National Consumer Protection Week, March 3–9, 2013

National Consumer Protection Week (NCPW) is a federal program designed to highlight current issues and help customers improve their ability to combat fraud.

During NCPW, federal, state, and local consumer protection agencies — together with consumer organizations and industry associations — launch consumer protection and education efforts around the country.

This year, the Postal Service™ and the Postal Inspection Service are partnering with AARP, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping people 50 and older, to educate consumers about foreign lottery schemes that target older Americans.

The goals for NCPW are:

- Increase the awareness of older Americans and their caregivers about the dangers of foreign lottery schemes.
- Give consumers valuable information about protecting their assets from fraudsters.
- Provide a central location where consumers can report suspected fraud.

Anyone can be a victim of foreign lottery fraud, but scammers often seek out those whom they perceive as vulnerable. Increasingly, their victims include older Americans and cognitively challenged individuals. These crimes can seriously affect the lives of victims and their families.

During NCPW, Postal Inspectors will discuss how Americans can avoid becoming the latest victims of this crime. Foreign lottery scammers talk a good game. They ask victims to pay to play — by wire, check, money order, or cash.

They try to get consumers to send money that's just for "taxes and fees."

The Postal Inspection Service is warning older Americans and caregivers to beware — in a foreign lottery, it's more than just the odds against you. If you are contacted to play a foreign lottery by mail, email, or telephone, do the following:

- Hang up the phone, don't respond to the email, or shred the solicitation.
- Don't give out personal or financial information to anyone over the Internet or phone.
- Never wire or send money to anyone, anywhere who says you have won a foreign lottery.
- Don't let anyone pressure you into making an immediate decision.
- Never purchase anything until you get all the information in writing.

Foreign lotteries aren't just a risky proposition; under most circumstances, they're also illegal. A federal statute prohibits mailing lottery tickets, advertisements, or payments to purchase tickets in a foreign lottery.

An educated public is the first line of defense. Visit <http://www.deliveringtrust.com> for helpful information on how to protect yourself, and your loved ones, from fraud.

- Field support contacts.

For more information, please visit <http://blue.usps.gov/blue/caweb/events/consumer-protection/>.

— Consumer Advocate and Customer Relations, 2-21-13

Introduction and Overview

This field resource kit provides guidance and information to Postmasters and facility managers who opt to conduct local activities to support National Consumer Protection Week (NCPW), March 3–9, 2013.

Established in 1998, NCPW is a federal program, led by the Federal Trade Commission, that highlights current issues and ideas. Customers can become smarter consumers of products, materials, and services, while improving their ability to combat fraud. NCPW is fully supported by the U.S. Postal Service®.

During NCPW, other federal, state, and local consumer protection agencies — together with consumer organizations and industry associations — are launching consumer protection and education efforts around the country.

Headquarter Partners:

- United States Postal Inspection Service.
- Consumer Advocate and Customer Relations.
- Corporate Communications.
- Channel Access.

NCPW Theme: “Dollars and Sense: Rated ‘A’ for All Ages”

The national theme promotes consumer education for every stage of life — from grade school to retirement. The Postal Service is committed to helping consumers of all ages learn how they can protect their privacy and steer clear of frauds and scams.

U.S. Postal Inspection Service Theme: In a Foreign Lottery, More Than Just the Odds are Against You

Lottery and sweepstakes fraud targeting older U.S. consumers is on the rise and characterized by hostile, escalating intimidation. These telemarketers gain the trust of the victims by spending hours on the telephone with them. Victims generally don't believe they have fallen for a fraud scheme and may describe the fraudsters as their “friends.” In reality, fraudsters are relentless and demanding. They threaten, coerce, and use psychological intimidation tactics — for example, using Google maps to pinpoint and describe a victim's residence to make the victim believe they are in proximity to the residence.

Inspection Service Retail Lobby Kit

For use during NCPW, Post Offices will receive a retail lobby display with information that customers can take as well as a poster. This kit should be assembled and placed in lobbies on March 1, 2013, and removed NLT March 30, 2013.

Suggested Activities to Promote NCPW Locally

- Provide your postal employees with information about NCPW activities planned for your area.
- Identify an opportunity where you can invite a local expert to speak at your event. A local Postal Inspector is also recommended, but a representative from a consumer advocacy group or an appropriate regulatory body would also be suitable.
- Collaborate with a financial institution to host an event about identity theft and fraudulent schemes. Invite a bank or credit union official to talk about what could happen to identity theft victims from the financial institution's perspective.
- Work with a local Postal Inspector to inform senior citizens about fraudulent schemes. Hold seminars at local retirement communities. Postal Inspectors can discuss recent identity theft cases, fraudulent schemes, and steps to prevent older Americans from becoming victims.
- Work with local schools, colleges, and universities to have an NCPW event to raise awareness among students, parents, and faculty.
- Work with local Girl and Boy Scout Troops or other community-based youth clubs to educate young people about protecting themselves from fraud and scams.
- Let customers know that for seven consecutive years in a national survey, the U.S. Postal Service has been named the most trusted government agency for protecting consumers' privacy. Refer customers to www.usps.com for additional information.

- Work with Corporate Communications staff to coordinate media outreach and press coverage of the week, and planned events through media advisories, news releases, letters to the editors at local newspapers, and calls to area reporters.
- Ensure photos are captured that will highlight events and share successes.

Suggested Message Points for NCPW Events

- It's never too early or too late to become a more informed and empowered consumer. This year, NCPW is working on educating consumers so they can protect themselves from scammers.
- The United States Postal Service is part of the fabric of the nation by binding communities together. Postal employees make a difference in every community across the country.
- The Postal Service is committed to maintaining the public's trust, and has been named the most trusted government agency for the past seven consecutive years by the Ponemon Institute.
- One of the country's oldest federal law enforcement agencies, the U.S. Postal Inspection Service has protected the Postal Service, secured the nation's mail system, and ensured public trust in the mail for over 200 years.
- The Postal Service is proud to increase awareness about consumer fraud and educate consumers of all ages on how they can better protect themselves from scams.
- It is never too early or too late to learn common defenses against fraudulent schemes, such as:
 - If it sounds too good to be true, it is.
 - Pressure to act right away.
 - Guaranteed success.

- Promises unusually high returns.
- Requires upfront investment — even for a free prize.
- Doesn't act like a real business.
- Something doesn't feel right.
- And even if all looks right, it never hurts to do your homework and check out the offer with a local Better Business Bureau, state's attorney's office, or local consumer groups.

Even if the person or company has no track record of complaints, a scammer may be familiar with watchdog consumer protection agencies. Don't hesitate to discuss identity theft and fraudulent schemes with friends and family. And don't forget to watch out for those you love — sometimes just a simple "What's new?" can alert you to the fact that a loved one has become a victim of identity theft.

Event Planning Checklist

When planning NCPW events, keep the following suggestions in mind:

- Contact your local postal team — Postal Inspectors, Corporate Communications managers, and Consumer and Industry Contact managers — to see how they can help support fraud prevention events in your community.
- Set a date and secure participants.
- Acquire posters, videos, fact sheets, brochures, and other supplies for the event.
- Secure staging, sound equipment, and a podium.
- Plan signage, including signs and banners.
- Launch a local publicity campaign.
- Draft a sequence-of-events agenda and speaker remarks.
- Plan retail opportunities (i.e. booth, bag stuffers, etc.).
- Prepare ceremony programs and invitations.
- Prepare an Event Flow/Agenda that outlines times and items.

Sample Speech

Good (morning/afternoon/evening). My name is _____ and I'm [Title] for the United States Postal Service. It's a pleasure to be with you today at [Event].

For the past 15 years, the country has dedicated one full week as National Consumer Protection Week. It is a time when government agencies, consumer protection groups, and industry associations join forces to shine a spotlight on issues and ideas that help people become better consumers of products, materials, and services as well as improve their knowledge of how to combat fraud.

The U.S. Postal Service and the Postal Inspection Service have been members of the Steering Committee for National Consumer Protection Week since 1998, and we are pleased and proud to once again be a part of this year's effort to help spread the word and increase awareness about consumer protection issues.

The theme of this year's National Consumer Protection Week is "Dollars and Sense: Rated 'A' for All Ages" — and what better way to highlight the importance of using good consumer sense at every stage of life?

With so much personal information that is readily available today, we have learned that age doesn't matter when it comes to crimes like identity theft. Indeed, we know that children are ideal victims for identity thieves, because oftentimes years pass before the crime is discovered.

We also know that school-age children are increasingly vulnerable to fraud and scams due to their use of technology. So, it's never too early to learn how to protect yourself and your personal information.

For the U.S. Postal Service, customer service and consumer protection are year-round priorities and we are very proud of the fact that, for more than 200 years, Americans have placed their trust in the mail.

In fact, The Postal Service ranks as the fourth most trusted company — moving up two places in ranking from 2011 — and its highest company ranking since the survey's inception by the premier privacy trust study in America. The same survey also named The Postal Service the "Most Trusted Government Agency" for the 7th year in a row.

We take our universal service obligation — to connect every household and business in the country through the mail — very seriously, and we also know that an educated consumer is the best defense against criminals. That is why we're doing all that we can to educate, advise, and encourage consumers of all ages to learn how to protect their privacy, avoid identity theft, and steer clear of frauds and scams.

For 200 years, Postal Inspectors have been fighting fraud, protecting the mail, and delivering justice for the American people to promote the honesty and integrity of the American marketplace.

Work-at-Home scams are used by fraudsters during these difficult financial times. That is why Postal Inspectors are warning the public about a new twist on an old scam.

You may receive email or a letter accompanied by a fat check inviting you to earn extra money as a "mystery shopper." The email, letter, and check will appear to come from a legitimate U.S. company. The listed phone numbers, however, typically originate in Canada or another country.

The email or letter instructs you to deposit the check into your checking account, withdraw an equal amount from your account, and wire it to the address on the letter. You are encouraged to keep a small amount to cover the wiring fees and merchandise.

The problem is the check will prove to be worthless and you'll be left holding the bag for the amount you wired. Postal Inspectors advise that the safest way to handle this offer is to not respond. Report incidents to <http://postalinspectors.uspis.gov> or call 877-876-2455.

Top Five Tips to Avoid Scams:

- If it sounds too good to be true — it is.
- Foreign lotteries are illegal in the U.S.
- Check your monthly statements.
- Never deposit a check if you don't know who sent it to you.
- Your bank will never email or call asking for your account number.

If you follow these tips and exercise good judgment, it is likely you can avoid becoming a victim. To learn more, visit our fraud education and prevention website at www.deliveringtrust.com.

At the Postal Service, we want you to learn about how to protect yourselves from fraudulent schemes and identity theft because these crimes could cost you thousands of dollars.

Additionally, consumers of all ages should educate themselves about how to recognize other fraudulent schemes, such as cross border fraud, check fraud, foreign lottery fraud, investment fraud, internet fraud, and identity theft.

There are many forms of fraud — and we can be sure that con artists and identity thieves will continue to devise new ways to commit their crimes and defraud the public. But, there is no reason any of us should feel defenseless or become a victim.

National Consumer Protection Week is the perfect opportunity to make an investment in yourself and your family by learning how to protect everything you've worked so hard to build. Whatever you do, don't take this lightly. Don't make the mistake of thinking that this can't happen to you — or that you're too smart for this kind of thing. It has happened to the best of us. It can and does happen to people just like you and me.

So, let's do all we can to put scammers out of business. The only true way to stop these crimes is through increased public awareness, education, vigilance, and aggressive law enforcement.

In closing, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all of you — our customers — for your business and for trusting us with your mail. It's truly a pleasure to serve you.

DMM Revision: Usage of Franked Envelopes and Labels

Effective March 4, 2013, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 703.6.2.1 to clarify the use of franked envelopes and labels.

This revision clarifies that a franked mailing label must be used on items larger than letter-size instead of taping a franked envelope to those items.

6.2.1 Required Addressing

[Revise the text of 6.2.1 as follows:]

Except as permitted in 6.2.2, all mail sent under the franking privilege must be addressed to the recipient by name and complete delivery address. Franked mail is limited to envelopes or official franking labels preprinted with “franking” elements in the upper right hand corner, which are easily read and in black print of appropriate size commensurate with the size of the envelopes. Although official franking labels are permissible, it is inappropriate to use a franked envelope as a label for the purpose of mailing another item.

We will incorporate these revisions into the next monthly update of the online DMM, which is available via Postal Explorer® at <http://pe.usps.com>.

DMM Revision: USPS Tracking/Delivery Confirmation Label Usage

Effective March 4, 2013, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 503.11 to clarify the use and application of integrated retail systems labels and other unique, USPS-provided tracking labels for USPS Tracking/Delivery Confirmation service.

Effective January 27, 2013, the Postal Service introduced an integrated retail service label and a new Label 400 (which replaced Label 152 and electronic option Label 314) for USPS Tracking/Delivery Confirmation service. The enhancements made to mailpiece visibility technology at the retail level eliminated the need for mailers to continue to affix PS Form 152, Delivery Confirmation, to any mailpieces mailed at Post Office™ retail locations.

Additionally, the application of Label 400 is expanded for use by customers who prepay postage and any applicable extra service fees by metered indicia or ordinary stamps. Customers prepaying postage may continue to use PS Form 152 until their supplies are exhausted. Commercial mailers previously using Label 314 for electronic option USPS Tracking/Delivery Confirmation may now use

Label 400. Furthermore, customers shipping more than 10,000 mailpieces annually who meet certain criteria can obtain preprinted, unique, product specific, USPS-provided tracking labels that are prepopulated with the product service type code and the customer’s Mailer Identification (MID) in the barcode. These labels, similar in function and appearance to Label 400, will provide mail class and extra services information as well as visibility and product use information to these mailers. The labels available by product category are:

Order USPS Tracking/Delivery Confirmation or Signature Confirmation labels from USPS by calling 800-610-8734; when prompted, select option 1. Then, on the next menu, select option 1 again.

IMM Correction: International Business Reply Service

Invalid Express Mail Corporate Account Numbers

This listing should be provided to Contract Postal Units and used by acceptance clerks in non-POS locations without intranet access to validate an Express Mail Corporate Account (EMCA) number online. For all other locations, online EMCA validation is preferred. The online validation process is outlined in the EMCA Validation SOP on the Retail webpage. This list supersedes all previous notices, which must be recycled. Acceptance clerks must not accept Express Mail® shipments bearing an invalid EMCA number in the “Payment by Account” or “Agreement Number” section of the Express Mail label or form.

Note: The first 6 digits of a 9-digit Custom Designed Service and Next Day Pickup Agreement make up the Corporate Account Number.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <https://www.usps.com/shop/accepting-money-orders.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Acceptance clerks may contact the Military Postal Service Agency with any questions regarding APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes, toll free, at 800-810-6098, Monday–Friday, 0730–1600 ET.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

The G Fund is managed internally by the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board. Assets of the F, C, S, and I Funds are managed externally. The Board currently has contracts with BlackRock Institutional Trust Company, N.A., to manage the F, C, S, and I Fund assets. The F, C, S, and I Funds invest in commingled trust funds, in which the assets of tax-deferred employee benefit plans are combined and invested together. The F, C, S, and I Funds and the BlackRock funds are passively managed index funds.

Future performance of the funds will vary and may be significantly different from the returns shown above. See the Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for detailed information about the funds and their investment risks. The monthly returns of the TSP Funds represent net earnings for the month after deduction of accrued administrative expenses and, except for the G Fund, after deduction of trading costs and accrued investment management fees as well. The returns for the four indexes shown do not include any of these deductions.

* Implemented May 2001.

Handbook AS-353 Revision: Guide to Privacy and the Freedom of Information Act

In April of 2012, the Postal Service™ approved the development of an electronic national database to encompass four Workplace Environment Processes: Initial Management Inquiry Process, Workplace Harassment Fact Finding, Threat Assessment Case Tracking, and Workplace Environment Intervention. This effort will reduce manual, hard copy records, and save work hours at the district, area, and national levels. The application enables the Postal Service to enforce protocol and analyze data to identify trends and preventative measures relevant to workplace harassment, threats, assaults, and overall workplace environment issues. The purpose is to create a national application and central repository for all four workplace environment processes identified above. These changes and updates to the system of records enable the Postal Service headquarters Equal Employment Opportunity and Workplace Environment Improvement Departments to standardize documentation, case management, operating procedures, and outcome measures.

By establishing a user-friendly tracking system for these four processes, workplace harassment policies and protocols become standardized, instituted, and used to resolve complaints in a timely manner and formulate action plans and appropriate outcome analysis. The application allows the Postal Service to better achieve the organization’s goal to provide a workplace environment that is safe and free of workplace harassment, discrimination, threats, and assaults.

Handbook AS-353, Guide to Privacy and the Freedom of Information Act, was revised to include these modifications, which were published in the Federal Register on January 14, 2013 (78 FR 2695–2696).

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4[®] Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

The following pictorial postmarks have been extended for 30 days:

How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first-day-of-issue city. The first-day-of-issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first-day-of-issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

Buy Green — Tips for Environmentally Preferable Purchasing

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) defines “green purchasing” as the purchase of products or services that have a reduced effect on the environment and human health when compared with competing products or services; however, green purchasing, more properly referred to as environmentally preferable purchasing, is not always easy. That’s why the United States Postal Service® has developed specific guidance on which products are considered environmentally preferable:

- Products that do not contain any of the 13 targeted chemicals, EPA priority chemicals, or ozone-depleting substances;
- Products that contain recycled materials from post-consumer sources;
- Products made of renewable bio-based materials (i.e. designated BioPreferred by USDA);
- Energy-efficient (i.e., Energy Star qualified products) or water-efficient products (i.e., WasteSense certified); or
- Products that are Ecolabel certified by a reputable third-party organization (e.g., GreenSeal, EcoLogo, and Cradle to Cradle).

Examples include retread tires, recycled antifreeze, re-refined oil, recycled content paper, non-hazardous aqueous parts cleaning solutions, and bio-based adhesives. Whenever you buy a product or service, simply remember that “less is more.” Less product, less waste, less toxics, less raw materials, less energy, and less water is almost always preferable.

Did You Know?

- Energy-efficient choices such as ENERGY STAR products can save families up to a third on their energy bills, with similar savings of greenhouse gas emissions, without sacrificing style or comfort.
- The average household spends as much as $500 per year on its water and sewer bill but could save about $170 per year by retrofitting with water-efficient fixtures.
- Recycled plastics are used to make new outdoor decking, carpeting, and clothing.

What Does This Mean to the Postal Service?

Over the past several years, the Postal Service™ has continuously improved its national Green Purchasing Program. Efforts have focused on the products and services we buy, together with the products and services we provide to our customers. Today and every day, you can become more sustainable by buying green products and services — at work and at home. As an internal customer, you should order and specify products that align with the Green Purchasing Program. Through the decisions you make, you can get the product you want and help make the Postal Service a more sustainable organization. So, how do you “buy green”?

Consider Six Factors:

- Non-Toxic. Avoid buying products that contain toxic and hazardous materials. If the product you are considering contains one or more of the Postal Service’s 13 chemicals targeted for elimination or the EPA’s 31 priority chemicals, do not buy it. Increase your knowledge of the chemicals in the products you buy by reviewing Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDSs). If the product you want contains a “targeted chemical,” look for an alternative.
- Energy Efficiency. Purchase energy-efficient equipment, lighting, and appliances whenever possible, by looking for the ENERGY STAR logo.
- Water Efficiency. When replacing old faucets and toilets, look for products bearing the EPA WaterSense label. These products are certified to perform as well or better than their less efficient counterparts and are 20 percent more water-efficient than average products in that category. This means measurable water savings.
- Made from Recycled Content. Products that contain high levels of post-consumer content have less of an impact on the environment. Post-consumer recycled materials are obtained from discarded consumer products. For example, if you buy copy paper, choose 30 percent post-consumer recycled content paper. Also, look for items that are reusable and/or refillable.
- Bio-Based. Natural bio-based materials, such as vegetable-based hydraulic oils or soy-based adhesives, are known as “USDA BioPreferred.” These products use renewable resources and help reduce adverse effects on the environment and human health.
- Packaged with Minimal and Recyclable Packaging. Consider choosing products with minimal packaging or packaging that can be easily recycled, like paper or cardboard.

What Should Employees Know?

- Avoid Buying Products Containing Chemicals Targeted for Elimination. Whether at work or at home, avoid exposure to hazardous chemicals. If the product you want contains one of the 13 chemicals targeted for elimination, do not buy it.

- Buy Recycled Content Materials. When you buy a recycled content product, you reduce environmental impact. Less extraction of raw materials from the ground or from forest resources reduces soil erosion as well as air and water pollution.
- Look for the USEPA Energy Star & WaterSense Logos. When buying appliances, lights, or computer equipment, look for the Energy Star logo. When buying faucets, showerheads, and toilets, look for the WaterSense logo. Buying energy- and water-efficient products reduces costs and conserves resources.
- Read Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS). Review the MSDS to determine if a product is environmentally preferable. You can determine if the product contains an EPA-banned substance, has negative health effects, or has an adverse effect on the environment.
