DMM Revision: Changes to the Commercial Base Pricing Requirements for Priority Mail

Beginning October 1, 2008, the Postal Service™ is updating the requirements for commercial base prices by removing the electronic Confirmation Services requirement for Priority Mail® customers using permit imprint. Commercial base prices will be available for customers using permit imprint when a postal routing barcode matching the destination ZIP™ Code is on the mailpiece. Permit imprint customers mailing flat-shaped mailpieces meeting the criteria as stated in the Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 301.1.1, General Definition of Flat Size Mail, will be able to use a POSTNET™ or Intelligent Mail® barcode instead of the postal routing barcode to claim the commercial base prices.

The commercial base prices will continue to be available for Click-N-Ship® customers, registered end-users of PC Postage™ products when using a shipping label, and Priority Mail Open and Distribute customers using permit imprint with a service barcode on the address label.

Publication 52 Revision: New Option for Mailing Cremated Human Remains

Effective September 25, 2008, Publication 52, Hazardous, Restricted, and Perishable Mail, is revised to offer a new option for mailing cremated human remains to domestic addresses and to eliminate the current requirement for requesting a return receipt when the remains are sent via Registered Mail™ service.

Currently, the only option for mailing cremated human remains is Registered Mail service with return receipt requested. We now also offer the option to use Express Mail® service as a faster alternative for mailing cremated remains domestically. Since verification of the date and time of delivery for both Registered Mail and Express Mail service is now available online or by telephone, there is no longer a need to require return receipt service and this requirement is now removed.

[Revise the 3rd and 4th sentence of 452.2 as follows:]

Mailpieces sent to domestic addresses may be sent via Express Mail or Registered Mail service. Mailpieces sent to an international address must be sent via Registered Mail service, and the country listing in the IMM must show that cremated remains are permitted and Registered Mail service must be available for that country.

New Publication 312, A U.S. Postal Inspector's Guide to Internet Safety for Children

Postal inspectors and other prevention experts recommend you learn some basic principles — and ensure your children understand them — about how to stay safe on the Internet.

WORKPLACE HARASSMENT

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS! TAKE RESPONSIBILITY!

ELIMINATING WORKPLACE HARASSMENT

The United States Postal Service™ is committed to providing a work environment free of harassment based upon race, color, religion, sex (including sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender stereotyping), national origin, age (40+), mental or physical disability, or in retaliation for prior Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) activity and other inappropriate conduct.

The Postal Service workplace must be one in which all employees are treated with dignity and respect by supervisors, subordinates, and coworkers. There is no place in the Postal Service for intimidating, threatening, or coercive behavior.

STOPPING INAPPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR

Although not every instance of inappropriate behavior may meet the legal definition of harassment, such behavior in the workplace undermines morale and violates the Postal Service's policies and standards of conduct. Disciplinary action may result even if the conduct does not rise to the level of harassment as defined under the law, as such conduct nonetheless violates Postal Service policy and will not be tolerated. The Postal Service owes its employees a safe, productive, and inclusive workplace and will tolerate nothing less.

WORKPLACE HARASSMENT IS AGAINST THE LAW

Under federal antidiscrimination laws, harassment is defined as unwelcome verbal or physical conduct that demeans or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group of individuals. Employees will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including removal, for engaging in harassing behavior such as, but not limited to:

- Making offensive or derogatory comments, nicknames, or slurs.
- Engaging in physically threatening, intimidating, or humiliating actions.
- Making or threatening to make employment decisions based on an employee's submission to, or rejection of, sexual advances or requests for sexual favors.
- Deliberate or repeated unsolicited remarks with a sexual connotation, or physical contact of a sexual nature that is unwelcome to the recipient.
- Behavior that creates a sustained hostile or abusive work environment so severe or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with or changes the conditions of one's employment.

OBLIGATION TO REACT PROMPTLY

Postal Service employees who believe that they are the victims of workplace harassment or inappropriate conduct, or who have witnessed such harassment, should bring the situation to the attention of any one of the following:

- Your immediate supervisor or manager.
- Any supervisor or manager.
- The manager of Human Resources.
- A union representative or coworker to speak to a manager on your behalf.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The Postal Service, to the extent possible, protects the confidentiality of an employee's workplace harassment complaint.

WHAT USPS REQUIRES OF MANAGERS AND SUPERVISORS

Any manager or supervisor who receives a complaint must act to stop any inappropriate behavior, ensure that a prompt and thorough investigation is conducted, and ensure that harassing or inappropriate conduct does not recur—even if the behavior does not rise to the legal definition of harassment.

MANAGEMENT INQUIRY

All managers and supervisors should follow the Management Inquiry Process materials available in Publication 552 when a complaint is brought to their attention. If workplace harassment or inappropriate conduct is found, managers must take prompt and appropriate remedial action.

ADDITIONAL RELIEF

In addition, employees can seek relief through the EEO complaint process, grievance arbitration procedures established through the collective bargaining agreements with the unions, and the nonbargaining grievance procedures described in the Employee and Labor Relations Manual (ELM), 650. Employees pursuing an EEO complaint must contact the EEO Centralized Intake Center within 45 days of the act or acts giving rise to the claim in order to preserve their rights under federal law.

CRIMINAL ASSAULT

Report all possible criminal misconduct, sexual or otherwise, to local law enforcement, Postal Management, and the Postal Inspection Service.

RETALIATION IS ILLEGAL

Retaliation against employees who raise a claim of workplace harassment, report inappropriate conduct, or provide evidence in any investigation is illegal and can result in disciplinary action.

ZERO TOLERANCE

The Postal Service will not tolerate any workplace harassment based on race, color, religion, sex (including sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender stereotyping), national origin, age (40+), mental or physical disability, or in retaliation for prior EEO activity, or other inappropriate conduct in the workplace.

International Mail

New Shipping Requirements

Effective September 30, 2008, the U.S. Census Bureau is requiring mandatory filing of export information through the Automated Export System (AES) or through AESDirect for all international shipments where a Shipper's Export Declaration (SED) was previously required. This requirement was published on June 2, 2008 (Federal Register, June 2, 2008, Volume 73, Number 106, pages 31547–31590, codified at 15 C.F.R. Part 30) as an amendment to the Foreign Trade Regulations (FTR). The regulation impacts all companies, including the U.S. Postal Service®, that accept outbound international shipments containing goods.

This regulation mandates that Electronic Export Information (EEI) be filed when any type of goods (per Schedule B Export Codes at <http://www.census.gov/foreign-trade/schedules/b>) is valued at more than $2,500 or requires an export license under U.S. law. The EEI must be filed through the Census Bureau's AES or AESDirect website by the mailer or authorized agent (USPS never acts as an authorized agent). This information was formerly filed in hardcopy on Commerce Form 7525-V, Shipper's Export Declaration. Paper copies of the SED will no longer be accepted by the U.S. Postal Service. Postal employees will direct customers to the Census Bureau's websites and hotline phone number identified at the end of this article.

When the mailer or authorized agent has filed the EEI, AES will provide an alphanumeric Internal Transaction

Number (ITN), which confirms that EEI was successfully filed. Mailpieces presented to the Postal Service™ must bear the Proof of Filing Citation (PFC), which consists of the letters "AES" followed by the ITN. If the AES is unavailable at the time of filing, the mailer or authorized agent must provide an AES Downtime Citation, instead of the PFC, which consists of the letters "AESDOWN," the user's identification number, and the date. Customers must legibly write the PFC or EEI on the applicable Customs form without obstructing the barcode on the label. On PS Form 2976, Customs Declaration CN 22 — Sender's Declaration, customers may write the number anywhere on the 'green' portion of the form; and on the PS Form 2976-A, Customs Declaration and Dispatch Note — CP 72, they may write it at the top of the form or in any clear space. USPS® is in the process of redesigning both Customs forms to accommodate the electronic export information filing number.

To file through AESDirect, go to <http://www.aesdirect.gov>. For additional information on electronic filing, refer to the Census Bureau's website at <http://www.census.gov/foreign-trade/aes> or call the toll-free information hotline at 800-549-0595.

Stamp Announcement 08-46: Holiday Nutcrackers

© 2007 USPS

On October 23, 2008, in New York, New York, the Postal Service™ will issue a 42-cent, Holiday Nutcrackers special stamp in four designs. Designed by Derry Noyes of Washington, DC, the stamp goes on sale nationwide October 23, 2008.

The stamp will be issued in the following formats:

- Pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) double-sided booklet of 20 stamps (Item 678000).
- PSA folded vending booklet of 20 stamps (Item 678100).
- Automatic Teller Machine (ATM) sheetlet of 18 stamps (Item 571700).

Nutcrackers have been around for centuries. They range from simple utilitarian devices to elaborate collectibles, with a host of creations that fall somewhere in between. During the winter holiday season, nutcrackers of all shapes and sizes are familiar sights in toy stores, on Christmas trees, on mantel pieces, on book and magazine covers, and in performance venues.

Four eye-catching nutcracker designs — Santa (or “Father Christmas”), a king, a captain, and a drummer — add colorful, humorous touches to winter holiday correspondence in 2008.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word "USPS" repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <http://www.usps.com/missingmoneyorders/security.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Overseas Military Mail

Mail addressed to military post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO ZIP™ Codes through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Acceptance clerks may contact the Military Postal Service Agency with any questions regarding APO/FPO ZIP Codes, toll free, at 800-810-6098, Monday-Friday, 0730–1600 ET.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

Missing Children Poster Display Instructions

Post Offices, classified stations, branches, and contract postal units may display this poster at their option. If the poster is displayed, it should be placed on the community bulletin board located in the Post Office™ box lobby and not in the main retail (full service) lobby. Alternatively, Missing Children posters can be maintained in a binder behind the counter to be used as a reference guide. The posters also may be posted in a prominent location where letter carriers will be able to see them before or after they go out on their routes. Making this information available to letter carriers is consistent with the NALC/USPS Child Alert Program to facilitate identification of missing children.

Companion posters, authorized for display on bulletin boards maintained by employee organizations, appear periodically in The Postal Record, a publication for members of the National Association of Letter Carriers.

This poster is published in cooperation with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the United States Department of Justice, and the National Association of Letter Carriers. Information appearing on this poster is selected solely by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC).

In addition to Postal Bulletin updates, NCMEC distributes information periodically. Notification of newly reported missing children is sent to designated district “Missing Children” coordinators via e-mail addresses provided by district managers. Within 24 hours of receipt of an e-mailed Missing Children poster, district coordinators should distribute copies to all Postal Service™ facilities in their districts. Missing Children posters are to be displayed as noted above for 30 days unless notification is received (from NCMEC) to remove a particular poster sooner. The e-mail network is used to distribute posters and information in only the most urgent cases of missing children. This system supplements, but does not replace, the missing children information in this Postal Bulletin.

Missing Children posters are available to the U.S. Postal Service® only as described above. If Postal Service employees are contacted by individuals or local agencies about displaying a sign or poster of a missing child in local Post Offices, the individual or agency should be politely informed that the U.S. Postal Service displays only those posters provided by NCMEC, because it has been designated by the U.S. Department of Justice to be the national clearinghouse and resource center for missing and exploited children. The individual or agency should then be referred to NCMEC at 800-843-5678.

If you have any information, or for free prevention tips, please call 800-THE-LOST (800-843-5678).

This system supplements, but does not replace, the missing children information in this Postal Bulletin.

Missing Children posters are available to the U.S. Postal Service® only as described above. If Postal Service employees are contacted by individuals or local agencies about displaying a sign or poster of a missing child in local Post Offices, the individual or agency should be politely informed that the U.S. Postal Service displays only those posters provided by NCMEC, because it has been designated by the U.S. Department of Justice to be the national clearinghouse and resource center for missing and exploited children. The individual or agency should then be referred to NCMEC at 800-843-5678.

If you have any information, or for free prevention tips, please call 800-THE-LOST (800-843-5678).

Missing Children Poster Display Instructions

Post Offices, classified stations, branches, and contract postal units may display this poster at their option. If the poster is displayed, it should be placed on the community bulletin board located in the Post Office™ box lobby and not in the main retail (full service) lobby. Alternatively, Missing Children posters can be maintained in a binder behind the counter to be used as a reference guide. The posters also may be posted in a prominent location where letter carriers will be able to see them before or after they go out on their routes. Making this information available to letter carriers is consistent with the NALC/USPS Child Alert Program to facilitate identification of missing children.

Companion posters, authorized for display on bulletin boards maintained by employee organizations, appear periodically in The Postal Record, a publication for members of the National Association of Letter Carriers.

This poster is published in cooperation with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the United States Department of Justice, and the National Association of Letter Carriers. Information appearing on this poster is selected solely by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC).

In addition to Postal Bulletin updates, NCMEC distributes information periodically. Notification of newly reported missing children is sent to designated district "Missing Children" coordinators via e-mail addresses provided by district managers. Within 24 hours of receipt of an e-mailed Missing Children poster, district coordinators should distribute copies to all Postal Service™ facilities in their districts. Missing Children posters are to be displayed as noted above for 30 days unless notification is received (from NCMEC) to remove a particular poster sooner. The e-mail network is used to distribute posters and information in only the most urgent cases of missing children. This system supplements, but does not replace, the missing children information in this Postal Bulletin.

Missing Children posters are available to the U.S. Postal Service® only as described above. If Postal Service employees are contacted by individuals or local agencies about displaying a sign or poster of a missing child in local Post Offices, the individual or agency should be politely informed that the U.S. Postal Service displays only those posters provided by NCMEC, because it has been designated by the U.S. Department of Justice to be the national clearinghouse and resource center for missing and exploited children. The individual or agency should then be referred to NCMEC at 800-843-5678.

If you have any information, or for free prevention tips, please call 800-THE-LOST (800-843-5678).

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of those postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL POSTMARKS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP+4® CODE, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

The following pictorial postmarks have been extended for 30 days:

Safety

Fire Prevention Week 2008: October 5–11

“Prevent Home Fires!” is the theme of Fire Prevention Week 2008, sponsored by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), an international nonprofit organization that provides information on fire, electrical, and building safety.

The message for 2008: “Your home should be a safe haven. But do you regularly check for home fire hazards? If not, there is the potential for danger!” According to NFPA, the leading causes of home fires are cooking, heating, and electrical and smoking materials.

NFPA has posted a wide variety of materials for Fire Prevention Week on its website <http://www.nfpa.org/itemDetail.asp?categoryID=1438&itemID=34420>, including a checklist to inspect homes for fire risk; activity suggestions for fire departments, teachers, children, and families; and facts about fires. You can even take an online quiz to test your home escape planning know-how!

The Postal Service™ encourages managers, employees, and safety professionals to use the NFPA materials when preparing local Fire Prevention Week presentations or activities. The materials may not be used for commercial purposes; however fire departments, civic groups, and workplaces are encouraged to copy and distribute them.

Fire Prevention Week provides us all with an opportunity to identify and correct conditions at work and at home that may cause fires and tragic losses.
