USPS Uses Innovative Ideas to Enhance the Value of Mail

Alternate Postage presents an easy and convenient way to send Single-Piece First-Class Mail® letters and postcards without affixing a stamp. To use the new price category, participating businesses produce and distribute pre-approved envelopes and postcards according to specific design requirements established by the Postal Service™. Businesses may also enhance the value of their pre-approved envelopes by applying a Picture Permit Imprint indicia at no additional charge. After purchasing Alternate Postage items, individual consumers can mail those items without the extra steps associated with using regular postage (e.g., determining the price, going to a Post Office to purchase stamps, and affixing postage).

Rather, in order to collect the necessary payment, Alternate Postage relies on Intelligent Mail barcode® (IMb) technology to identify and count each pre-approved mailpiece as it moves through the postal system. Once a mailpiece is scanned and counted, the participating company's Centralized Automated Processing System is debited the appropriate amount. The participating company will pay postage in two stages: (1) they will pay the agreed upon prefunded portion of the total postage at the time they produce or distribute the Alternate Postage mailpiece and (2) they will pay the remaining portion when the IMb on the Alternate Postage mailpiece is scanned during normal mail processing.

The mailpieces may have handwritten addresses, or be pre-addressed to a single destination within the United States. Alternate Postage mailpieces may be deposited into the mailstream in the same way as other Single-Piece First-Class Mail. The mailpieces follow First-Class Mail handling procedures, and will be processed and delivered according to Single-Piece First-Class Mail standards.

In summary, the key features of Alternate Postage are:

- Added ease and convenience when sending Single-Piece First-Class Mail letters and postcards (no need to affix postage);
- IMb Technology to identify, scan, and count each unique mailpiece;
- Ability to send mailpieces from multiple locations to multiple destinations using a convenient postage payment feature, and;
- Offer Picture Permit Imprint indicia at no additional charge.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Is this a test or a new product?

A. After a successful market test, the Postal Regulatory Commission agreed to make Alternate Postage a new product.

Q. Is the revenue reallocated to the Post Office (ZIP Code™) where the postcards and letters are sold?

A. No. The revenue is recorded as "commercial" and is assigned to AIC 114, Postage Due, in the office where the permit is held, similar to a Business Reply Mail (BRM) account.

Q. What are the mailing elements on the Alternate Postage postcards and letters?

A. The mailing elements consist of:

1. Intelligent Mail Barcode (IMb): The IMb will enable the recording of piece-level information for volume and revenue reporting.
2. Facing Identification Mark (FIM): A new FIM E has been introduced for this product to separate and orient the mailpiece, and to allow separate identification of this mail.
3. Indicia: Mailers may use a Picture Permit indicia (at no extra charge) or print the following in lieu of postage:

First-Class Mail U.S. Postage Paid
Company Name
IMB-Postage

Q. What happens if the letter exceeds 1 ounce?

A. The postage price of Alternate Postage letters and postcards is a premium price that factors in the possibility that some customers may add photos and other items to their letters. There is no need to weigh or measure those letters and postcards.

Q. What happens if the card enters the mail but doesn't get a scan?

A. Our preproduction tests revealed a very low "no scan" risk, which was factored into the premium price for Alternate Postage letters and postcards.

Q. What happens if the cards are deposited in "Local Mail" slots?

A. This program relies on Intelligent Mail barcodes to detect Alternate Postage Payment postcards and letters as they travel through the postal system. Although the possibility of "no scan" was factored into the premium prices, Post Offices are to follow nationally established procedures for mail preparation and dispatch.

Q. What happens when the First-Class Mail prices change?

A. The pricing during the test is established through a contractual agreement and is not subject to normal price changes.

Q. Can these greeting cards be sent to international addresses?

A. No. Alternate Postage postcards and letters can be mailed only to domestic addresses and APO/FPO locations within the United States.

Q. Will Alternate Postage postcards and letters take longer to be delivered?

A. No. The postcards and letters are processed and delivered like First-Class Mail items with stamps or other postage.

Q. Are there any special instructions for Postal Service employees?

A. Handle them as First-Class Mail, and do not obliterate the barcode.

Q. Will Alternate Postage postcards and letters get forwarded?

A. Yes. They will be forwarded if the U.S. Postal Service® has a change-of-address notice on file that has not expired.

Publicity Kit: C. Alfred “Chief” Anderson Stamp

C. Alfred “Chief” Anderson, who played a critical role in training the Tuskegee Airmen — the nation’s first African-American military pilots — will be immortalized on a 2-ounce 70-cent stamp. Anderson is known as the Father of Black Aviation for his major contributions to the field.

U.S. Postal Service Administrative Judge William Campbell, whose father was a decorated Tuskegee Airman, will be joined by a number of surviving Tuskegee Airmen in dedicating the stamp, March 13, 2014, at its first-day-of-issue (FDOI) ceremony in Bryn Mawr, PA.

Postmasters are encouraged to recognize Anderson’s achievements by inviting surviving Tuskegee Airmen to take part in local stamp dedication ceremonies.

Note: The term “second-day” ceremony is no longer used as it implies that a local ceremony can only be held the day after the FDOI. Rather, to enhance awareness of Anderson and the Tuskegee Airmen, Postmasters should feel free to conduct local ceremonies at any appropriate time following the March 13, 2014, First-Day-of-Issue.

This Publicity Kit contains:

- Stamp image information.
- Sample media advisory.
- Sample news release (includes background information on Anderson).
- Sample fill-in speech.
- Tuskegee Airmen, Inc. chapters for inviting surviving World War II airmen: <http://tuskegeeairmen.org/explore-tai/tai-chapters/>
- Tuskegee Airmen, Inc. media kit materials containing airmen backgrounds: <http://tuskegeeairmen.org/wp-content/uploads/2013-TAI-Media-Kit.pdf>

Stamp Image

Illustrator Sterling Hundley of Richmond, VA, used a combination of acrylic, watercolor, and oil paint to create the stamp art. His portrait of Anderson is based on a photograph from a 1942 yearbook of the Tuskegee Institute’s flight training school in Tuskegee, AL. Hundley added headgear used by pilots in World War II. Verso text appears on the back of the stamp pane. Art director Phil Jordan of Falls Church, VA, designed the stamp.

The Father of Black Aviation

C. Alfred “Chief” Anderson (1907-1996) traced his fascination with airplanes to his early childhood when he lived with his grandmother in the Shenandoah Valley near Staunton, VA. She was troubled by his habit of running off in search of planes.

After returning to his parents’ home in Bryn Mawr, PA, Anderson pursued his dream of becoming a pilot. Since no flight schools would accept him as a student because of his race, he needed a plane of his own to learn how to fly. He was able to raise $2,500 from supportive members of his community and bought a used plane. As Anderson later recalled, he learned to fly by reading books, getting some help from a few friendly white pilots, and, in his own words, “fooling around with” the plane. By 1929, he taught himself well enough, against all odds, to obtain a private pilot’s license.

To help him qualify for an air transport or commercial license, Anderson eventually found an instructor, Ernest Buehl — a recent immigrant from Germany and owner of a flying school near Philadelphia — who was able to refine his techniques and even persuade a federal examiner to let Anderson take the commercial pilot’s test. When Anderson secured the license in 1932, he was the only African American in the nation qualified to serve as a flight instructor or to fly commercially.

Anderson was soon breaking flight records and inspiring other African Americans to become pilots. In 1933, he and Albert E. Forsythe, a physician and Tuskegee Institute alumnus, teamed up to become the first African-American pilots to complete a round-trip transcontinental flight. With that flight and their goodwill tour to the Caribbean in 1934, they sought to prove to the world the abilities and skills of African-American aviators.

As part of the publicity campaign for their goodwill flight, Anderson and Forsythe flew to Tuskegee, AL, for a ceremony at Tuskegee Institute (now Tuskegee University), where their plane was christened The Booker T. Washington, after the famous leader who was the first head of the renowned educational institution. Tuskegee provided support for the tour, initiating the school’s public role as a promoter of African-American aviation.

The Tuskegee Airmen

World War II gave Anderson the opening he needed to make a career in aviation. In 1939, as war erupted in Europe, Congress created the Civilian Pilot Training Program at the urging of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The program provided funding to train tens of thousands of young people who could be transitioned to military service in the event of war. A provision in the legislation permitted civilian flight training for African Americans, a significant step toward the long-range goal of opening up the elite, all-white Army Air Corps to qualified African-American applicants.

Tuskegee Institute won a government contract to establish a Civilian Pilot Training Program and named Anderson chief flight instructor soon after hiring him in 1940. To those who learned their piloting skills in the program, he was affectionately known as “Chief.”

Tuskegee’s subsequent role in training the nation’s first African-American military pilots is historic. In January of 1941, the year leading up to the country’s entry into World War II, the War Department announced plans to create a “Negro pursuit squadron” that would be trained at Tuskegee. In March, First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt, a champion of equal opportunity for African Americans, visited Tuskegee and was introduced to Anderson. He later recalled her saying that everybody told her African Americans couldn’t fly. “I’m going up with you,” she told him, “to find out for sure.” After Anderson gave her an aerial tour of the campus and surrounding area, she announced, “Well, you can fly all right.” A widely publicized photograph of the smiling pair in the cockpit of a Piper Cub sent a powerful message about the First Lady’s support.

Soon after her flight, Mrs. Roosevelt participated in the decision to finance the construction of Tuskegee Institute’s own airfield, Moton Field, which the institute needed for a primary flying school. Construction also began in the summer of 1941 on the Tuskegee Army Air Field, where graduates of the primary flying school earned their wings by completing basic and advanced military flight training.

The War Department’s plans for an African-American pursuit squadron took shape when the 99th Pursuit Squadron (later renamed the 99th Fighter Squadron) began training in March 1941. The first class of African-American pilots graduated in March 1942, and soon thereafter the nation’s first all-African-American military aviation unit became fully staffed. In 1943, under Lt. Col. Benjamin O. Davis Jr., the 99th of the U.S. Army Air Forces began combat operations in North Africa. Members of the 99th — along with members of several other all-African-American flying units whose pilots began their training under Anderson at Moton Field — are now commonly known as the Tuskegee Airmen.

During the war, the Tuskegee Airmen escorted heavy bombers on hundreds of missions in the European theater. They flew thousands of sorties, destroyed more than a hundred German aircraft and received scores of Distinguished Flying Crosses. Their professionalism and effectiveness in combat was a significant reason that in 1949, the newly independent U.S. Air Force became the nation’s first armed service to desegregate.

For the rest of his life after the war, Anderson pursued his passion for flying and for teaching others to fly. In 1967, he helped organize Negro Airmen International (<http://www.blackwingsonline.com/>) to encourage interest in aviation among African-American youth. In 1996, Anderson died at his home in Tuskegee at age 89. In 2012, Anderson's granddaughter, Christina, started the C. Alfred "Chief" Anderson Legacy Foundation to honor the legacy of Chief Anderson (<http://chiefanderson.com>).

Sample Stamp Dedication Speech

Postal Service Official's Name And Title
 United States Postal Service
 C. Alfred “Chief” Anderson
 Special Dedication Ceremony
 Date
 City, State
 Time

Thank you all for joining us at today’s event.
 [Optional: Add A Brief Comment About How This Location Relates To “Chief” Anderson]

I also want to thank all of our special guests for joining us in beautiful [City/Town/Location/Type of Setting].

In particular, I’m glad that our good friend [Name of Elected Official] is here, along with [Any Other Individuals That Should Be Recognized].

On behalf of the United States Postal Service, I am delighted to be here as we dedicate a commemorative Forever stamp to C. Alfred “Chief” Anderson — an aviation pioneer who inspired, motivated, and educated thousands of young people in aviation careers, including the famed “Tuskegee Airmen” of World War II.

Mr. Anderson is the 15th person we have honored with a stamp in our Distinguished Americans series.

He joins the ranks of great Americans like Senator Claude Pepper; Wilma Rudolph; Harriet Beecher Stowe; Dr. Jonas Salk; Margaret Chase Smith; James Michener, and others so honored.

Launched in 2000 with the 10-cent stamp honoring General Joseph Stilwell, the Distinguished Americans series helps to share the stories of notable Americans with households and businesses throughout America.

And what a remarkable story we have to share with the American people about the “Father of Black Aviation.”

(Pause)

Although his skin color made his dream of flying nearly impossible to realize due to the fact that flight schools denied admission to African Americans, Charles Alfred Anderson was determined to defy the odds.

So he taught himself to fly, and obtained a private pilot’s license in 1929.

Three years later, Mr. Anderson secured his air transport license — the highest grade of commercial license.

Before long, Mr. Anderson was setting records and inspiring others to become pilots.

In 1933, for instance, he and Albert E. Forsythe, a physician, teamed up to become the first African-American pilots to complete a round-trip transcontinental flight.

In 1934, a publicity tour for another of the pair’s history-making flights — to the West Indies and Central America — took Mr. Anderson to Tuskegee, Alabama — the place he would call home for 56 years.

But it was World War II that gave Mr. Anderson the opening he needed to make a career in aviation.

In 1939, as war erupted in Europe, Congress provided funding, through the Civilian Pilot Training Program, to train thousands of young people who could be transitioned to military service in the event of war.

The Civilian Pilot Training Act prohibited discrimination based on race, creed, or color. Soon, Tuskegee Institute won a government contract to establish its own Civilian Pilot Training Program.

From 1940 through 1945, Mr. Anderson served as the chief instructor of that program, earning among his students the affectionate nickname of “Chief.”

In March 1942, the first class of African-American pilots graduated, and the following August, the nation’s first all-African-American military aviation unit became fully staffed.

Those who served in the 99th Fighter Squadron and other squadrons in the 332nd Fighter Group — the Tuskegee Airmen — did so with great courage, valor, and distinction, as they destroyed more than a hundred German aircraft, flew thousands of sorties in the European theater, and earned hundreds of medals and awards.

In 2007, they were collectively awarded the Congressional Gold Medal by President George W. Bush and the U.S. Congress.

The Airmen’s outstanding record was accomplished by men who had an extraordinary teacher in “Chief” Anderson, and their heroism will forever be an important part of our country’s history and heritage.

Indeed, the Airmen’s professionalism and effectiveness in combat was a significant reason that in 1949, the newly independent U.S. Air Force became the nation’s first armed service to desegregate.

Friends, today we honor a true American hero...a man whose life was a shining example of integrity, self-reliance, and contributions to others.

And with the release of today’s stamp, Chief Anderson’s legacy will travel far and wide, throughout this nation.

Everyone who buys or receives this wonderful new stamp, which was designed by art director Phil Jordan and illustrated by Sterling Hundley, will be reminded of this great American hero and patriot, and his many contributions to the field of aviation.

So now, on behalf of the United States Postal Service, I'd like to ask _____ to join me as we present our C. Alfred "Chief" Anderson commemorative Forever Stamp.

DMM Revision: Clarification of Periodicals Carrier Route Eligibility

Effective April 7, 2014, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 707.13.2.0 to clarify carrier route pricing eligibility for pieces in Flat Sequencing System (FSS) bundles and placed in FSS Scheme and Facility Sort sacks under DMM 707.14. The January DMM update indicated that FSS Scheme bundles had to be on pallets. When palletization is not required, however, bundles of carrier route Periodicals flats properly placed in sacks or approved alternate containers (such as flat trays) also qualify as FSS Scheme bundles.

In the article titled “IMM Revision: Mailing Free Matter for the Blind” in Postal Bulletin 22382 (2-6-14, pages 5–8), the Postal Service revised the standards to coincide with Universal Postal Union (UPU) regulations that reflect changes adopted by the Postal Operations Council of the UPU in Berne, Switzerland, in April 2013. and that became effective January 1, 2014. However, that article inadvertently neglected to include a few sections where the old term appeared, so this article updates the references in those sections.

7 Assignment, Reassignment, and Promotion

* * * * *

75 Supervisor Selection Process

751 Purpose

[Revise the text of 751 to read as follows:]

The Supervisor Selection Process is an assessment and selection process used to fill two initial-level supervisory positions: (a) Supervisor Distribution Operations, EAS-17; and (b) Supervisor Customer Services, EAS-17. The goal is to select applicants who best meet the qualification requirements of the position.

Seminars may be held to provide information to employees interested in becoming supervisors. The seminars will include information on the following topics:***

752 Noncompetitive Selection Procedures

[Revise the text of 752(a), (b), and (c) to read as follows:]

- a. An employee seeking noncompetitive consideration submits a written request to the selecting official.
- b. An employee may request noncompetitive consideration before a vacancy is posted, during the time it is posted, or after the posting has closed.
- c. A noncompetitive applicant may be selected before the competitive process begins, during the competitive process, or after a competitive package has been considered.***

753 Competitive Process

[Revise the text of 753 to read as follows:]

If a position is not filled through noncompetitive procedures, then it is filled competitively through employee application in response to a vacancy announcement.

The following procedures apply:

- a. The employee must submit the eCareer application during the posting open period. (Exception: See 772.1(b) for employees who are not able to apply through eCareer as a result of active military service).
- b. An application may be submitted for each position and location for which the employee is eligible for competitive consideration.
- c. The employee will be assessed in accordance with the competitive process, including the requirement to qualify on Examination 642, unless one of the following exceptions apply:
  1. Employees currently qualified on Examination 642 are not required to retake the examination (in-service examination results are valid indefinitely).
  2. Employees grade EAS-17 and above are not required to qualify on Examination 642.
  3. Employees who formerly held the position of Supervisor, Customer Services or Supervisor, Distribution Operations are not required to qualify on Examination 642.

753.1 Area of Consideration

[Revise the text of 753.1 to read as follows:]

Selecting officials are normally responsible for defining the area of consideration. The area of consideration may be limited during periods of organizational change. The minimum area of consideration is all career employees District-wide and may be expanded Area-wide or Service-wide. All eligible bargaining and nonbargaining unit employees (including Area, Headquarters, and Headquarters field units) may apply if their permanent current work location — where they physically report to work — is physically located within the area of consideration stated in the job posting.

External recruitment may be initiated when vacancies are not filled by internal placement of employees. Note: Current Postal Service career employees are not eligible to apply for external job postings.

753.2 Vacancy Announcement

[Revise the last paragraph of 753.2 to read as follows:]

***If one or more of these elements requires frequent change in order to meet operational requirements, the announcement must state this.

* * * * *

***A review committee must have at least three members who are EAS employees at a level equal to or higher than that of the vacant position (see 743.523, Restrictions on Membership). It is recommended (but not required) that the committee includes at least one representative from each of the following:***

[Revise the third and fourth paragraph of 755.1 to read as follows:]

If a review committee is used, the committee chairperson will recommend for interviews 3 to 5 candidates who best meet the requirements of the position. If more than one vacancy (on the same vacancy announcement) is to be filled, an additional applicant will be recommended for each additional vacancy (6 applicants for 2 vacancies, 7 applicants for 3 vacancies, etc.) as long as there are a sufficient number of qualified applicants.

Information Security

USPS Wins Award for Innovative Online Security

USPS® has won CSO Magazine's 2014 CSO40 award for innovative use of online security.

According to the magazine, the CSO40 awards “recognize security projects and initiatives that demonstrate outstanding business value and thought leadership [and] are presented to organizations for a particular project/initiative within each organization.”

Boeing, Comcast, the Department of Homeland Security, Intel Corp., Lockheed Martin, and Metlife are among the 39 recipients of this year’s awards.

Information Systems Security Manager Andrew Kotynski of the Computer Incident Response Team will accept the award on behalf of USPS. Kotynski also won the MeriTalk’s Cyber Security Exchange’s 2013 Cyber Security Confidence Award for his work in the development of a USPS network monitoring program.

“Being acknowledged as a CSO40 winner is significant public recognition for this team’s commitment and the leadership that Andy provides in protecting USPS and its customers against threats,” said Corporate Information Security Office Manager Chuck McGann. “When you consider the companies evaluated, and the size differentials that exist, you start to realize the magnitude of the challenge for all of the awardees. Certainly, USPS is fortunate to have dedicated professionals like Andy and his team.”

McGann added, “This is an extreme honor and I’m proud to work with them on a daily basis.”

Pull-Out Information

Fraud

Invalid USPS Corporate Account Numbers

This listing should be provided to Contract Postal Units and used by acceptance clerks in non-POS locations without intranet access to validate a USPS Corporate Account (USPSCA) number online. For all other locations, online USPSCA validation is preferred. The online validation process is outlined in the USPSCA Validation SOP on the Retail webpage. This list supersedes all previous notices, which must be recycled. Acceptance clerks must not accept Priority Mail Express™ shipments bearing an invalid USPSCA number in the “Payment by Account” or “Agreement Number” section of the label or form.

Note: The first 6 digits of a 9-digit Custom Designed Service and Next Day Pickup Agreement make up the Corporate Account Number.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
  - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
  - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
  - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <https://www.usps.com/shop/accepting-money-orders.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Inquiries may be sent to the Military Postal Service Agency at <https://amps.mpsa.mil/jy2/frm.htm>.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the APO/FPO/DPO table starting below.

On March 13, 2014, in Austin, Texas, the U.S. Postal Service® will issue a Jimi Hendrix (Forever® priced at 49 cents) commemorative First-Class Mail® stamp in one design, in a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) pane of 16 stamps (Item 588000). The $7.84 Jimi Hendrix pane of 16 stamps may not be split, and the stamps may not be sold individually.

The stamp will go on sale nationwide March 13, 2014.

Guitarist, songwriter, and singer Jimi Hendrix (1942–1970) was one of the most important musicians of the 20th century. Combining influences from rock, modern jazz, soul, and the blues with his own innovations, Hendrix created a unique style that influenced musical artists of his era and continues to inspire musicians into the 21st century. This is the fourth issuance in the Music Icons series. The stamp pane, designed to resemble a vintage 45 rpm record sleeve, features a painting of Hendrix's face surrounded by colorful swirls and small icons that refer to song lyrics or aspects of Hendrix's life. The stamp art shows Hendrix in performance. Text below the stamps briefly describes Hendrix's musical legacy. Rudy Gutierrez created original art for the stamp and the stamp pane. Art director Greg Breeding was the designer.

Stamp Announcement 14-19: Ferns Stamp

© 2014 USPS

On March 6, 2014, in Kansas City, Missouri, the U.S. Postal Service® will issue the Ferns (Forever® priced at 49 cents) definitive stamp in five designs, in a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) 10K coil of stamps (Item 777300).

The stamp will go on sale nationwide March 6, 2014.

Issued earlier this year at the 49-cent First-Class Mail® rate, these five stamps celebrating the beauty and elegance of ferns will now be available as Forever stamps. Each of these stamps depicts a close-up photograph of a different species of fern — autumn fern, Goldie's wood fern, soft shield fern, Fortune's holly fern, and painted fern. The shapes and textures of the fronds stand out against a stark white background, highlighting the placement of the leaflets along each fern's stem. Art director Phil Jordan designed the stamps using existing images by photographer, Cindy Dyer.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first-day-of-issue city. The first-day-of-issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first-day-of-issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.
