Passport Services

Nothing is more enjoyable than knowing a vacation is around the corner, and nothing is more disappointing than forgetting an important “to do” before heading on your way. If your travel plans will take you outside of the United States, a passport is a must! If you already have a passport, remember to check the expiration dates of your entire family’s passports well in advance of your departure date. U.S. passports are issued to adults for 10 years and to children under the age of 16 for 5 years. This means that even though your passport may be valid, your child (who may now be a 20-year-old adult) could be carrying an expired passport. This happens more times that we care to think about, and often results in a last-minute trip to a passport agency and the additional payment of a $60 expedite fee.

The Department of State’s Passport Services, Directorate issues passports and passport cards to U.S. citizens. In fiscal year 2011, approximately 12.6 million U.S. passports were issued, and the demand for passports will continue due to stricter travel regulations that require a U.S. passport book, a U.S. passport card, or other documents approved by the Department of Homeland Security (<http://www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/travel/vacation/getyouhome/>) for entry into the United States.

Which passport product best suits your needs — the passport book or the passport card?

The passport book provides the traveler with the identification and proof of citizenship to travel anywhere in the world, by any conveyance — in other words, it can be used for all international travel, whether by air, land, or sea.

The passport card is a travel document that can be used for entering the United States from Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Bermuda at land border crossings or sea ports-of-entry. It cannot be used for international air travel. The wallet-size passport card is convenient and less expensive than the passport book and was designed for those that make frequent trips across the borders. Travelers considering applying for the passport card should check the document requirements of the countries to be visited, as some may not accept the passport card for entry.

Whether you plan to apply for a passport book, passport card, or both, submitting your passport application is a quick trip away. With thousands of Post Office™ locations that accept passport applications, the U.S. Postal Service® makes it convenient to apply for your passport. Visit www.usps.com/passport to locate a Post Office near you that offers passport services.

Tips for Traveling Abroad

- Sign up for the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program so the State Department can better assist you in an emergency: a free online service at <https://travelregistration.state.gov>
- Leave copies of your itinerary, passport data page, and visas with family or friends so you can be contacted in case of emergency.
- Country-specific information, travel warnings, and travel alerts are updated regularly and are accessible through the State Department’s travel information website at <http://www.travel.state.gov>
- If your U.S. passport is lost or stolen while you are overseas, report it immediately to the local police and to the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate. A consul can issue a replacement passport. Links to contact information for U.S. embassies and consulates may be found at <http://usembassy.state.gov>

Heart Health Social Awareness Stamp Publicity Kit

The Postal Service™ is raising awareness about the importance of maintaining a healthy heart by issuing the 2012 Social Awareness Heart Health Commemorative Forever® stamp on February 9, 2012, in Washington, DC.

U.S. Surgeon General Dr. Regina Benjamin will join Postmaster General Patrick Donahoe in dedicating the stamp at the Washington Hospital Center. As part of the ceremony, the Surgeon General highlighted the Million Hearts public outreach initiative (see <http://millionhearts.hhs.gov>), which has a goal of reducing heart attacks and strokes by 1 million over the next 5 years.

Postmasters are encouraged to coordinate with elected officials to conduct “special dedication” ceremonies that can take place anytime after that. (The term “second day of issue dedication ceremony” is no longer used, as it erroneously implies that dedication ceremonies are limited to the day following the first day of issuance.)

Included in this kit are the following:

- Biggest Loser information and sweepstakes.

- Special stamp dedication opportunities
- Contact for ordering poster-sized image of the stamp.
- Stamp art information and back sheet text.
- Corporate Communications contacts.
- Government relations contacts.
- Sample Media Advisory (distribute 1 week prior to event).
- Sample News Release (distribute day of the event).
- Sample Stamp Dedication Speech.

‘The Biggest Loser’ Television Show

Be sure to tune into NBC’s “The Biggest Loser” television show when it highlights the stamp and its role in promoting a healthy heart during its Tuesday, February 14, 8 P.M. ET airing.

The Biggest Loser Sweepstakes

As part of the February 14 airing of The Biggest Loser, the stamp will be the centerpiece of the national “Watch It. Write It. Win It.” sweepstakes. For an 11-week period, viewers are invited to watch, write, and win by sending letters of encouragement to their favorite Biggest Loser contestant(s). Viewers may submit an unlimited number of letters addressed to one contestant at a time. Letters also can be addressed to previously eliminated contestants from this season. Letters will be drawn at random to win one of three prizes:

- Grand Prize: One week all-expense-paid trip for two to the Biggest Loser Resort.
- Second Prize: Four weeks of The Biggest Loser prepared meals (breakfast, lunch, and dinner) — delivered by the U.S. Postal Service®.
- Third Prize: Tickets for two with airfare to The Biggest Loser grand finale that airs in May 2013.

Sweepstakes information will be available on February 14 at Post Offices nationwide and at this link the day after the show’s airing: www.usps.com/biggestloser. Postal Service™ employees and their immediate families are not eligible to participate in the sweepstakes.

Special Stamp Dedication Opportunities

Corporate Communications is working with The Biggest Loser to identify select current and previous contestants on The Biggest Loser who have an interest in participating in hometown special Heart Health stamp dedication ceremonies. Postmasters are asked to refrain from contacting The Biggest Loser's past contestants. Postmasters will be contacted prior to planning events to ensure adequate resources are available before moving forward.

Postmasters are encouraged to contact Health and Human Services (HHS) regional directors for assistance in obtaining a speaker for their event. For more information, see <http://www.hhs.gov/about/regions/index.html>. Postmasters can also contact their local hospital's public relations office for assistance in obtaining a speaker with an expertise in cardiology.

Ordering Stamp Images for the Event and Media Use

Postmasters can order poster-sized enlargements of the stamp image by contacting Dave Bair of Dodgechrome at dbair@dodgechrome.com or by calling 240-247-1815. For easy online ordering, visit <http://www.dodgechrome.com/stores/uspsfo/catalog/index.php>

Postmasters should contact Mark Saunders, mark.r.saunders@usps.gov, 202-268-6524, to obtain high-resolution images of the stamp for media use only.

Heart Health Stamp Art

The stamp art, which features a bright yellow sun disc, a leafy green tree icon, and a blue swirl of a sky, evokes the feelings of wellness and vitality that come from physical exercise, a key element in controlling and preventing coronary heart disease, or coronary heart disease, the leading cause of death among women and men in the U.S. each year. The striding figure at the center of the stamp has a full red heart. At the figure's feet, a large red apple represents a well-balanced diet. Art director Derry Noyes worked with the artist, Nicholas Wilton, to create this fresh and positive approach to a difficult subject.

The back of the stamp sheet, referred to as the verso text, provides the following healthy heart tips:

Coronary heart disease, or CHD, is the leading cause of death among women and men in the U.S., but it doesn't have to be. Many cases of heart disease can be prevented. By making just a few simple lifestyle changes, you can lower your risk of developing CHD and help protect your heart for a lifetime.

- Eat a heart-healthy diet. Consuming lots of fruits, vegetables, and whole grains and avoiding foods that are high in sodium, saturated fats, and sugar promotes heart health. Such a diet can help control blood cholesterol levels and prevent high blood pressure, being overweight, and diabetes—all risk factors for heart disease.
- Exercise and control your weight. Regular physical activity is important for maintaining a healthy heart, but you don't have to be an athlete to reap the rewards. Getting a moderate amount of exercise most days of the week will lower your risk for heart disease and help maintain a healthy weight. Ask your doctor how much and what kind of exercise is right for you.
- Don't smoke. Smoking causes your arteries to narrow and your blood pressure to rise, which can lead to a heart attack. No matter how long a person has smoked, quitting will dramatically lower the risk of developing heart disease. If you don't smoke, protect your heart by avoiding secondhand smoke.
- Manage stress. Did you know that prolonged emotional stress can harm your heart? Regular exercise and supportive relationships with family and friends can help relieve stress and improve your physical and emotional well-being. Don't hesitate to seek professional help if anxiety or depression interferes with your ability to function.
- Sleep well. Sleep is essential to your heart. Adults who get less than 7–8 hours of sleep each night have a higher risk of developing heart disease.
- Get regular health screenings. High blood pressure, high cholesterol, and diabetes can creep up on you without symptoms. Simple tests are available to detect these conditions, and medicines can be prescribed to control them if diet and exercise prove insufficient.

We encourage you to take advantage of these materials when promoting the Heart Health Forever stamp. Following are Corporate Communications Area Managers and Government Relations Representatives contact listings for assistance in conducting your event.

Sample Stamp Dedication Speech

[USPS OFFICIAL'S NAME AND TITLE]
United States Postal Service
“Heart Health”
Special Dedication Ceremony

[CITY, STATE]

Thank you all for joining us at today's event. (Optional: Add a brief comment about how this location relates to heart health.)

I also want to thank all of our special guests for joining us in beautiful [CITY/TOWN/LOCATION/TYPE OF SETTING].

In particular, I'm glad that our good friend [NAME OF ELECTED OFFICIAL] is here, along with [ANY OTHER INDIVIDUALS THAT SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED].

The U.S. Postal Service has a long tradition of issuing special stamps to help raise public awareness about important health and social issues.

These special stamps have run the gamut ... from AIDS Awareness ... to Organ and Tissue Donation ... to Prostate Cancer Awareness ... to Hospice Care ... to Diabetes... to Alzheimer's.

Today, I am proud to join all of you as we continue this tradition by dedicating the Heart Health commemorative Forever stamp.

We are raising awareness about the importance of maintaining a healthy heart because coronary heart disease is the number 1 cause of death among men and women in the United States.

And yet it does not have to be. Many cases of heart disease can be prevented by making a few lifestyle changes.

With this stamp, we remember loved ones who have been lost to heart disease, and we issue a call to action for all of us, to focus on the importance of maintaining a healthy heart.

This special new stamp conveys the feeling of vitality that comes from physical exercise — a key element in controlling and preventing coronary heart disease. The design also includes a bright yellow sun disk, a leafy green tree icon, and the blue swirl of a sky.

At the center of the stamp, a striding figure has a full red heart. At the figure's feet, a large red apple represents a well-balanced diet — another essential factor in maintaining a healthy heart.

(Optional: Speaker can add this section based on time allotted for speech; or an emcee or other speaker can use this information.)

This stamp not only helps raise awareness about heart health, it offers practical, daily tips that anyone can follow to lower the risk of heart disease.

There are six tips printed right on the back of the stamp sheet to help remind us all that simple changes can make a big difference. These are common-sense ideas that most of us have heard before, yet they can help protect your heart for a lifetime.

First, eat healthy foods. Adding fruits, vegetables, and whole grains to your diet can help control blood cholesterol, prevent high blood pressure, and protect against other heart disease risks.

Second: Exercise and control your weight. Regular physical activity is important, but you don't have to be an athlete to see results. Even exercising moderately on most days of the week will help.

Third: Don't smoke. Smoking causes a person's arteries to narrow and blood pressure to rise. No matter how long a person has smoked, quitting will dramatically lower the risk of developing heart disease.

Next on the list is one we all may have trouble with in these busy days: manage stress. It's been proven that prolonged stress can harm your heart. In addition to regular exercise and some of the other tips we've mentioned, maintaining supportive relationships with family and friends also can be a big boost to our overall health. And, don't hesitate to seek professional help when needed.

Our fifth tip is to sleep well. It's essential to your heart to rest and recover every day. Here's another fact that's been proven in studies — adults who get less than 7 to 8 hours of sleep each night have a higher risk of developing heart disease.

And finally, get regular health screenings. Many risk factors of heart disease can creep up on you without symptoms. Simple tests are available today, and preventive measures can be taken with early diagnosis.

(End optional section 1.)

(Pause)

[Optional section 2 — can be added as needed considering time constraints, or used for another speaker.]

How many here are fans of the Biggest Loser TV show on NBC?

That's great, because we are working together to promote a healthy lifestyle and letter writing.

As part of The Biggest Loser February 14 show, the stamp [WILL BE/WAS] the centerpiece of the national "Watch It. Write It. Win It" sweepstakes. For an 11-week period, viewers are invited to "watch, write and win" by sending letters of encouragement to their favorite Biggest Loser contestants. Viewers can send as many letters as they wish, addressed to one contestant at a time, or to previously eliminated contestants from this season.

Letters will be drawn at random to win one of three great prizes, ranging from a 1-week, all-expense-paid trip to the Biggest Loser Resort, to a supply of Biggest Loser prepared meals — delivered by the U.S. Postal Service, to tickets and airfare to see the Biggest Loser Grand Finale show in May 2013.

You can find out all the details of the sweepstakes (Add if event is before Feb. 14: starting February 14 after the Biggest Loser show that day) at Post Offices nationwide and online at “usps-dot-com-slash-biggest loser”.

(Pause)

We are printing 50 million of these stamp...and we hope every single one will be collected or used to spread the word about the importance of heart health. Indeed, we want our customers to save lives by putting these stamps on their cards and letters! It's our gift to America.

Let's fight heart disease with all the strength we can muster.

Let's expose this silent killer to the healing light of understanding and awareness.

And let's educate the nation about the life-saving benefits of eating a heart-healthy diet, exercising and controlling weight, not smoking, managing stress, sleeping well, and getting regular health screenings.

(Pause)

It's clear from this stamp, and the other social awareness stamps I've mentioned, that the Postal Service provides more than low-cost, high quality, mail service to everyone, everywhere, every day.

We deliver more than the mail.

Our real power lies in our ability to reach so many people — and to reach out to them.

That's why we're extremely proud of the Heart Health commemorative Forever stamp — because we know it can make a positive difference in the lives of so many people — men and women, young and old.

Stamps, as well as the subjects and issues they highlight, are one of the many ways we help bind our nation together and enrich the communities that we serve.

And remember — if you purchase the Heart Health commemorative Forever stamp today, or at some time in the future, it will be good as First-Class Mail postage forever, no matter what the rate is when you put it on the envelope.

So now, on behalf of the U.S. Postal Service, it gives me great pleasure to transform an ordinary fixture of American life — a U.S. postage stamp — into a symbol of health, wellness, and vitality.

Ladies and gentlemen, I give you our Heart Health commemorative Forever stamp.

Frequently Asked Questions

The Postal Store

Q. What is new about The Postal Store?

A. The Postal Store has been redesigned to reflect the new look and feel of the USPS.com website, while adding full eCommerce functionality and a better online experience for customers. The site has been streamlined to make checkout faster and easier, and our most popular items more accessible to customers.

Q. Are there other changes planned for The Postal Store?

A. Yes. The Postal Store is now on a leading eCommerce technology platform that will allow us to deliver a personalized shopping experience to online customers. The platform currently has the ability to offer cross-sells and up-sells, but in the future, additional features will be utilized to optimize marketing campaigns, increase sales, and grow revenue.

Personalized Stamped Envelopes

Q. What is new about Personalized Stamped Envelopes?

A. The application has been redesigned to be more user-friendly. Enhancements include the ability to add multiple orders to the same shopping cart and allow customers to use their address book to select the return address for their order. The application now also displays an image of the envelope throughout the order process so customers can see what their envelope will look like.

Premium Forwarding Service (PFS) New Online Option

Q. What is Premium Forwarding Service?

A. Premium Forwarding Service gives residential customers the option of having all of their mail reshipped on a predictable basis to a temporary address while they are away from home. For a one-time enrollment fee and a nominal weekly installment fee, virtually all of the customer's mail will be packaged weekly and sent by Priority Mail® service to the temporary address. Some items, such as Registered Mail® and Express Mail® are reshipped immediately upon receipt at the Post Office. PFS can be used for a minimum of 2 weeks or up to a maximum of 1 year. It provides customers an additional option to the current piece-by-piece temporary forwarding and Hold Mail services.

Some features of PFS include:

- Most mail is forwarded once a week via Priority Mail service; some mail is reshipped separately, but immediately upon arrival at the primary address.
- Mail will be forwarded to customers on a weekly basis if they are away for a minimum of 2 weeks or up to 1 year.
- The customer's permanent address does not change and their temporary address is not provided to mailers. For detailed information on Premium Forwarding Service, including fees, go to www.usps.com/premiumforwarding.

Q. What are some of the restrictions for Premium Forwarding Service?

A. The restrictions for PFS are as follows:

- A Hold Mail request or forwarding order, temporary or permanent, may not be active simultaneously with enrollment in PFS.
- PFS cannot be combined with any ancillary or extra services beyond those purchased by the original sender.
- PFS is available only to and from customers with domestic addresses.
- PFS is not available to or from an APO/FPO, as mail sent to an APO/FPO is subject to certain conditions and restrictions.
- There can be different PFS applications on file for multiple individuals from one primary address. However, there can only be one PFS application on file when the request is for an entire household from a primary address to a single temporary address during an enrollment period.

In addition, PFS is not available for:

- Customers with a PO Box address who are ineligible for enrolling in PFS online.
- Individuals whose primary address is a business delivery address.
- Individuals whose primary address is a central point to which the United States Postal Service provides delivery in bulk to a third party, such as a commercial mail receiving agency (CMRA), RV park, trailer park, or hotel.

Q. How do customers enroll in PFS online?

A. Customers may go to www.usps.com/premiumforwarding to learn about the service, read the terms and conditions, and click Get Started to enter the application and enroll. Note: Registered USPS.com customers must be signed in to enroll. The process is easy, and a confirmation e-mail is sent once enrollment is complete. Customers can also modify or cancel their PFS request online.

Q. Once customers enroll in PFS online, how are they billed for their weekly shipments?

- A. Initially, customers are only billed for the enrollment fee when they enroll in the service online. The recurring weekly charges are implemented once the start date of their PFS service has begun and continue weekly until the end date of the enrollment period.

Multilingual

Q. What applications are now available to be viewed in Spanish and Simplified Chinese?

- A. Hold Mail, Redelivery, PO Locator, and Carrier Pickup are now available to be viewed in Spanish and Simplified Chinese. These are some of our most widely used applications. The new applications are in addition to Look Up a ZIP Code and Track and Confirm, which were already available in these languages.

Q. How do I select a language?

- A. To select a language, hover over the drop-down language selection in the grey header in the top far left of the page. Each time you visit USPS.com, the drop down selection in the header will default to English. Select your preferred language to see the page displayed in that language. You can change your language for that page and USPS® browsing session by performing the same action

Q. Will other applications be translated in the future?

- A. Yes. There are plans to translate additional applications to improve the customer's online experience.

DMM Revision: Changes in Sack and Container Label Specifications to Accommodate Standard Mail Marketing Parcels

Effective March 5, 2012, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM), exhibit 708.6.2.4 to change the content line of sack and container labels of carrier route Standard Mail® Marketing parcels, due to the recent change that limits Standard Mail parcel carrier route prices to Standard Mail Marketing parcels.

We also make changes to DMM 445 and to subheadings in exhibit 708.6.2.4 to designate that Presorted Marketing parcels (other than carrier route parcels) less than 6 ounces in weight will share the same content identifier number (CIN) code and content line designation as Standard Mail Nonprofit irregular parcels, and Presorted Marketing parcels weighing 6 ounces or more will share the same CIN code and content line designation as Standard Mail Nonprofit machinable parcels.

DMM Revision: Shipper Paid Forwarding

Effective March 5, 2012, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM[®]) 507.1, 507.2, and 507.4 to clarify the use of ancillary service endorsements for Shipper Paid Forwarding, the Parcel Select Additional Service fee, and the use of PS Form 3546, Forwarding Order Change Notice.

On November 18, 2010, the Postal Service published a DMM revision in Postal Bulletin 22298 to provide the new endorsement option “Change Service Requested” for mailers using Shipper Paid Forwarding (SPF) for Standard Mail[®], Package Services, or Parcel Select[®] parcels. This revision clarifies the use of Shipper Paid Forwarding service in conjunction with one of the two applicable ancillary service endorsements.

This revision also clarifies that the Parcel Select additional service fee applies to customers using Shipper Paid Forwarding Service, and that PS Form 3546 has been revised to discontinue the option for customers who do not wish to pay for forwarding outside of the local area to request that parcels not be forwarded. Additional changes are made to simplify the DMM, without making any substantive changes.

It is the Postal Service’s recommendation that customers avoid requesting both a forwarding and a return service, such as Shipper Paid Forwarding and Bulk Parcel Return Service (BPRS) on the same mailpiece, to avoid conflicting information during handling.

1.5.2 Periodicals

Undeliverable-as-addressed (UAA) Periodicals publications (including publications pending Periodicals authorization) are treated as described in Exhibit 1.5.2, with these additional conditions:

* * * * *

[Delete current item 1.5.2c in its entirety and redesignate current items d through g as new items c through f.]

* * * * *

[Revise redesignated item 1.5.2d as follows:]

- d. Address correction service is provided for the first issue after 60 days for all publications, unless copies are to be returned at the publisher’s request. ACS participants may receive the change notice before day 60, if so requested. Copies received after the address correction notice is mailed are disposed of by the USPS. When copies of the publication cannot be forwarded, the address correction notice is prepared for the first undeliverable issue of the publication received.

[Revise redesignated item 1.5.2e as follows:]

- e. The publisher may request the return of copies of undelivered Periodicals by printing the endorsement "Address Service Requested" on the envelopes or wrappers, or on one of the outside covers of unwrapped copies, immediately preceded by the sender's name, address, and ZIP Code. This endorsement obligates the publisher to pay return postage. Each returned piece is charged the single-piece First-Class Mail price for the weight and shape of the piece, and the letter-size nonmachinable surcharge, if applicable, or the Priority Mail price for the weight and destination of the piece. When the address correction is provided incidental to the return of the piece, there is no charge for the correction.

[Revise redesignated item 1.5.2f as follows:]

- f. A publisher may request a refund of the fees paid for duplicate address correction notices on Forms 3579 provided by the USPS if the customer submitted a change-of-address order and the first and duplicate notices are provided on magnetic tape by ACS or on printed copy by a Computerized Forwarding System (CFS) unit. The refund request must be supported by documentation showing the number of duplicate notices received. The USPS does not process refunds for duplicate notices if the original and duplicate notices are not provided both by ACS or both by CFS.

1.5.3 Standard Mail and Parcel Select Lightweight

[Revise the introductory text of 1.5.3 as follows:]

Undeliverable-as-addressed (UAA) Standard Mail and Parcel Select Lightweight pieces are treated as described in Exhibit 1.5.3, with these additional conditions:

* * * * *

[Relocate the entire current Exhibit 1.5.3a table to after the last item 1.5.3k.]

[Revise item 1.5.3b as follows:]

- b. The exceptional address format under 602.3.0 may not be used on mail with any ancillary service endorsement or mail with any extra service (except as allowed for Marketing parcels with Delivery Confirmation service).

* * * * *

[Delete current item 1.5.3e in its entirety, redesignate 1.5.3f through i as new 1.5.3e through h, and revise redesignated 1.5.3e as follows:]

- e. If a Standard Mail or Parcel Select Lightweight piece including any attachment to that piece is not opened by the addressee and the piece is endorsed "Address Service Requested," "Forwarding Service Requested," or "Return Service Requested," the addressee may refuse delivery of the piece and have it returned to the sender without affixing postage. If a Standard Mail or Parcel Select Lightweight piece, or any attachment to that piece, is opened by the addressee, the addressee must affix the required postage to return the piece to the sender, except for Bulk Parcel Return Service (BPRS) pieces under 505.6.3.1.

[Revise redesignated 1.5.3f as follows:]

- f. Standard Mail and Parcel Select Lightweight pieces with bulk insurance or return receipt for merchandise must be endorsed "Address Service Requested," "Forwarding Service Requested," or "Return Service Requested." Standard Mail and Parcel Select Lightweight pieces, except for Marketing parcels, with Delivery Confirmation must be endorsed "Address Service Requested," "Forwarding Service Requested," "Return Service Requested," or "Change Service Requested."

[Revise redesignated item 1.5.3g as follows:]

- g. When a large volume of identical-weight pieces originates from a single mailer and is endorsed "Return Service Requested," the USPS may weigh a sample of at least 25 pieces and divide that weight by the number of pieces to determine the weight of a single piece. After the per-piece weight is determined, all the pieces are weighed in bulk and divided by the per-piece weight to determine the total number of pieces. Calculate the return postage using these numbers.

[Delete redesignated 1.5.3h in its entirety, redesignate 1.5.3j through l as new 1.5.3h through j, and revise redesignated items 1.5.3h through i as follows:]

- h. A returned piece endorsed "Return Service Requested" is charged the applicable single-piece First-Class Mail price for the weight and shape of the piece, and the nonmachinable surcharge if applicable, or the Priority Mail price for the weight and destination of the piece.
- i. Mail sent as BPRS under 505.6.0 is returned at the BPRS per piece fee if the endorsement includes "— BPRS" as shown in Exhibit 1.5.3.

[Renumber the reference number of the relocated table (from 1.5.3a) as follows:]

DMM Revision: Centralization of Bundling Standards

Effective March 5, 2012, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) throughout various sections to consolidate and centralize most of the bundling standards for letters, flats, and parcels in a new section 601.2.0. We will also relocate and consolidate current packaging and cushioning standards into renumbered section 601.3.0. This revision represents a repositioning of current standards.

Bundle integrity is crucial to protecting the presort preparation. If bundles break open in transit or processing, pieces may be damaged and will require individual piece sortation, which would reduce processing efficiency and might delay visibility and receipt of the mail. As a reminder, flats bundles that are not shrinkwrapped must be prepared with two straps, one encircling the length of the bundle, and one encircling the girth of the bundle.

2.3 Bundle Sizes

Each logical bundle (the total group of pieces for a bundle destination) of Bound Printed Matter (BPM) must meet the applicable bundle size standards in 5.0, 6.0, 7.0, or 705.8.0. Each physical bundle should be at least the minimum bundle size. The size of each physical bundle may, however, contain fewer pieces than the bundle minimum if the thickness of the piece is too large to create a stable bundle (see 601.2.12). Unless otherwise noted, the maximum weight for bundles in sacks is 20 pounds. Except for mixed ADC bundles and for carrier route bundles in sacks, each physical bundle of BPM must contain at least two pieces. For carrier route BPM prepared in sacks, there may be one loose piece to a carrier route, provided that all other bundles to that carrier route destination contain at least two addressed pieces, and that the total group of pieces to that carrier route meets the carrier route price eligibility minimum in 363. Bundles prepared on pallets must meet the additional bundling requirements under 705.8.0.

Invalid Express Mail Corporate Account Numbers

This listing should be provided to Contract Postal Units and used by acceptance clerks in non-POS locations without intranet access to validate an Express Mail Corporate Account (EMCA) number online. For all other locations, online EMCA validation is preferred. The online validation process is outlined in the EMCA Validation SOP on the Retail webpage. This list supersedes all previous notices, which must be recycled. Acceptance clerks must not accept Express Mail® shipments bearing an invalid EMCA number in the “Payment by Account” or “Agreement Number” section of the Express Mail label or form.

Note: The first 6 digits of a 9-digit Custom Designed Service and Next Day Pickup Agreement make up the Corporate Account Number.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at www.usps.com/shop/accepting-money-orders.htm.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Acceptance clerks may contact the Military Postal Service Agency with any questions regarding APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes, toll free, at 800-810-6098, Monday–Friday, 0730–1600 ET.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

2.3 Preparing Bundles of Letters

Cards and letter-size pieces are subject to these bundling standards:

- a. The maximum thickness for bundles of carrier route mail is 4 inches. The maximum thickness for other bundles is 6 inches.
- b. Mailings consisting entirely of card-size pieces (i.e., pieces not larger than 6 by 4-1/4 by 0.016 inches) must always be prepared in bundles.
- c. Bundles must be prepared for: mail in all less-than-full trays, mail in 3-digit carrier routes trays, nonmachinable letters, and nonbarcoded Periodicals letters.
- d. For mailings consisting entirely of card-size pieces and mail in less-than-full trays, mailers must secure bundles with rubber bands, elastic strapping, flat plastic strapping, or string. Elastic strapping must be approved by USPS Engineering.
- e. Bundles of automation or machinable letters are not required to have an optional endorsement line or a bundle label when placed into a correctly labeled tray.
- f. Bundles up to 1 inch thick must be secured with appropriate banding placed once around the girth (narrow dimension). Bundles over 1 inch thick must be secured with at least two bands, one around the length and one around the girth.

2.4 Exception to Bundle Preparation—Full Trays

In mailings not entirely of card-size pieces, mailers need not prepare bundles when placing mail in a full tray (when applicable for the class and shape of mail) when none of the mail in that tray would have been more finely sorted if bundled. For example, mail in a full ADC tray need not be bundled if it would have all been prepared in ADC bundles to the same destination.

2.5 Securing Bundles of Flats

Bundles must be able to withstand normal transit and handling without breakage or injury to USPS employees, and are subject to the following requirements:

- a. Bundles must be secured with banding, shrinkwrap, or shrinkwrap plus one or more bands. Banding includes plastic bands, rubber bands, twine/string, and similar material. Use of wire or metal banding is not permitted.
- b. When one band is used, it must be placed tightly around the girth (narrow dimension).
- c. Bundles over 1 inch high must be secured with at least two bands or with shrinkwrap. When double banding is used to secure bundles, encircle the length and girth of the bundle at least once. Additional bands may be used if none lies within 1 inch of any bundle edge.

- d. Banding tension must be sufficient to tighten and depress the edges of the bundle. Loose banding is not allowed.
- e. When twine/string is used to band bundles, the knot(s) must be secure so the banding does not come loose during transit and processing.
- f. Bundles on pallets must be secure and stable, and are subject to 2.9 and the specific weight limits in 705.8.0.

2.6 Address Visibility for Flats and Parcels

Mailers preparing presort bundles of flats or parcels must ensure that the delivery address information, barcoded pressure-sensitive bundle labels, optional endorsement lines, carrier route information lines, or carrier route facing slips on the top mailpiece in each bundle are visible and remain readable by the naked eye. Mailers can avoid obstructing visibility by using clear, smooth strapping tightly secured around the bundle. Clear strapping with a transparency rated 52% when tested using ASTM D1746 - 09, Standard Test Method for Transparency of Plastic Sheeting, methods meet readability needs. This standard does not apply to the following:

- a. Customized MarketMail.
- b. Bundles placed in or on 5-digit or 5-digit scheme (L001) sacks or pallets.
- c. Bundles placed in carrier route and 5-digit carrier routes sacks.
- d. Bundles of mailpieces at carrier route prices entered at a destination delivery unit (DDU).
- e. Bundles of Standard Mail flats prepared in letter trays.

2.7 Counterstacking Flats or Parcels in Bundles

Bundles of pieces of saddle-stitched pieces and pieces with one edge or corner thicker than the others may be prepared by counter-stacking under these conditions:

- a. Counter-stacking should be used only to create bundles of more uniform thickness that are more likely to maintain their integrity during transportation and processing.
- b. All pieces must have addresses facing up and be divided into no more than four approximately equal groups, with each group rotated 180 degrees from the preceding and succeeding group(s); prepare as few groups as possible to create a bundle of uniform thickness.

- c. When pieces are nonuniform in thickness because they are thicker in the center instead of along an edge or corner, counter-stacking is not likely to result in a bundle of uniform thickness. Instead of counter-stacking such pieces, limit the height of the bundle to 3 to 6 inches to ensure the bundle will stay together during normal transit and handling.

2.8 Preparing Bundles in Sacks

In addition to the standards in 2.5 through 2.7, mailers must prepare bundles placed in sacks as follows:

- a. The maximum weight for all bundles is 20 pounds.
- b. Measure bundles at the lowest point to determine the bundle height.
- c. Except for multi-carrier routes bundles, a bundle that exceeds the maximum height by less than the thickness of a single piece meets the standard.
- d. Bundles of pieces with covers of “coated stock” (glossy covers) that are not individually enclosed in an envelope or mailing wrapper are subject to these conditions:
 1. Bundles secured with rubber bands, twine, string, or only shrinkwrap must not exceed 3 inches in height.
 2. Bundles secured with shrinkwrap plus plastic straps, or with at least two plastic straps, must not exceed 6 inches in height.
- e. Bundles of pieces with covers of “uncoated stock” are subject to these conditions:
 1. Bundles must not exceed 8 inches in height (recommended maximum height is 6 inches).
 2. “Uncoated stock” refers to nonglossy paper covers and also to pieces with coated covers that are individually enclosed in an envelope, polybag, or mailing wrapper of uncoated stock.

2.9 Preparing Bundles on Pallets

In addition to general bundling standards in 2.1, bundles on pallets must meet the following standards:

- a. Bundles must be secured with appropriate banding, shrinkwrap, or shrinkwrap supplemented by one or more bands. Banding includes plastic bands (recommended), rubber bands, and twine or similar material.
- b. If only banding is used, banding material must be applied at least once around the length and once around the girth; wire and metal strapping are prohibited. Use tension sufficient to tighten and depress the edges of the bundle so that pieces do not slip out of the banding during transit and processing.

2.10 Additional Standards for Unsacked Bundles Entered at DDU Facilities

Mailers may enter unsacked, nonpalletized bundles of Standard Mail or Bound Printed Matter (BPM) flats or irregular parcels (BPM only) at destination delivery units (DDUs) if all the following conditions are met:

- a. The maximum weight for a bundle is 40 pounds; the maximum number of bundles per carrier route is one bundle for each 10 pounds (or increment) of mail for that route, as follows:
 1. Mailers must make the fewest number of bundles possible, up to the 40-pound maximum, while maintaining bundle integrity. To determine the maximum number of bundles for a route, divide the total weight of mail for that route by 10 and round up to the next whole number.
 2. Mailers may balance the weight of the bundles across the maximum number of bundles. For example, if there are 36 pounds of mail for a carrier route, the maximum number of bundles for that route is four, which may be in four 9-pound bundles.
- b. Mailers must enter bundles at DDUs according to the appropriate deposit and entry standards (for example, 346 for Standard Mail flats).

2.11 Pieces with Simplified Address

For mail prepared with a simplified address, pieces must be prepared in bundles of 50 when possible. If bundles of other quantities are prepared, the actual number of pieces must be shown on the facing slip. Bundles must be secure and stable subject to weight limits in 705.8.0 if placed on pallets, and weight and height limits in 2.8 if placed in sacks.

2.12 Bundles with Fewer Than the Minimum Number of Pieces Required

A bundle may be prepared with fewer than the minimum number of pieces required without loss of price eligibility under either of these conditions:

- a. A greater number of pieces would exceed the maximum physical size for a bundle and the total number of pieces for that presort destination meets the minimum volume standard.
- b. The pieces constitute the “last bundle” for a presort destination and previously prepared bundles met the minimum volume standard.

2.13 Labeling Bundles

Unless excepted by standard, the presort level of each bundle must be identified either with an optional endorsement line under 708.7.0 or with a barcoded pressure-sensitive bundle label. On letter-size mail, place the bundle label in the lower left corner of the address side of the top piece in the bundle. On flat-size mail, place the label anywhere on the address side of the top piece in the bundle. Bundle labels must not be obscured by banding or shrink-wrap. The following colors and characters apply to bundle labels as applicable (not all presort levels apply to all classes of mail):

- a. Firm (Periodicals use only), blue Label F.
- b. 5-digit scheme presort level, red Label 5 SCH.
- c. 5-digit presort level, red Label 5.
- d. 3-digit scheme presort level, green Label 3 SCH.
- e. 3-digit presort level, green Label 3.
- f. ADC presort level, pink Label A.
- g. Origin mixed ADC presort level, tan Label X or OEL.
- h. Mixed ADC presort level, tan Label X.

2.14 Identifying Carrier Route Information

Bundles for individual carrier routes, rural routes, highway contract routes, Post Office box sections, or general delivery units must be prepared with facing slips under 2.15, optional endorsement lines under 708.7.0, or carrier route information lines under 708.6.0. These standards apply to Carrier Route Periodicals, Enhanced Carrier Route Standard Mail, Parcel Select Lightweight parcels, and Carrier Route Bound Printed Matter mailings.

2.15 Facing Slips—Carrier Route Bundles

All facing slips used on carrier route bundles must show this information:

- a. Line 1: Destination city, two-letter state abbreviation, and 5-digit ZIP Code.
- b. Line 2: Content (as appropriate to the class), followed by carrier route type and route number (e.g., “STD FLTS CR R 012”).
- c. Line 3: City and two-letter state abbreviation of the origin Post Office.

3.0 Packaging

3.1 General

[Revise the introductory text of renumbered 3.1 as follows:]

Mailers must package mailpieces to withstand normal transit and handling without breakage or deterioration of content, package breakage, injury to USPS employees, or damage to other mail. See 3.2 through 3.8 for specific types of items. Mailers must follow these additional standards for packaging:

[Revise item 3.1a as follows:]

- a. Cushion (see 3.9) fragile items to withstand handling in processing, transportation, and delivery.

[Delete the reference number and title of current 4.0, Cushioning, Closure, and Reinforcement in their entirety.]

[Renumber current 4.1 as new 3.9.]

[Revise the title and text of renumbered 3.9 as follows:]

3.9 General Cushioning Standards

Loose-fill cushioning must overfill the container before closure to hold the item and prevent its movement to an outside surface of the container. When multiple items are inside a single mailing container, mailers must cushion items to protect them from each other as well as from external forces. Do not package high-density heavy items with fragile items unless extreme care is taken to separate them from each other. Mailers must adequately stabilize heavy items within the package.

[Delete current 4.2, Multiple Items Within Container, in its entirety.]

[Renumber current 4.3 as new 3.10 and revise the title and text as follows:]

3.10 Tape and Tape Size

Cellophane and masking tape may not be used for closure or reinforcement of packages but may be used to augment closures on envelopes or to cover staples. Paper tape must be at least 60-pound basis weight kraft. The adhesives on gummed tapes must be adequately activated before application and firmly applied with the tape extending at least 3 inches over the adjoining side of the box. Except for pressure-sensitive filament tape, tapes used for closure and reinforcement should be at least 2 inches (or 48 mm metric) wide. Nonreinforced plastic tapes must be at least as strong in the cross direction as in the machine (long) direction.

[Delete current 4.4, Paper Tape, and 4.5, Tape Size, in their entirety.]

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First Day of Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first day of issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first day of issue city. The first day of issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first day of issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.
