“Root, root, root for the home team...”

The most popular song in baseball, “Take Me Out to the Ball Game,” is getting its own stamp. The seventh-inning sing-along celebrates its 100th anniversary this year, and USPS is covering all the bases for this one.

The Take Me Out to the Ball Game stamp will be officially dedicated Wednesday, July 16, in a ceremony held on the White House lawn. But it's our efforts with local communities that are really going to bring the joy of this song to baseball fans all across the country.

The Postal Service has teamed up with Little League Baseball and Pitch In For Baseball to promote the stamp in communities across the nation. Pitch In For Baseball's mission is to help kids all over the world by sharing the great American pastime. They collect and give baseball equipment and other assistance to young people around the world. Their motto says it all: Let your equipment play extra innings.

Postmasters from coast to coast are being asked to plan a homerun event to sell the stamp and encourage their customers to collect “gently used” or new baseball equipment — mainly baseball gloves. Our new Priority Mail Large Flat-Rate Box is perfect for shipping, and our new online Click-N-Ship discounts will make it easier and more affordable to send equipment to Pitch In For Baseball.

USPS celebrates 150th worksite with VPP status

When the Lake Orion, MI, Post Office recently earned Voluntary Protection Programs (VPP) status from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), it helped USPS reach a safety milestone.

Lake Orion is the Postal Service's 150th worksite to achieve VPP status — OSHA's highest safety award — since USPS entered the program in 2001.

Setting VPP milestones is not new at the Postal Service. In July 2005, USPS became the first federal organization to be accepted into the VPP corporate pilot program, a streamlined application and onsite evaluation process only for corporations dedicated to VPP.

OSHA representatives have praised USPS for its attention to the health and safety of its workers. “The Postal Service has consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to employee safety and health,” OSHA Area Director Robert Szymanski said to employees of Pittsburgh's Bulk Mail Center and Bethel Park Post Office. “You represent the cream of the crop.” Both worksites recently earned VPP status.

Letter carrier protects the mail

Glenn Moore helped stamp out mail fraud.

The Mobile, AL, loop station letter carrier was prepping his mail for delivery when he noticed one address receiving multiple credit cards from the same company. But each mailpiece was addressed to a different person. And Moore didn't recognize any of the names.

Mobile, AL, Loop Station Letter Carrier Glenn Moore.

Moore showed the letters to Customer Services Manager Sharon Shelter, who called Postal Inspectors. The Inspectors told them to hold the mail.

An investigation led Postal Inspectors to a suspect, who they allege is responsible for $103,000 in fraud losses. An indictment is expected.

Hurricane season begins this month

Hurricane activity during the last two years has been moderate. But 2008 could be different. The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration is predicting the possibility of more severe hurricanes this year.

That prediction comes on the heels of some of the worst tornadoes, high winds and winter flooding to hit the U.S. in recent years.

"We've already seen an unprecedented start this year, with severe weather affecting cities throughout the country," USPS Executive Director, National Preparedness, John Bridges said. "As summer approaches, we must be mindful of the possibilities for dangerous hurricanes, extreme winds, flooding, wildfires and downed power lines."

Bridges said the implications of violent weather calls for "launching a culture of preparedness, 24 x 7 x 365." Some simple steps to get ready include preparing an emergency supply kit, developing a communication plan and knowing where to go for local instructions.

Now is a good time to review with family and co-workers the possibility of potential disasters and why it's necessary to prepare for them. Go to: <http://www.nhc.noaa.gov/HAW2/english/intro.shtml> for more information on how to prepare for violent weather.

Elektra-fyin'!

Elektra, a retail chain with more than a 1,000 stores across Central and South America, wanted to make it easier for Mexican-Americans to buy appliances and other household goods for family members at local stores in Mexico.

The answer: catalog mailings and call centers to process U.S. orders, coupled with a system for the Mexican stores to verify payment and the recipient's identification.

USPS Global Account Manager Alfredo Villaescusa in Tucson, AZ, worked with Elektra. The first mailing of 220,000 catalogs was delivered last month in Chicago. Others are planned for New York, Los Angeles and Austin, TX. The company also is considering USPS to mail account statements in the future.

Current revenue from this account is $103,400 monthly — or an impressive $1.24 million annually.

About the Stamp

This 2008 stamp issuance commemorates the 100th anniversary of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," one of the most popular baseball songs of all time. For decades, the song's catchy chorus has been part of the musical tradition at ballparks around the country, especially during the seventh-inning stretch.

The Take Me Out to the Ball Game stamp will be officially dedicated on Wednesday, July 16, 2008, in a ceremony held on the White House lawn.

This 42-cent stamp was created by Richard Sheaff. Since 1983, he has been a design consultant to the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee, and in that capacity has been responsible for the design or art direction of more than 300 U.S. postage stamps.

History

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the song.

Jack Norworth, a successful vaudeville entertainer and songwriter, wrote "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" in 1908 on some scrap paper on a train ride to Manhattan. Norworth provided those paper scrap lyrics to Albert Von Tilzer, who composed the music, which in turn was published by the York Music Company. Before the year was over, a hit song was born.

Jack Norworth spent 15 minutes writing this classic, which today is sung during the seventh inning stretch at nearly every ball park in the country.

Jack Norworth and Albert Von Tilzer were posthumously inducted into the Songwriters Hall of Fame in 1970. Over the course of a long and successful career, Norworth wrote or co-wrote thousands of other songs, including "Shine On, Harvest Moon" (1908). He died on September 1, 1959, in Laguna Beach, California. Albert Von Tilzer was equally prolific. He composed for Broadway and film and is remembered for his popular work "I'll Be With You in Apple Blossom Time" (1920). He died on October 1, 1956, in Los Angeles, California.

The original, handwritten lyrics of Norworth and Von Tilzer's most celebrated collaboration now reside among the treasured collections of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, New York.

Origin of the 7th Inning Stretch

The seventh inning stretch is a time-honored baseball custom in which the fans ritualistically stand and stretch before their team comes to bat in the seventh inning. This is done not only to relieve stiff muscles due to sitting the previous six innings, but perhaps also to bring luck to one's team (an association with the number 7 and good luck, maybe?).

Unfortunately the exact origin of the custom is lost in the earliest days of the game. Baseball historian Dan Daniel is quoted by Zander Hollander (Baseball Lingo, 1967): "It probably originated as an expression of fatigue and tedium, which seems to explain why the stretch comes late in the game instead of at the halfway point."

The earliest reference that has surfaced appears in an 1869 letter from Harry Wright of the Cincinnati Red Stockings to a friend: "The spectators all arise between halves of the seventh inning, extend their legs and arms and sometimes walk about. In so doing, they enjoy the relief afforded by relaxation from a long posture upon hard benches."

The most popular story of its origin is also the most colorful. It was created in 1910 when President William Howard Taft, on a visit to Pittsburgh, went to a baseball game and stood up to stretch in the seventh inning. The crowd, thinking the chief executive was about to leave, stood up out of respect for the office.

The term itself can be traced back no further than 1920.

Song Lyrics

Take Me Out to the Ball Game — 1908 version

Katie Casey was base ball mad.
Had the fever and had it bad;
Just to root for the home town crew,
Ev'ry sou Katie blew.
On a Saturday, her young beau
Called to see if she'd like to go,
To see a show but Miss Kate said,
"No, I'll tell you what you can do."
"Take me out to the ball game,
Take me out with the crowd.
Buy me some peanuts and cracker jack,
I don't care if I never get back,
Let me root, root, root for the home team,
If they don't win it's a shame.
For it's one, two, three strikes, you're out,
At the old ball game."
Katie Casey saw all the games,
Knew the players by their first names;
Told the umpire he was wrong,
All along good and strong.
When the score was just two to two,
Katie Casey knew what to do,
Just to cheer up the boys she knew,
She made the gang sing this song:
"Take me out to the ball game,
Take me out with the crowd.
Buy me some peanuts and cracker jack,
I don't care if I never get back,
Let me root, root, root for the home team,
If they don't win it's a shame.
For it's one, two, three strikes, you're out,
At the old ball game."

Take Me Out to the Ball Game — 1927 version

Nelly Kelly love baseball games,
Knew the players, knew all their names,
You could see her there ev'ry day,
Shout "Hurray," when they'd play.
Her boy friend by the name of Joe
Said, "To Coney Isle, dear, let's go,"
Then Nelly started to fret and pout,
And to him I heard her shout.
"Take me out to the ball game,
Take me out with the crowd.
Buy me some peanuts and cracker jack,
I don't care if I never get back,
Let me root, root, root for the home team,
If they don't win it's a shame.
For it's one, two, three strikes, you're out,
At the old ball game."
Nelly Kelly was sure some fan,
She would root just like any man,
Told the umpire he was wrong,
All along, good and strong.
When the score was just two to two,
Nelly Kelly knew what to do,
Just to cheer up the boys she knew,
She made the gang sing this song.
"Take me out to the ball game,
Take me out with the crowd.
Buy me some peanuts and cracker jack,
I don't care if I never get back,
Let me root, root, root for the home team,
If they don't win it's a shame.
For it's one, two, three strikes, you're out,
At the old ball game."

IDEA #1:

Host an event in your retail lobby. Request that customers bring in their gently used equipment. Have the blowup of the stamp image veiled out in front. Have the new Priority Mail Large Flat-Rate Boxes and a computer and printer on hand. You and a participant can unveil the image, explain our relationship with Pitch In For Baseball, and then give customers a demonstration on how easy it is to use Click-N-Ship service to mail their used equipment.

IDEA #2:

Instead of hosting an event in your retail lobby, host it at a local Little League game or at a local neighborhood baseball game. As information, Little League Baseball's regular season ends July 4, and if there is an All-Star game near you, that could present a good opportunity. More information on games and schedules can be found at www.littleleague.org.

Pitch In For Baseball Information

Let Your Equipment Play Extra Innings

Pitch In For Baseball's mission is to help kids and make friends all over the world by sharing the great game of baseball. They collect and give baseball equipment and other assistance to young people in underserved communities around the globe.

Pitch In For Baseball has four goals:

1. To support the growth of baseball in the U.S. and overseas.
2. To give kids equipment so they can get out, have fun, and stay healthy.
3. To teach kids important lessons through baseball like teamwork and sportsmanship.
4. To make friends across the world through America's pastime.

Though invented in the U.S., many countries embrace baseball. Young players in the Pacific Rim and Latin America play the game with as much joy and success as kids in North America. Everywhere people play baseball, it becomes an important part of the culture and teaches kids many important lessons like teamwork and sportsmanship. It also gives kids the chance to be active, get fit, and have fun.

Step Up to the Plate

The gloves, bats, and other baseball equipment that are sitting in your closet or garage now can open a whole world of opportunities for a kid. Pitch in your gently used equipment or donate money to give the gift of baseball to a deserving child.

They're accepting donations of new or gently used equipment such as the following:

- Youth gloves.
- Youth cleats.

- Youth aluminum bats.
- Youth catcher’s gear.
- Instructional books and videos.
- Teaching aids such as batting tees.

What is the definition of “gently used”?

“Gently used” items are not damaged or in need of repair. The best way to think about something being “gently used” is if you would feel comfortable giving it to a friend or family member. If in doubt, go ahead and send it in.

Pitch It Right In Here

If you have a large quantity of items to send to Pitch In For Baseball, group the items by category. For example, ship bats in one box, gloves in another, etc.

If you are near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and have a large donation, you may choose to drive the items to the organization and see their operations first hand.

Who They Help

Kids all over the world enjoy the game of baseball. And through Pitch In For Baseball, even kids in impoverished communities can get the chance to play this wonderful game. The communities served often are struggling for their basic needs. We want to make sure that the kids in those communities aren’t overlooked.

Baseball gives them the structure and freedom to be kids so they can make good decisions for their future. Kids not only have fun, but also learn important lessons for their future like teamwork, sportsmanship, and dealing with adversity.

They ship new and gently used equipment to children all over the world, as well as here in the U.S. Anyone is eligible, so long as the community has a genuine need for youth baseball and softball equipment and the kids want to have fun. They normally work with leagues and programs in the community that have the ability to distribute the equipment and have a demonstrated track record of working with kids.

Collected equipment is sent to:

DMM Revision: New Pressure-Sensitive Barcoded Bundle Labels

Effective July 3, 2008, the Postal Service[™] will provide a new option for mailers who prepare flat-size mail bundled for 5-digit scheme or 3-digit scheme presort levels. Currently, mailers who prepare 5-digit scheme or 3-digit scheme bundles of flats are required to identify the presort level through the use of an optional endorsement line (OEL). With this change, the Postal Service is making 3-digit scheme and 5-digit scheme pressure-sensitive barcoded bundle labels available, which can be affixed to the top piece in a bundle in lieu of an OEL. The new labels are red for 5-digit scheme bundles, green for 3-digit scheme bundles, and bear the letters "SCH."

Although the recommended placement is to the lower left of the address area, bundle labels for flats may be placed anywhere on the address side of the top piece in the bundle, must not obscure the delivery address block, and must not be obscured by banding or shrinkwrap.

The new pressure-sensitive barcoded bundle labels will be available from the Postal Service (through existing procurement and supply sources) beginning in June 2008. There will be no automatic distribution of these labels. Managers of business mail entry must ensure that all Post Offices[™] within the service area of their district have access to the new labels as needed. Mailers can request these new labels from their local Post Office or business mail entry unit.

Ordering Instructions

The following seven labels are now available:

- Label F, Firm – Same Address.
- Label 5 SCH, Same 5-Digit Scheme Group.
- Label 5, Same 5-Digit ZIP Code.
- Label 3 SCH, Same 3-Digit Scheme Group.
- Label 3, Same 3-Digit ZIP Code.
- Label A, All for ADC.
- Label X, Mixed ADC.

Only Label 5 SCH and Label 3 SCH are new items; the remaining five labels have been available from the Material Distribution Center (MDC) since April 2004. Authorized USPS[®] representatives can order these barcoded labels from the MDC by using touch-tone order entry (TTOE): 800-273-1509. Note: Callers must be registered to use TTOE. To register, call 800-332-0317, option 1, extension 2925, and follow the prompts to leave a message. (Wait 48 hours after registering before placing your first order.)

DMM Revision: Advance Notice — Address Facing Standards for Presort Bundles on Pallets

The Postal Service™ is giving advance notice that effective September 11, 2008, we will require mailers to place presort bundles on pallets with the addresses facing up. Placement of presort bundles on pallets with the address side facing up is needed for efficient processing and, eventually, for the automated preparation and induction for the Flats Sequencing System (FSS) in the future. This new standard will aid in verifying that the contents are on the correct pallet and will enhance manual distribution of the bundles.

The Postal Service is in the process of implementing technological changes through the deployment of the FSS to automate delivery sequencing for flat-size mail. FSS can sort flat-size mailpieces into delivery sequence, increasing the efficiency of letter carriers by reducing time in sorting mail, and allowing delivery to begin earlier in the day. We also plan to use automated preparation stations to support the FSS. To be operationally effective, these stations will require bundles to lie flat on pallets.

These changes will be incorporated into Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 705.8 in our September 11, 2008, update as noted below. Mailers are encouraged to make the related changes to their mailings as soon as possible, but no later than September 11, 2008.

[Add new 227 to read as follows:]

227 Guidelines for the Purchase and Sale of Local Commemorative Envelopes

This part provides guidelines for postmasters and district managers for the local purchase and sale of commemorative envelopes (covers/cachets). See Exhibit 227 for a Local Purchasing and Sale of Commemorative Envelopes Check-Off Sheet.

227.1 Event Criteria for Producing Commemorative Envelopes

Commemorative envelopes should only be considered for large-scale local events or historical events that have either a broad local appeal or importance. Use the guidelines presented in this part when creating commemorative envelopes in support of local events. Only requests to create commemorative envelopes in support of local events will be accepted.

227.2 Responsibilities for Producing Commemorative Envelopes

227.21 Postmaster Responsibilities

227.211 Request to Produce Commemorative Envelopes

At least 90 days prior to a local event or the required product sales date, postmasters must submit their request to produce commemorative envelopes to their district manager or designee. Postmasters should direct any exceptions to the 90-day advance notice policy to their district manager or designee.

227.212 Items to Include With Requests

Postmasters must justify to their district manager or designee through a cost benefit analysis the expected Return on Investment (ROI). With the exception of work hours, all associated expenses are charged as a negative to revenue; therefore, projected revenue must exceed expense. When submitting a request to the district manager, postmasters should include the following items:

- a. A brief description of the local event including the dates, location, and expected number of attendees.
- b. A cost benefit analysis with a breakdown of actual costs (including work hours) and revenue projections. The analysis should include costs associated with the event and product development including the following:
 - (1) Cost of the stamps: the face value of postage stamps included on the product.
 - (2) Stamp bursting and affixing costs.
 - (3) Design costs: costs associated with the design of the commemorative envelope.
 - (4) Licensing costs: costs associated with using design or images on a cachet.
 - (5) Envelope costs: costs of the actual envelope.
 - (6) Printing costs: costs associated with printing the cachet.
 - (7) Price breaks: savings associated with ordering specific quantities of cachets.
 - (8) Cancellation costs: costs associated with cancelling the product, including work hours, postmark device, ink, or any other supplies.
 - (9) Packaging costs: supplier's cost to package for shipping.
 - (10) Shipping costs: costs associated with shipping for cancellation and final destination.
 - (11) Distribution costs: costs associated with distributing product to the retail counter.
 - (12) Mail order costs: costs associated with filling mail orders including work hours, office space, supplies, etc.
 - (13) Special event costs: costs associated with setting up and staffing a temporary retail unit at the local event (including work hours).
 - (14) Accounting costs: costs associated with tracking the product quantities during development and sales.
 - (15) Promotional costs: costs associated with any advertising or promotional effort.

- (16) Destruction costs: costs associated with product spoilage and excess product.
- c. Net revenue projections including the following:
- (1) Revenue projections: gross and net revenue projections based on expected unit sales.
- (2) Breakeven point: minimum product sales to cover all costs associated with the event and product development.
- (3) ROI.
- Note: See Exhibit 227.212 for a sample Cost Benefit Analysis.

- _____ Following the sales period, destroy remaining quantities. Destruction must be witnessed, and both parties who verified the destruction must sign off on the quantities.
- _____ Maintain a summary of the Commemorative Envelopes (Covers/Cachets) Unit Sales Activity Reports as documentation of the destroyed quantities for a period of 4 years.

Supplier Responsibilities

- _____ Clear all rights associated with any design or image incorporated on the commemorative envelope cachet and in the pictorial postmark design. The supplier must provide the postmaster with a letter stating that all third-party rights have been approved. The supplier assumes all risk associated with rights; there must be no risk to the Postal Service.
- _____ Bid the cost associated with the face value of the stamps as well as stamp-affixing costs. Factor in shipping costs associated with transporting the product.
- _____ Do not cancel/postmark the commemorative envelope.
- _____ Ensure that all commemorative envelopes designed and produced by suppliers are exclusive Postal Service products. Suppliers cannot sell the same cachet or product design to others outside of the Postal Service.

227.213 Administrative Responsibilities

If the district manager approves the request to produce a commemorative envelope, postmasters are responsible for ensuring that the following steps are completed:

- a. Step 1: Complete an eBuy and obtain all necessary funding approval.
- b. Step 2: Submit all purchases of $10,000 or greater to Supply Management for handling. Allow time for solicitation and award of the contract. In addition, if the purchase is valued at more than $10,000 and a specific supplier will be used due to existing licensing agreements, a noncompetitive justification is required.

The postmaster must request a letter from the supplier stating that all third-party rights have been approved. Postmasters must forward a copy of the supplier letter with the final commemorative cachet design to their district manager or designee.
- h. Step 7: Coordinate the printing, the stamp affixing, and the canceling of the commemorative envelope with the approved pictorial postmark. Suppliers may not cancel commemorative envelopes. Postmasters should arrange for the canceling of commemorative envelopes through local Postal Service staff. For large cancellation orders, postmasters should contact the manager, Stamp Fulfillment Services, at 816-545-1100. Stamp Fulfillment Services may be able to cancel the commemorative envelopes depending on their current workload.
- i. Step 8: Track all sales of commemorative covers in AIC 083, Local Commemorative Envelopes Sales. Integrated retail terminal (IRT) and manual offices should track sales manually. POS offices should scan barcodes to properly track sales (see 227.4, Financial Procedures, for POS instructions.)
- j. Step 9: Coordinate and manage the temporary station (retail unit) associated with the specific event. Temporary stations must have the pictorial postmark available for collectors' requests. The pictorial postmark used on the commemorative envelope product must be the same postmark that is used and/or made available at the temporary station.
- k. Step 10: Do not sell the envelope for the event sponsor if a sponsor creates a commemorative envelope for fund-raising purposes.
- l. Step 11: Fund all costs associated with any advertising and promotion. Additionally, postmasters and/or district managers are responsible for obtaining approval from the area advertising specialist for any advertisements that are created.
- m. Step 12: Include insert cards as an advertising/promotional piece with the commemorative envelope product, if desired. The supplier is responsible for the clearance of rights issues. The postmaster/district manager or a designee must forward the advertising/promotional piece to his or her area advertising specialist for approval.

- a. Clear all rights associated with any design or image incorporated on the commemorative envelope cachet and in the pictorial postmark design. The supplier must provide the postmaster with a letter stating that all third-party rights have been approved. The supplier assumes all risk associated with rights; there must be no risk to the Postal Service.

- c. Do not cancel/postmark the commemorative envelope.
- d. Ensure that all commemorative envelopes designed and produced by suppliers are exclusive Postal Service products. Suppliers cannot sell the same cachet or product design to others outside of the Postal Service.

Note: See Exhibit 227.22 for a sample Commemorative Envelopes Supplier Agreement.

227.23 District Responsibilities

The district's responsibilities are as follows:

- a. Approve or deny postmaster requests based on the justification provided.
- b. Maintain a finalized copy of the commemorative envelope design, a copy of the supplier letter stating that all third-party rights have been approved, and a copy of the pictorial postmark. These files should be maintained for a period of 4 years from the date of the event.

Note: Refer to Handbook PO-230 for pictorial postmark guidelines and a copy of the pictorial postmark announcement report. Handbook PO-230 is available through the Material Distribution Center and online via the Postal Service PolicyNet Web site at <http://blue.usps.gov/cpim>.

227.24 Headquarters (Stamp Services) Responsibilities

Stamp Services' responsibilities are as follows:

- a. Review pictorial postmark designs and inform postmasters of any concerns associated with the image/design.
- b. Place pictorial postmark information in the Postal Bulletin.

227.3 Legal Issues and Concerns227.31 Use of Third-Party Images and Artwork on Philatelic Item

In many cases, a stamp image contains elements that are co-owned by the U.S. Postal Service and by one or more other entities. The same third-party ownership may also exist in artwork reproduced on philatelic items that includes commemorative and/or first-day-of-issue covers/cachets. An example of a stamp series that contains images owned by other entities is The Art of Disney stamp series. Suppliers wishing to reproduce the actual stamp art or other Disney artwork on commemorative covers and/or philatelic products must obtain permission from Disney.

227.32 Refuse Purchase Orders Requiring the Postal Service to Obtain Rights

Postmasters cannot accept Purchase Orders that require them to obtain the rights in images, designs, and other intellectual property that are to appear on commemorative covers and other philatelic products. In some instances, suppliers selling philatelic products and commemorative covers to the U.S. Postal Service have not obtained permission from third-party owners for the use of the artwork, and have put a section in their purchase order and/or invoice requiring that the U.S. Postal Service obtain the rights to those drawings, pictures, text, or other elements displayed on the product. Postmasters must read all purchase orders and/or invoices carefully! It is critical that Postal Service staff ascertain whether invoices for commemorative and first-day-of-issue covers from suppliers contain such language. If an invoice for the purchase of commemorative or first-day-of-issue covers/cachets and similar items requires the Postal Service to obtain rights relating to the artwork displayed on them, the postmaster must refuse to sign/accept the purchase order and/or invoice and should decline the purchase.

Exhibit 227.22Sample Commemorative Envelope Supplier Agreement

The supplier agrees to the following when developing and selling commemorative envelopes to the United States Postal Service:

- Obtain any necessary rights to use any images, designs, names, signatures, and any other intellectual property rights associated with any design or image incorporated on the commemorative envelope cachet, in the pictorial postmark design, and in any other work created under this agreement.
- Indemnify the Postal Service, its officers, agents, and employees acting for the Postal Service against any and all loss, cost, damage, liability, and expenses arising out of or from any claim whatsoever (1) for violation of proprietary rights, copyrights, trademarks, and any other intellectual property rights or rights of privacy or publicity arising out of the creation, delivery, or use of any commemorative envelopes, pictorial postmark designs, or any other works furnished under this agreement, or (2) based upon any libelous or other unlawful matter contained in such envelopes or works.
- Provide the postmaster with a letter stating that all third-party rights have been approved.
- Assume all risk associated with rights. There must be no risk to the Postal Service.
- Do not cancel/postmark the commemorative envelopes for Post Offices.
- Ensure that all commemorative envelopes designed and produced by suppliers are exclusive Postal Service products.
- Do not sell the same cachet or product design to others outside of the Postal Service.
- Bid the cost associated with the face value of the stamps as well as stamp-affixing costs. Shipping costs associated with transporting the product should also be factored in.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <http://www.usps.com/missingmoneyorders/security.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military Mail

Mail addressed to military post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO ZIP™ Codes through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Acceptance clerks may contact the Military Postal Service Agency with any questions regarding APO/FPO ZIP Codes, toll free, at 800-810-6098, Monday-Friday, 0730–1600 ET.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the APO/FPO Table starting below.

227.4 Financial Procedures

227.41 Postmaster's Accounting Responsibilities

The postmaster's responsibilities are as follows:

- a. Coordinate the approval process with the district office.
- b. Coordinate all commemorative envelope and pictorial postmark initiatives.
- c. Verify that the total number of saleable and unusable (spoiled) items equals the number of stamps purchased. Both saleable and unusable items must be tracked on a Commemorative Envelopes (Covers/Cachets) Unit Sales Activity Report and be included in the final destruction.
- d. Provide a Unit Sales Activity Report to each participating retail sales unit. The report lists the quantity, sales price, and total value of commemorative envelopes being shipped to the participating Post Office. The total of all Unit Sales Activity Reports must equal the number of stamps purchased. See Exhibit 227.41 for a sample Unit Sales Activity Report.
- e. Maintain final Unit Sales Activity Reports and destruction records to determine the overall success of each product for a period of 4 years.
- f. Assist unit managers in determining the final disposition for excess commemorative envelopes.
- g. Process the purchase of postage stamps for affixing on commemorative envelopes through a retail associate. Retail associates will offset the stamp sale with an entry to AIC 524, Local Commemorative Envelopes Refunds/Expense. A copy of the approved eBuy is the support documentation for the entry into AIC 524.
- h. Update the Unit Sales Activity Report for his or her unit on a weekly basis and resolve any differences.
- i. Complete a consolidated Unit Sales Activity Report on a monthly basis after the beginning of the commemorative envelope promotion. The participating units will inventory the remaining quantity of envelopes and enter the value of this amount on the Unit

Sales Activity Report as ending value. When the ending value is subtracted from the beginning value, the sales amount must match the AIC 083 total for the same time period. The unit must resolve any difference. A copy of the consolidated report must be sent to the district manager or designee.

- j. Ensure that the district manager or a designee decides after 90 days about the disposition of the remaining envelopes based on the remaining quantity. The following are three acceptable dispositions:
 - (1) Continue availability for an additional 90 days at the unit. Verification must be performed weekly, and a Unit Sales Activity Report must be completed to ensure AIC 083 sales equal the value of envelope inventory reductions. The weekly record must be maintained at the unit for support documentation to the final destruction records.
 - (2) Immediately destroy remaining quantities.
 - (3) Transfer the existing quantity of envelopes to a philatelic unit within the district. The philatelic unit may continue sales of the envelope. The philatelic unit must maintain a sales record to be included with the final destruction records.

Note: A summary of the Unit Sales Activity Reports is the support documentation for the destruction quantities. Destruction of commemorative envelopes must be witnessed, with both parties verifying and signing off on the quantity destroyed, and at least one person must be an Executive and Administrative Schedule (EAS) employee.

Unit Sales Activity Reports and all other related invoices and/or retail unit forms should be retained for a period of 4 years, filed together with the unit's PS Form 1412, Daily Financial Report.

227.42 Post Office Accounting Responsibility

All nonworkhour expenses related to commemorative envelopes authorized by the district manager or designee through an eBuy should be charged to the unit's finance number using General Ledger Account 44041.524 as a local purchase.

Locally paid items associated with commemorative envelopes should be charged to AIC 524, and supporting documentation must be maintained.

227.5 POS Instructions for Local Commemorative Envelopes227.51 Renaming AIC 083

The following steps should be taken for renaming AIC 083, using item numbers 9445 through 9475 and setting the price at the unit level in the back office:

- a. Step 1: Log in to the POS system with the role of stock custodian or supervisor.

Note: Both of these roles allow the user to edit non-accountable items, but only the stock custodian can receive the items into the unit.
- b. Step 2: Select <Non-Retail Roles>.
- c. Step 3: Select <Back Office>.
- d. Step 4: Select <Inventory Options>.
- e. Step 5: Select <Edit Item Parameters>.
- f. Step 6: Enter or scan the desired item number (9445 through 9475).
- g. Step 7: Select <Description and Status>.
- h. Step 8: Key in the new item description and then press [Enter].
- i. Step 9: Toggle "Yes/No" for returns allowed and for exchange allowed.
- j. Step 10: Select <Accept and Go To Pricing and Tender>.
- k. Step 11: Key in the new selling price and then press [Enter].
- l. Step 12: Key in the new regular price and then press [Enter].
- m. Step 13: Select <Accept and Return to Options>.
- n. Step 14: Select <Return to Inventory Options>.

227.52 Receipt of Item Into the Unit

After the steps described in 227.51 are completed, the stock custodian can receive the items into the unit with the description and value they entered in the <Edit Item Parameters> workflow. It is important to edit the item number prior to receiving it into the unit. Otherwise, the retail unit will be receiving the designated product as "Local Product" for $0.00.

Use the <Receive Stock> workflow as usual, and the items will be entered into the retail product inventory category.

227.53 Retail Product Inventory Report

When viewing the Retail Product Inventory Report, the item is still listed as "local product" and not the name the user gave the item before bringing it into the unit; but, the item number and the value are correct. The report is returning the description directly from the proditem file. When the retail associate tries to sell the item, either by scanning the item or using the <Sell by Item Number> function, the item shows up with the new description and price. If the item description and value have not been edited as described in 227.52, when the retail associate tries to sell the item, either by scanning the item or using the <Sell by Item Number> function, the item still shows up as "local product" with a price of $0.00. At the time of the sale, retail associates can access <Edit Mode> using the up arrow; and because the item is non-accountable, the retail associates can change the price to the new selling price.

Delivery

New Notice Left and Return Guidelines

On June 16, 2008, the Postal Service™ ended automatic redelivery for Express Mail® service. If the customer is not available when the carrier makes a first attempt to deliver the Express Mail shipment, the carrier will leave a PS Form 3849, Delivery Notice/Reminder/Receipt. Now, the carrier does not attempt delivery the next day. On day three, if the customer has not contacted the Postal Service for delivery or picked up the Express Mail shipment, the carrier will leave a second PS Form 3849. If the customer has not contacted the Postal Service to arrange delivery or picked up the Express Mail shipment by close of business on day five, it is returned to the sender.

The Notice Left and Return Guidelines poster (see page 64) has been updated to reflect the changes to Express Mail service. For additional information, see http://blue.usps.gov/delret/L4CustServSupp_Function4.htm.

New Express Mail EP-13L Legal Size Envelope

On June 3, 2008, the Postal Service™ introduced a new packaging option — an Express Mail® legal-size envelope. The new larger envelope enables customers to ship legal-size documents without folding them, and is valid for both domestic and international shipments. The envelope dimensions are 15" x 9.5". Express Mail service, the Postal Service's guaranteed overnight delivery service, recently introduced zone-based pricing resulting in lower prices for closer destinations.

Customers will be rewarded with a 3 percent price reduction when purchasing Express Mail postage online or through Express Mail Corporate Accounts. Up to an additional 7 percent price reduction is available for those who meet quarterly volume minimums.

Post Offices™ that have access to eBuy should order their supplies at <https://ebuy.usps.gov/eBuyWelcome.jsp>.

Post Offices that do not have access to eBuy can order the Express Mail legal-size envelope from the Material Distribution Center (MDC) via touch-tone order entry (TTOE) at 800-273-1509. Note: You must be registered to use TTOE. Stamp Announcement 08-32: Take Me Out to the Ball Game

Copyright USPS 2007

On July 16, 2008, in Washington, DC, the Postal Service™ will issue a 42-cent Take Me Out to the Ball Game commemorative stamp in one design, in a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) pane of 20 (Item 462100). Designed by Richard Sheaff of Scottsdale, Arizona, the stamp goes on sale nationwide July 16, 2008.

This issuance commemorates the 100th anniversary of “Take Me Out to the Ball Game,” one of the most popular baseball songs of all time. For decades, the song’s catchy chorus has been part of the musical tradition at ballparks around the country, especially during the seventh-inning stretch. The song was born on a New York City train in the summer of 1908, when passenger Jack Norworth (1879–1959), an actor, singer, and songwriter who had never attended a major league ball game, saw a sign about an upcoming game at the Polo Grounds. Suddenly inspired, he took out a piece of paper and began dashing off lines about a fictional fan.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of those postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL POSTMARKS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP+4® CODE, exactly as listed below (using all capitals and no punctuation, except the hyphen in the ZIP+4 code).

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First Day of Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first day of issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® Web site at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first day of issue city. The first day of issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, P.O. Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of non-specified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first day of issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, P.O. Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

With these 16 stamps, the Postal Service honors the creativity and vision of designers Charles and Ray Eames. Perhaps best known for their furniture, they used new materials and technology to create high-quality products that addressed everyday problems and made modern design available to the American public.

The objects that appear on the stamps were selected from among hundreds of items created by the designers and represent the breadth of their extraordinary body of creative work, including:

- Christmas Card — Charles and Ray Eames delighted friends and family during the holiday season with Christmas cards they designed. The photograph they used in 1944 displays their affection and sense of humor. Ray holds an ornament above Charles's head. Behind them stands one of a number of molded plywood sculptures they created during the 1940s.
- Stacking Chairs — Introduced in 1955, these stacking chairs feature single-shell seats made of plastic that comfortably support the body. Available in a variety of colors, the chairs are noted for their versatility. The simple design allows them to be stacked for storage or linked together in horizontal rows—a useful solution for temporary seating in public places.

(Note: Eames furniture designs and the associated Eames trademark are the property of Herman Miller, Inc.)

- Case Study House #8 — Case Study House #8 was completed in 1949 as part of a program to create affordable homes out of materials and technology developed during World War II. Located in Pacific Palisades, California, the house is composed of two two-story structures made of steel and glass and connected by an open court. It was designated a National Historic Landmark in 2006.

Displaying the U.S. Flag and the POW-MIA Flag

U.S. Flag at Half-Staff

How to Display

Displaying the U.S. flag at half-staff means lowering the flag to half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff.

Specific Dates

Display the U.S. flag at half-staff on the following days each year:

- May 15: Peace Officers Memorial Day (see note 1 below).
- Last Monday in May: Memorial Day Observed (see note 2 below).
- December 7: National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day.

Note 1: When May 15, which is the date for Peace Officers Memorial Day, falls on the third Saturday in May, which is the date for Armed Forces Day, display the U.S. flag in the full-staff position, not at half-staff.

Note 2: On the last Monday in May, when Memorial Day is observed, display the flag at half-staff from sunrise, or the hour at which you raise it, until noon, and then hoist it to the peak of the staff, until the time of closing or no later than sunset.

POW-MIA Flag

How to Display

In relation to the U.S. flag, display the POW-MIA flag (and any other flag) as follows:

- If displayed on the same flagstaff, place it below the U.S. flag.
- If displayed on a separate flagstaff, place it at the same level or lower. If displayed at the same level, place it on the U.S. flag's left.

When flying the U.S. flag at half-staff, fly the POW-MIA flag (and any other flags) at half-staff also.

Specific Dates

Display the POW-MIA flag on the following days each year:

- Armed Forces Day: Third Saturday in May.
- Memorial Day: Last Monday in May.
- Flag Day: June 14.
- Independence Day: July 4.
- National POW-MIA Recognition Day: Third Friday in September.
- Veterans Day: November 11.

If any of these days fall on a nonbusiness day, display the POW-MIA flag on the last business day before the designated day.

For more detailed information about flying the U.S. flag and the POW-MIA flag, see the following parts in the Administrative Support Manual (ASM):

- ASM 472, U.S. Flag Display.
- ASM 476, POW-MIA Flag Display.
