Cover Story

Engagement is the Difference

Every quarter, 25 percent of the career employee population is randomly selected to complete the Voice of the Employee (VOE) survey. The VOE is the United States Postal Service's measure of employee engagement. What is significant about employee engagement? Engagement is an emotional attachment to the organization and one's work that leads to pride, commitment, and a willingness to go above and beyond on the job.

Research into the "drivers" of engagement has shown that employees are most engaged when they have the right tools, training, information, and leadership they need to do their job. Engaged employees know how their work impacts the success of the Postal Service™, and they are enabled and motivated to achieve results.

What can managers and supervisors do to help employees feel more engaged? Keep employees apprised of what is going on in your installation and in the entire organization. Give them individual feedback about how they are performing, and coach them to be the best they can be. Give them opportunities to develop and grow professionally. Watch your VOE scores each quarter to see how you're doing, share your results with employees, and listen to their ideas for making improvements.

Ensure you and your employees are being heard.

Surveys for Quarter 4 are currently being mailed. Make sure all employees have the opportunity to complete their VOE survey confidentially.

Grow Your Business Days Publicity Kit

New Grow Your Business Days Topic: “A Simpler Way to Ship Your Online Items”

Grow Your Business Days (GYBD), a series of quarterly focused initiatives designed to educate small businesses about Postal Service™ products and services, is an ongoing success. To date, more than 3,000 GYBD events have been conducted.

Launched in Quarter Three, GYBD began with Every Door Direct Mail (EDDM) as the first topic. EDDM is designed to make advertising through the mail easy and accessible for small businesses by enabling them to market to a specific geographic area without a mailing list. EDDM will continue to be a sales and marketing priority through Quarter Four. Therefore, continue to host additional GYBD EDDM events and ensure prompt follow-up with prospects from all past and current events.

In addition to continuing to promote EDDM in Quarter Four, we'll be educating online shippers about our unique relationship with eBay as well as the benefits of using the Postal Service as a shipping partner. In a recent Growth and Revenue video, President and Chief Marketing/Sales Officer Paul Vogel said that there's going to be a “fresh focus” on eBay. “We're partnering with eBay to show online sellers how they can ship with the Postal Service — quickly, easily, and affordably.”

With more than 94 million active users globally, eBay is one of the world's largest online marketplaces. The retailer has made the Postal Service its “leading shipper of choice,” integrating Postal Service products with its shipping platform. “From online price breaks to flat-rate packaging to Package Pickup, the Postal Service can help online sellers lower their shipping costs,” said Vogel.

Vogel called on local GYBD organizers to update online shippers on the Postal Service's new shipping products, such as Priority Mail® Regional Rate Boxes. “And don't forget about returns,” he added. “With easy and convenient drop-off and pickup, we offer several options that can make returning items easy for online sellers and their customers.”

To help with your meetings and presentations to customers, there are a variety of sales materials supporting “A Simpler Way to Ship Your Online Items.” For specifics, see the article “Business Connect Quarterly Contest Postmaster Kit” in Postal Bulletin 22314 (6-30-11, pages 3–13).

“Every Door Direct Mail through Grow Your Business Days events laid the groundwork,” said Vogel. “Keep up the good work, and good luck in promoting A Simpler Way to Ship Your Online Items. Your efforts are greatly appreciated.”

Publicity Kit: Flags of Our Nation Forever Stamps

Stamp Overview

In 2011, the U.S. Postal Service® continues its Flags of Our Nation series with 10 more stamp designs that feature the flags of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the states of Ohio through Tennessee.

In addition to the flag art, each stamp design includes artwork that provides a “snapshot view” of the state or other area represented by a particular flag. In most cases, an everyday scene or activity is shown, but occasionally the view is of something less commonplace — rare wildlife, perhaps, or a stunning vista. Unlike some previous multi-stamp issuances, this series is not limited to official animals, flowers, or products; nor is it meant to showcase well-known buildings, landmarks, or monuments.

Artist Tom Engeman, a resident of Bethany Beach, Delaware, created the highly detailed flag portraits and snapshot views on the stamps. Over the years, the artist’s colorful and imaginative designs have appeared on many Postal Service™ products, including the National World War II Memorial stamp (2004) and the nation’s first Forever® stamp (2007).

The following statements describe each of the 10 stamps that will be issued in 2011:

1. Northern Marianas

The blue flag of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands features the outline of a latte stone (a traditional foundation stone used in building), a five-pointed star, and a wreath. Snapshot art shows sandy beaches with coconut palms.

2. Ohio

The state flag is a tapered, swallow-tailed shape, with 17 stars representing when the state joined the Union; the white circle with the red center is an “O” for Ohio. Snapshot art includes a butterfly, milkweed plants, and a stretch of river.

3. Oklahoma

A Native American shield, a peace pipe, and an olive branch appear above the state name on the flag’s blue field. Snapshot art features oil-pumping equipment.

4. Oregon

This navy blue flag bears a shield surrounded by 33 stars, with an eagle at the crest of the shield, the words “State of Oregon,” and the date “1859” (the year Oregon became the 33rd state). A beaver appears on the reverse of the flag (not shown). Snapshot art includes camas lilies and Mount Hood.

5. Pennsylvania

Centered on the flag’s blue field is the state coat of arms, which features a shield supported by two horses; the shield includes a ship, a plow, and three sheaves of wheat. Snapshot art features white-tailed deer.

6. Puerto Rico

The flag of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico has five alternating red and white horizontal stripes; a five-pointed star is centered on the blue triangle on the left. Snapshot art includes a Puerto Rican tody, a colorful little bird found throughout the main island.

7. Rhode Island

Centered on the flag’s white field is a gold ship’s anchor surrounded by 13 stars. Below the anchor is a blue ribbon that displays the word “HOPE”, the state motto. Snapshot art features a sailboat with a spinnaker.

8. South Carolina

The flag’s blue field features a crescent and a palmetto tree, both in white. Snapshot art evokes a marshy area, with gazebo, near the coast.

9. South Dakota

On this light blue flag, the state seal is framed by a serrated yellow border and encircled by the words “South Dakota” and “The Mount Rushmore State”. Snapshot art features a herd of bison.

10. Tennessee

At the center of the red, white, and blue flag are three stars on a white-bordered blue disk. Snapshot art depicts male and female scarlet tanagers.

Design Brief

These “se-tenant” stamps (a philatelic term describing an attached pair, strip, or block of stamps that differ in design, color, or denomination) are arranged alphabetically in strips of 10 and sold in coils of 50 (5 strips of 10 designs in each coil). Individual stamps are twice the width of standard definitives.

Artist Tom Engeman, a resident of Bethany Beach, Delaware, created the highly detailed flag portraits on the stamps, reproducing as accurately as possible — considering the stamp-size format — such complex elements as intricate state seals and coats of arms. Over the years, the artist’s colorful and imaginative designs have appeared on many Postal Service products, including the National World War II Memorial stamp (2004) and the nation's first Forever stamp (2007).

In addition to the flag art, each stamp design includes a "snapshot view" of the state or other area represented by a particular flag. This artwork, also by Tom Engeman, usually shows an ordinary scene or activity, or a typical plant or animal, but occasionally it depicts something less commonplace. It is not restricted to official animals, flowers, and products; nor is it meant to showcase familiar buildings, landmarks, and monuments.

First Day of Issue and First Day of Sale Postmarks

The Postal Service has authorized a first day of issue postmark design for the first day of issue ceremony in Columbus, Ohio, where all 10 stamps in the coil will be dedicated on August 11, 2011. The Postal Service has also authorized a first day of sale postmark for dedication events held on August 11 in cities other than the officially designated first day of issue city. Customers have 60 days to obtain the first day of issue and the first day of sale postmarks by mail.

The First Day of Issue Postmark

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first day of issue postmark by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop, or by calling 800-STAMP-24. They should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address the envelopes to themselves or others, and place them in a larger envelope addressed to:

Flags of Our Nation: Set 5 Stamps
Postmaster
850 Twin Rivers Dr.
Columbus, OH 43216-9998

After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes through the mail. There is no charge for the postmark. All orders must be postmarked by October 11, 2011.

Pictorial Postmarks

Stamp dedication events held on days following the first day of issue or first day of sale events are known as special dedication ceremonies. The first day of sale postmarks, shown here, may be modified for special dedication ceremonies.

To use the first day of sale postmark artwork for a special dedication event, the "FIRST DAY OF SALE" wording must be replaced with the name of the "STATION" where the special dedication event will be held. The postmaster's city, state, and ZIP Code™ must also appear in the postmark, just under the banner.

Post Offices can offer these postmarks through mailback service for 30 days. The Postal Service must make all postmarking services known to collectors through advance publicity in the Postal Bulletin. You must report all first day of sale and special dedication pictorial postmarks to Stamp Services 2 weeks before the events on PS Form 413, Pictorial Postmark Announcement/Report. You can find the form at <http://blue.usps.gov/formmgmt/pt.htm>.

First Day of Sale State Postmarks

Guidelines for Finalizing First Day of Sale and Special Dedication Pictorial Postmarks

First Day of Sale and Special Dedication Event Tips

Before the Event

Send a written invitation 2 weeks before the event to the mayor of your community and any other local elected officials you feel would be appropriate. The local postmaster or district manager should sign the invitations.

Follow up on the written invitation with a telephone call to the elected official's scheduler within a week if you have not received a reply. You may need to call more than once.

Keep in touch with all elected officials who respond. If asked, provide updated information to the elected official's staff as it becomes available (such as who else is participating, where and when to meet, and what his or her role will be). Stress that remarks should be brief and limited to the unveiling of the Flags of Our Nation stamps and recognition of the role of the U. S. Postal Service in celebrating the state's majestic flag, our nation's natural features and cultural diversity, and our mission to connect the nation together through affordable, universal service.

If you create a program, include names of all participating elected officials on the program as honored guests, and mention them in all media advisories.

After the Event

Send a written thank you letter to all elected officials who participated in the ceremony, expressing your appreciation.

Provide copies of any newspaper articles about the event to their offices. Even though the officials might see those articles on their own, you can take the opportunity to remind them of the press coverage the event received.

Provide a small supply of extra cachets or covers with the special cancellation, if applicable, to elected officials — even to those who could not attend. These make great giveaways and serve as a positive reminder of the event.

Obtain and frame a photo of the elected official posing beside the stamp image and make an appointment to present it in person, if possible. A matted, well-framed photograph stands a good chance of being hung on the wall of the official's office, again serving as a positive reminder of the event.

Keep in touch with your elected officials. Good relationships are built over time.

Publicity Ideas

The release of these stamps offers an ideal opportunity for postal communities in each state to celebrate their flag and connect with residents and community leaders. There are many ways to generate local media interest in the stamps:

- Host a Flags of Our Nation celebration of the diversity of your local community. Invite community members to display ethnic foods, arts, and crafts and perform music and dance. Invite caretakers of local historic and scenic venues (e.g., historic buildings, lighthouses, state forests, large parks, and lakes) to have displays at the celebration.
- Host a press conference announcing the issuance of the Flags of Our Nation stamps. Participants might include the postmaster and the head of the local Chamber of Commerce.
- Develop a state flag display at your Post Office and invite operators of establishments such as local historic houses, renovated factories, riverboats, and lighthouses, and local Chambers of Commerce to contribute images for a colorful patriotic display.
- Plan an event at the local library or other public location and include a display of an enlargement of the new stamp for your state flag. Invite appropriate speakers including congressional, civic, and community leaders.
- Invite groups of children (such as children of postal employees, Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops, and 4H Clubs) to write and illustrate letters about "What My State Flag Means to Me" to be published in the local newspaper.
- Invite groups of children to write "Letters about Our State Flag" to be displayed in the local library or community center, written to a real or imaginary friend about "Great Things to See and Do in [INSERT YOUR STATE NAME HERE]."

Speech Segments

The following suggested speech segments are for use at local ceremonies and events. Feel free to customize them to fit your local event and community.

Opening

Good [INSERT “MORNING”/“AFTERNOON”].

It's a great honor for me to represent the United States Postal Service today as we dedicate the [INSERT STATE NAME] Flags of Our Nation stamp. It's a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our beloved state flag ... and to share our pride with the nation by using these stamps on our correspondence.

With this stamp, the Postal Service continues its tradition of celebrating our nation's diverse gifts and natural treasures.

Flag Series

For nearly 140 years, the American Flag has been a perennial stamp favorite of the American people. Our flag was first featured in 1869 on the Shield Eagle and Flags stamp. And it has been making highly applauded curtain calls ever since.

We love our flag as a symbol of our country's unity and pride and the values we hold dear. We revere our flag as a potent reminder that we are one nation, united and indivisible.

Our flag also tells a story. In the 13 stripes, we are reminded of the heroic actions taken by the 13 colonies to form a new nation dedicated to the principle that all people are created equal.

Against a field of blue, we see 50 shining stars ... one for each of the 50 states. And each of those states has its own unique history and traditions. Each state brings something very special and important to our national union.

Today, we are here to celebrate one of those shining stars. Today, it is our privilege to pay tribute to the great state of [INSERT STATE NAME]. We are here to honor [INSERT STATE NAME] history, her beauty, and her contributions to our union. And what better way to do that than with the sovereign symbol of our state, the proud flag of [INSERT STATE NAME].

Like the stars in our Star Spangled Banner, the stamp we are about to unveil is part of something greater. The Postal Service will launch a 60-stamp series that will feature the Stars and Stripes, the 50 state flags, five territorial flags, and the District of Columbia flag.

And each of these stamps will also portray a local “snapshot” that captures a bit of the local natural wonder that inspired the beloved song: “America the Beautiful.”

Localization

All news is local, so find an angle that will appeal to the audience.

Closing

The majestic [INSERT STATE NAME] Flags of Our Nation stamp will also serve as a lasting reminder of the Postal Service's commitment to our role in connecting the nation together through universal service at affordable rates, regardless of which state, territory, or city you call home.

And now, if [INSERT NAMES OF CEREMONY PARTICIPANTS] would join me in unveiling the [INSERT STATE NAME] Flags of Our Nation stamp...

I appreciate this opportunity to introduce this stamp to our customers and friends in this community. Thank you again for taking the time to join us here today for this momentous occasion.

Dear [INSERT TITLE AND NAME]:

On behalf of the [INSERT NAME OF DISTRICT OR POST OFFICE] and the United States Postal Service, I am pleased to invite you to participate in the dedication of the Flags of Our Nation postage stamps at [INSERT EXACT LOCATION] on [INSERT DATE] at [INSERT TIME]. While this coil of stamps honors 10 state flags, our ceremony will highlight the special role of the [INSERT STATE NAME] state flag stamp.

In 2008, the U.S. Postal Service introduced Flags of Our Nation, a multi-stamp series featuring the 50 state flags, five territorial flags, the District of Columbia flag, and the Stars and Stripes flag. A total of 60 stamp designs will be issued when the series is complete.

In 2011, the U.S. Postal Service continues its Flags of Our Nation series with 10 more stamp designs that feature the flags of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the states of Ohio through Tennessee.

At the dedication ceremony, you will be invited to speak briefly about the significance of the [INSERT STATE NAME] state stamp. We plan a unique photo opportunity for the dedication and expect significant press coverage of the ceremony. We hope you will join us to commemorate our past and celebrate our future by renewing the common bonds of the American experience.

Dear [INSERT TITLE AND NAME]:

The employees of the [INSERT CITY NAME] Post Office wish to thank the citizens of [INSERT CITY NAME] for their enthusiasm and support in making yesterday's release of the Flags of Our Nation postage stamps a successful event for our community and for the U.S. Postal Service.

Writing and sending greetings is a tradition that has preserved our nation's history and changed lives — particularly in times of war and in times of personal triumph and tragedy. Unlike other communications, written correspondence is timeless, personal, and immediately tangible.

Our nation's commemorative stamp program has been developed over the past 100 years largely through the participation of the American people. Your stamp ideas and suggestions are instrumental in helping the Postal Service honor some of the greatest achievements and achievers that have made our country great.

We believe the Flags of Our Nation [INSERT STATE] stamp, and the nine other stamps in this set, represent important steps in our effort to recognize the history and majesty of the great flags of our nation.

Whether by providing universal mail service to everyone, everywhere, every day, or through our responsibilities as a community leader, the Postal Service will continue to work hard to deliver quality communications services across the country and right here in [INSERT CITY NAME].

Sincerely,

DMM Revision: Media Mail and Library Mail — Consolidation

Effective August 1, 2011, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 170, 370, and 470 to combine the requirements for Media Mail® with the requirements for Library Mail. In doing so, we eliminated 180, 380, and 480.

The mailing requirements for Media Mail are similar to the requirements for Library Mail as it pertains to price application, computing postage, postage payment, preparation methods, and deposit. Deleting the Library Mail requirements from the DMM and combining those with Media Mail requirements reduces redundant language and eliminates almost 60 pages of text.

Where appropriate, we added the words “Library Mail” to show that the requirements for Media Mail are identical to the requirements for Library Mail. If the two classes of mail had different requirements, such as content eligibility, we kept the requirements separate.

We will incorporate these revisions into the next monthly update of the online DMM available via Postal Explorer® at <http://pe.usps.com>.

DMM Revision: Reassignment of ZIP Codes Between Memphis NDC and Dallas NDC

Effective September 6, 2011, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 246.3, 346.3, 366.4, 446.3, 453.3, and 466.4 to incorporate the following mail processing changes: Mailers preparing destination network distribution center (DNDC) mailings must change their mail preparation for mail addressed to 3-digit ZIP Code™ 706 destinations by labeling those containers to Memphis NDC, and enter that mail at the Memphis NDC facility rather than at the Dallas NDC facility. Mailers with DNDC mailings must also change their preparation for mail for 3-digit ZIP Codes 713 and 714 by labeling those containers to the Dallas NDC rather than the Memphis NDC. We also removed the unassigned ZIP Code prefix 771 from the eligibility exhibits.

Make these mail preparation changes as soon as practical, but no later than August 20, 2011.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at www.usps.com/missingmoneyorders/security.htm.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Stop Sending Copies of PS form 8176, Premium Forwarding Service Application to Headquarters

Offices are no longer required to send a copy of PS Form 8176, Premium Forwarding Service® (PFS®) Application, to Headquarters (HQ). In 2005, the application was a four-part form and “Distribution: Copy 3 — HQ” was sent to Headquarters. The form has been revised multiple times and “Distribution: Copy 3 — HQ” has not been a part of the application for several years, but we continue to get copies of the application. Many offices continue to use the 2005 or 2006 edition of the form, and others are making copies of “Distribution: Copy 1 — Post Office” and sending it to HQ.

Please use the most current, January 2011, edition of the form. It has a new format and the Terms and Conditions have been updated. You can order the current edition of the form from the Material Distribution Center and use touch-tone order entry (TTOE). Call 800-273-1509.

Note: You must be registered to use TTOE. To register, call 800-332-0317, option 1, extension 2925, and follow the prompts to leave a message. (Wait 48 hours after registering before placing your first order.)

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First Day of Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first day of issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first day of issue city. The first day of issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first day of issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.
