal Service facilities in the 48 contiguous United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, when the contract becomes effective on July 21, 2004. We will provide detailed ordering instructions in a future Material Logistics Bulletin.

If you need IPM services before the contract's effective date, you can get them immediately from Ecolab, Inc., by placing an "open market" order at the contract price. You may use Ecolab, Inc.'s, toll-free telephone number (877-ECOPOST) or e-mail address (uspspest@ecolab.com) to place orders until eBuy ordering is operational. You will have to pay for open market orders with a credit card until the contract is effective.

If your facility has an existing contract that expires on or before October 1, 2004, you must let that contract proceed through its scheduled ending date. If your existing contract expires after October 1, 2004, you must exercise the standard 60-to-90 day termination option and contact Ecolab, Inc., to establish new service.

Postal Service Partnerships With Aerial Personnel Lift Suppliers

Background

The Postal Service™ formed strategic partnerships with two aerial personnel lift suppliers: Lift-A-Loft Corporation and JLG Industries, Inc. Both partnerships — formed in March 2004 — are potential 10-year contracts that will meet the Postal Service's present and future requirements for aerial lift technology. These partnerships will maximize parts interchangeability and increase standardization opportunities every time we purchase their equipment.

The aerial platform lift supply-chain initiative includes the following four categories of aerial lift equipment:

- Scissors platform lifts are commonly used in a variety of applications and normally can accommodate two workers with minimal horizontal reach.

- Boom/articulated boom lifts have increased horizontal reach.
- Narrow aisle/extended reach lifts have increased horizontal reach and a narrow aisle design.
- Vertical mast lifts are economical and can accommodate one worker with minimal horizontal reach.

Suppliers

Lift-A-Loft Corporation

The Lift-A-Loft Corporation contract (Contract No. 1CIE-QU-04-Q-2900) covers the narrow aisle/extended reach lift category. The contract provides an average 15 percent savings over previously paid equipment pricing and a 5 percent discount on original equipment manufacturer (OEM) parts. The contract also requires that Postal Service ordering officials purchase all of their narrow aisle/extended reach lifts from Lift-A-Loft Corporation.

JLG Industries, Inc.

The JLG Industries, Inc., contract (Contract No. 1CIE-QU-04-Q-2869) covers the scissors platform, boom/articulated boom, and vertical mast lifts categories. This contract provides an average 27 percent savings over previously paid equipment pricing and a 35 percent discount on OEM parts. The contract also requires that all Postal Service ordering officials purchase all of their scissors, boom, and vertical mast lifts from JLG Industries, Inc.
