Cover Story

A U.S. Passport is Your Key to International Travel

The Department of State's Passport Services Directorate issues U.S. passports to traveling Americans. Passports are a request to foreign governments to permit you to travel, and also allow you to re-enter the United States. They provide proof of U.S. citizenship at home and around the world.

What is a U.S. Passport Book and Passport Card?

A passport book or passport card is proof of identity and U.S. citizenship. The passport book can be used for all international travel: air, land, or sea. The passport card can be used to enter the United States from Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Bermuda, at land border crossings or sea ports-of-entry. It cannot be used for international air travel. The wallet-size passport card is convenient and less expensive than the passport book.

Whether you plan to apply for a passport book, passport card, or both, submitting your passport application is easy. The U.S. Postal Service[®] makes it convenient to apply for your passport. Visit http://travel.state.gov or contact the National Passport Information Center (NPIC) at 877-487-2778 or TDD/TTY 888-874-7793 for more information on how to apply for a passport. Visit http://usps.com/passport to locate a Post Office™ near you that offers passport services.

Passport and International Travel Tips:

- Apply as early as possible before a trip.
- Check the expiration date of your passport well in advance of your departure date. Some countries may - not permit you to enter if your passport will expire in six months or less.

- Check the Department of State website, http:// travel.state.gov, for current processing times for Routine Service and Expedited Service. Processing times are subject to change due to volume.
- U.S. passports are issued to adults for 10 years and children under the age of 16 for five years.
- Passport forms can be filled out online and printed from http://travel.state.gov or obtained at your local Passport Application Acceptance Facility.
- Before traveling abroad, copy the identification page in case your passport is lost or stolen. If your passport is lost or stolen abroad, report the loss immediately to local police authorities and the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.
- Visit the Country Information pages on http:// travel.state.gov to learn about the countries in which you are traveling.
- Register for the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) at http://step.state.gov. When you sign up, you will automatically receive the most current information we compile about the country where you will be traveling or living. You will also receive updates, including Travel Warnings and Travel Alerts (where appropriate).

Pickup Trucks Get [Name] Post Office Stamp of Approval Special Dedication Ceremony Held at (Location)

CITY, STATE — The [Name] Post Office celebrated pickup trucks, the rugged and reliable work vehicles that Americans have driven for nearly a century, by conducting a special dedication ceremony today. The Pickup Trucks Forever stamps feature four iconic models: the 1938 International Harvester D-2; the 1948 Ford F-1; the 1953 Chevrolet; and the 1965 Ford F-100.

Artist Chris Lyons of Rochester, NY, used Adobe Illustrator to create stylized renderings of the pickup trucks. On each stamp, the name and model year of the truck are featured in the top left corner over the words "FOREVER USA." Art director Antonio Alcalá of Alexandria, VA, designed the stamps.

Taking Over the Role of the Horse-Drawn Wagon

The origin of pickup trucks can be traced back to the early 20th century, when automobiles first became popular in the United States. They made personally hauling cargo, which once was the job of horse-drawn wagons, easier than ever. By the early 1900s, several manufacturers first began producing light-duty trucks in limited numbers.

International Harvester supplied and maintained trucks on stateside military bases during World War I. In 1917, Ford released the Model TT, which had a one-ton chassis. For 1918, Chevrolet introduced the Model 490 truck. But because drivers had to purchase their own cargo beds and bodies, these vehicles weren't considered true pickup trucks.

The first fully factory assembled pickup truck didn't arrive until the middle of the next decade, when the 1925 Ford Model T Runabout with Pick-Up Body made its debut. A fortified version of Ford's landmark Model T, it had a base price of $281, featured a steel bed, and was powered by a modest 20-horsepower engine. Ford sold nearly 34,000

1938 International Harvester D-2

Known for its production of agricultural equipment, International Harvester also made acclaimed light-duty trucks. In the 1930s, the company introduced its D line of pickups. With its six-cylinder engine and half-ton payload capacity, the 1938 International Harvester D-2 was a strong, sturdy pickup. The model was also visually striking. It had a distinct barrel-shaped grille and its elegant styling mirrored the look of luxury automobiles of the era.

By the end of World War II, pickups had become ubiquitous, especially in rural America. The nation's major manufacturers soon began designing well-equipped trucks that no longer resembled the bare-bone models they once offered.

In the 1960s and 1970s, International Harvester's line of light trucks flourished. In addition to the pickup version of the popular Scout, the company offered the C-Series, including the C-110. Most IH pickups of the era were available in a number of different wheelbases, a variety of engines, and with a larger, "Bonus-Load" bed. These models also offered a crew cab option, a popular concept introduced by IH in 1957.

Model T pickups, which helped kick-start the popularity of pickup trucks.

Automaker Studebaker used the word "pickup" in an advertisement in 1913, but the exact root of the term "pickup" is unclear. By the Great Depression, it had become part of the American lexicon. U.S. Federal Regulations currently classify the pickup truck as "a non-passenger automobile which has a passenger compartment and an open cargo area (bed)."

1953 Chevorlet

In 1947, Chevrolet rolled out the Advance-Design Series, the first all-new, post-World War II pickup truck line. The new Chevys were roomier and more powerful than ever before. Advance-Design pickups, such as the 1953 Chevrolet, featured large windshields that provided drivers with excellent visibility, a distinctive curvy grille that bulged in the middle, and a six-cylinder engine. Advance-Design trucks were America's top-selling pickups for nearly a decade.

The same year Chevy debuted its new line, International Harvester introduced its KB-Series of trucks. During World War II thousands of soldiers drove IH trucks, and once back home, welcomed the chance to own a stylish KB-1, -2, or -3 pickup.

1948 Ford F-1

Ford's F-Series also differed greatly from relatively sparse models previously available. Also known as the "Bonus Built" line, F-Series trucks were, in the words of Ford's famous advertising campaign, "built stronger to last longer." Ford launched the new line with the 1948 Ford F-1. It included features like the roomy "Million Dollar Cab," a sharp horizontal five-bar grille, and a six- or eight-cylinder engine. Ford sold more than 300,000 trucks in the first model year of the F-Series.

1965 Ford F-100

It also featured what Ford dubbed "Twin-I-Beam" independent front suspension, which improved the quality of the ride, and a powerful six- or eight-cylinder engine. The F-Series is still in production today and remains the country's top-selling truck line. As of 2015, there have been 13 generations of F-Series pickups.

United States Postal Service
Pickup Trucks Stamps
Special Dedication Ceremony

[Location]
[City, State]
[Date, Time]

Good [morning/afternoon/evening]!

My name is [Name] and I am the [Postal Service Title] of [Location].

Thank you for joining the United States Postal Service today as we dedicate the Pickup Trucks stamps.

From political figures to sports legends to iconic film stars, postage stamps honor the people we admire. The things we treasure. The things that represent our values. And the events that have shaped our history.

Today, we honor the pickup truck.

These four stamps — honoring the 1938 International Harvester D-2, the 1948 Ford F-1, the 1953 Chevrolet, and the 1965 Ford F-100 — represent distinct automotive innovations of their era, as well as the shifting needs of Americans. No pun intended, for those truck fans who follow transmission developments! [Pause, if laughter.]

Starting in the early 20th century, as pickup trucks replaced horse-drawn wagons, the truck evolved from a functional machine. First adopted by farmers as tools of their trade, trucks have become the fully-loaded, sleek, and modern marvels we see on our roads today.

Perhaps no other symbol of America instills more pride than the pickup truck. For many, it symbolizes our heartlands — the center of agriculture and farming.

For others, it symbolizes ruggedness and heavy lifting — the machine you need to get a tough job done when no other vehicle will do.

And for others, the pickup truck symbolizes the hard work millions of men and women perform each day in support of this great nation.

The 1938 International Harvester D-2 was influenced by the popularity of the Art Deco (pronounced "deko") design era of that time. This beautifully designed pickup had a unique barrel-shaped grille and sophisticated styling to mirror the look of the era's other luxury automobiles.

The 1948 Ford F-1, the first generation of Ford's F-Series, included a new interior called the "Million Dollar Cab," designed to provide a more comfortable driving experience. This truck had a sharp, horizontal five-bar grille, and came with a six- or eight-cylinder engine.

The 1953 Chevrolet was part of the company's Advance-Design series and featured large windshields to give drivers better visibility. Other features were a distinctive bulging grille and a six-cylinder engine. Chevrolet's Advance-Design trucks were America's top-selling pickups for nearly a decade.

The 1965 Ford F-100 had a new grille with 18 small rectangular openings. It also featured what Ford dubbed "Twin-l-Beam" independent front suspension to improve the quality of the ride, and it came with a powerful six- or eight-cylinder engine.

The F-Series is still in production today and remains the country's top-selling truck line.

There have been 13 generations of F-Series pickups. As we can see, the pickup truck remains a symbol of American agility and perseverance.

[Suggestion: You may want to add info specific to your event/location of speech.]

Today's pickup trucks are capable of extraordinary feats of strength and are revered for their endurance and reliability. They come in a variety of models to accommodate the needs of outdoorsmen and women, trade workers, farmers, and families. They also appeal to many who may not need such a powerful vehicle in the conventional sense, but remain loyal to the pickup truck, which has served the nation for generations.

For the significant contributions pickup trucks have made in molding this country's landscape and revolutionizing how we transport ourselves and our goods, we are proud to honor these four iconic trucks. They represent the best in automotive design and function for their time.

So now, on behalf of the United States Postal Service, I would like to invite our special guests to join me in dedicating these iconic symbols of the American way of life.

Overview

The Pets Forever® stamps feature photographs of 20 favorite pets. These stamp subjects came from of the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee (CSAC) in response to the public's love of pet-related stamps. Existing photos from photographer Eric Isselée (who specializes in photos with white backgrounds) were selected and licensed to make these beautiful stamps.

The First-Day-of-Issue ceremony will take place Tuesday, August 2, at 1 P.M. PT, at the Mandalay Bay Resort in Las Vegas, in conjunction with the SuperZoo National Pet Retailer Trade Show. Chief Marketing and Sales Officer and Executive Vice President Jim Cochrane will be the dedicating official.

- 20 million booklets have been printed (400 million total stamps).
- The stamps are from existing photos taken by photographer Eric Isselée.
- Derry Noyes is the designer and art director for the stamps.

About the Pets Stamps

The stamp art for Pets features 20 existing photographs of different animals taken against white backgrounds by Eric Isselée. Each photograph represents beloved animals from these groups: puppies, betta fish, iguanas, hamsters, goldfish, parrots, guinea pigs, tortoises, rabbits, kittens, corn snakes, mice, hermit crabs, chinchillas, gerbils, dogs, parakeets, horses, cats, and geckos.

Art director Derry Noyes designed the stamps, inspired by her lifelong love of animals. "The goal was to capture the essence of each animal," she said. "There's no need for special effects. The animals speak for themselves. I love the variety of shapes, colors, textures, and facial expressions."

More than half of U.S. homes have at least one pet, with the number growing every year. The most common pets are dogs and cats. These furry, four-legged family members have long provided love, friendship, and sometimes protection for their owners.

Though cats and dogs are the more traditional choice, pets come in all shapes and sizes. Small mammals like hamsters, gerbils, and mice are popular choices for many people, especially those with limited space that might not accommodate larger animals. Slightly larger mammals like rabbits, guinea pigs, and chinchillas have also become much more prevalent in American homes, particularly for families with older children.

For others, bigger is better when it comes to finding the right pet. Horses are the companion animal of choice for millions of American families. These noble creatures are an important part of farm and ranch life across the country, and also are used for therapeutic purposes.

For many pet owners, the ideal domesticated animal is at home in a tank or cage. Reptiles like snakes, turtles and tortoises, iguanas, and geckos, make for fascinating pets and are an alternative for those with dander allergies. Marine life such as fish and hermit crabs come in wide varieties and striking colors, making them beautiful additions to a home. Birds, with their intellect and sociability, also are very popular pets and wonderful companions.

Pets offer their human companions unconditional love and happiness as well as physical and emotional health benefits. They are more than just animals; many people consider them members of the family. Whether you prefer the silky scales of a corn snake or the warm fluff of a guinea pig, responsible pet ownership begins with familiarizing yourself with the animal possession laws and regulations in your area and finding the right pet for your life and needs.

Pets are being issued as Forever stamps. Forever stamps are always equal in value to the current First-Class Mail[®] one-ounce price.

Publicity Ideas to Promote the Stamps

There are many ways to generate local media interest in the Pets Forever stamps.

Stage a Kick-Off Event

- Partner with a local shelter and host an "open house." The Postal Service unveils the stamps and the shelter has the opportunity to showcase not only pets, but its operation as well. Give tours. Provide snacks for humans and animals (a local pet supply retailer might be interested in donating something). Have animal control officers talk about their jobs. Hand out educational material to visitors include what to expect when you adopt a cat or dog, tips for solving some common behavior problems, etc. Invite the local radio and TV stations to broadcast live.
- Get Postal Service representatives and retail clerks to attend existing events. As an example, PetCo and PetSmart locations around the country regularly host adoption fairs onsite and the stamps could be unveiled and sold there.

■ Host an Information Fair. Unveil the Pets stamps in the parking lot of a Post Office, station, or branch. Invite local veterinarians and/or other animal services representatives to speak. Ask shelters to bring dogs, cats, and other animals/reptiles/birds to encourage adoption. These types of events allow potential adopters to interact with the animals and sign up to adopt them on location.

Other Event Ideas

- Hold a poster or essay contest with a theme of "the best pet is..." or "responsible pet ownership" or something else creative. Hold the event at a local elementary school a week before the above-mentioned open house. Then display all posters and essays. A committee of postal employees could choose the winners.
- Sponsor an essay-writing contest with local schools (perhaps limit it to one grade such as fifth or sixth grade) on the subject of the importance of being a responsible pet owner or adopting shelter pets. Have the Postmaster, a local veterinarian, the director of the local animal shelter, and a teacher judge the contest. Award a framed sheet of stamps or a blow-up of the stamps to the winner.
- Sponsor an essay-writing and picture-drawing contest with local grade schools on "What My Pet Means to Me." Hang some of the best essays and cutest drawings in the Post Office, local veterinarians' offices, and local animal shelters.
- Hold a pet and owner look-alike contest.
- Hold a celebrity pet look-alike contest.
- Hold a pet costume contest.
- Have a dog wash, guinea pig race, snake slither race.
 hermit crab race, etc.

Implement any of these ideas, combine them, or create others. Contact your local Corporate Communications and Government Relations representatives for assistance. For contact information, see page 41.

Pet Adoption Facts

Best Place to Find a New Best Friend

Animal shelters are the best source when looking for a pet. Not only do they have a great selection of adult animals for adoption, but they also have kittens and puppies, even purebred animals. In fact, on average, purebreds account for about 25 to 30 percent of a shelter's dog population. Some shelters have reptiles, rodents, birds, tortoises, and rabbits to adopt as well.

Not Just Cast-off Animals...

While providing a safe haven for animals remains a primary mission, shelters are adding programs designed to help caregivers solve problems, thus keeping animals from losing their homes in the first place. Most animals are given up because of a lack of understanding, before the animal is acquired, as to the commitment necessary to care for them. Many shelters now offer "puppy parenting" classes to help families understand the realities of companion animal care. They also offer training classes, behavioral counseling, information on pet-friendly rental properties, and even factual information on dealing with allergies.

If You Cannot Adopt - Volunteer

Local shelters generally need help. Some shelters have highly organized volunteer programs complete with time cards and performance reviews while others have a loosely knit group of individuals who show up to help whenever they can. Either way, they can use help. From the standard dog walking and cat entertaining to making the shelter an inviting place to visit by planting flowers outside or painting a room, there's definitely a way to add value.

Adoption and Pet Care

(Source: American Humane Association)

As soon as you enter an animal shelter, the temptation to adopt will be great. That's why it's so important to consider whether bringing an animal into your life is right for you before any adorable faces find their way into your heart.

Far too many animals in this country are initially loved and then neglected or abandoned over time because owners decide — too late — that caring for pets is more responsibility than they actually want.

The truth is that adopting a companion animal is a big step — one that will affect your lifestyle for many years. Have you thought about how a pet will be completely dependent on you for his or her entire life? What will happen if you decide to move? And have you considered whether your lifestyle and personality would make you a better dog owner or cat owner?

With good care, most dogs can live 12 to 15 years and most cats can live 15 to 20 years, so it is critical that you consider what is likely to be happening in your own life over the next 15 to 20 years before you adopt a pet.

Screening Animals for Adoption

While you are deciding on your family's pet criteria, shelters are screening animals for certain qualities, too. In addition to a health exam, many shelters perform a basic temperament screening to find animals that are friendly and sociable, both with people and other animals. Many larger shelters can also test dogs for arousal, possessiveness, aggression, separation anxiety, and tolerance.

Being Screened Yourself

When you finally find the perfect pet, be prepared to be screened yourself. Adoption counselors at the shelter will want to determine your commitment and ability to care for an animal. Be prepared to answer questions about your home and lifestyle as well as your expectations and concerns about pet guardianship. Here's where all your preparation will really pay off — adoption counselors are always impressed with people who have thought about what they want in a pet before being asked.

Homeward Bound

Introducing a new pet to your home can be stressful for both you and your companion animal. This is especially true if there are children or other animals in the home. Being prepared ahead of time, however, will go a long way toward making the homecoming experience an easy one for everyone.

Make sure to have everything your pet will need — ID tag, food, bowls, leash, collar, dog den, toys — before you bring him or her home. In addition to preventing you from having to leave an already confused animal home alone the first day, the presence of these items will help assure your new pet that everything is going to be all right.

Also, be sure to have your new companion animal examined either by the shelter veterinarian before you leave or by your own veterinarian as soon as possible. You'll want to make sure you're off to a healthy start.

Questions to Ask Before Adopting a Pet

(Source: American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals — ASPCA)

1. Why do you want to adopt a pet?

Are you looking for the loyal and steady companionship that an animal can offer? Are you hoping to fill the empty place left after a pet has passed? Maybe you want a companion for your child.

Knowing why you're preparing to bring a pet home will help you to determine the species and breed that will fit your lifestyle.

2. Are you ready to make a long-term commitment?

When adopting, you are making a commitment to care for an animal for the rest of his or her life — that could mean 10 to 15 years for dogs and up to 20 years for cats. As you go through lifestyle changes such as moves, the birth of children, and new jobs, your animal will remain a permanent part of your life. If circumstances change, will you still be able to care for your pet?

3. Do you know what kind of pet is right for you?

Your personality and lifestyle, along with challenges such as space restrictions and amount of time spent at home, should be explored to determine what pet is right for your household. Research different breeds and ask shelter staffers what animals they recommend — they're experts at making perfect matches!

4. Can you afford to care for your pet's health and safety?

Owning a dog or cat costs more than the initial adoption fee. Food, veterinary care, spaying or neutering, and proper identification — that means a collar with tags and a more permanent form of ID such as microchipping — can add up.

5. Will you be able to spend quality time together?

Dogs thrive on several hours of exercise and companionship every day, and pooches constantly left alone can develop behavioral problems. Cats are healthiest and happiest indoors and love to be treated to energetic play sessions with their human families. If your work demands that you travel often, or if you're out of the house most days and evenings, this may not be the right time to adopt.

6. Are you prepared to deal with an animal's health challenges?

Fleas, allergies, and sudden medical issues are just a few of the health-related problems that potential pet owners may face. Can you care for your pet if he or she gets sick?

7. Are you willing to train your animal companion?

Lack of training is one of the most common reasons that adopters return pets to shelters — are you willing to solve behavior problems? Basic training helps dogs and their owners communicate better, strengthening the relationship overall. And taking the time to understand why your cat does what he or she does, especially when it involves his or her litter box and scratching habits, will help you avoid potential problems.

8. Are you prepared to pet-proof your home?

Whether it's tightly sealing your garbage cans or paying attention to dangerous decorations during the holidays, you'll need to make your home safe before adopting. That includes keeping toxic foods, petunfriendly plants, and dangerous household items out of paw's reach.

9. Is your living space adequate for an animal companion?

Be sure to choose an animal that will thrive in your home. If you're attracted to energetic large-breed dogs, but live in a small apartment, will your pooch have enough room? If you live on a noisy street, will it disturb your cat? Also consider that many landlords don't allow pets or place restrictions on having them. Be sure to check out your "house rules" before adopting.

10. Is your family ready for a pet?

If your kids are still toddlers, you might consider waiting a few years before adopting, as pet ownership ideally is a team effort. Children who are mature enough can happily share pet-care duties. You may also have another pet at home who's not yet — or may never be — ready to share his or her kingdom with another animal.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

- Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
- 2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word "USPS" repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at https://www.usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Inquiries may be sent to the Military Postal Service Agency at https://amps.usps.gov/jy2/frm.htm.

We have eliminated "Not Active" entries from the table below to save space and paper.

Manuals

POM Revision: Delivery Services

Effective July 7, 2016, the Postal Service™ is revising the Postal Operations Manual (POM) to update the process for actual delivery in multiple-floor or multiple-unit buildings.

Postal Operations Manual (POM)

617.1 Delivery in Multiple-Floor Buildings

[Revise the text of 617.1 to read as follows:]

Accountable mailpieces and/or items that do not fit into the mailbox or parcel locker are attempted in person to the addressee or authorized agent, without regard to the floor on which his or her office or apartment is located.

Exception: If there is no working elevator in buildings with more than three (3) floors, delivery of accountable mail-pieces and/or items that do not fit into the mailbox or parcel locker (if available) will be delivered to one (1) authorized, designated location on the first floor, or PS Form 3849 will be completed and left in the customer's mailbox.

Cooperation of customers is requested, however, in making arrangements for mail to be delivered on the first floor.

632.622 Location and Arrangement

* * * * *

[Add new item a. and redesignate current items a. and b. as new items b. and c. to read as follows:]

 a. All new or remodeled apartment houses can only install USPS-approved 4C equipment. When installing this equipment, a requirement is to have at least one parcel locker for every 10 customer mail compartments. For those buildings with a minimum of 10 mail compartments, there must be at least one parcel locker installed.

- b. Receptacles and parcel lockers in apartment houses should be located reasonably close to the entrance in vestibules, halls, or lobbies. The carriers must be able to serve the boxes without interference from swinging or open doors. The area must be adequately lighted to afford the best protection to the mail and to let carriers read addresses on mail and names on boxes without difficulty.
- c. Installation of standard, approved apartment receptacles in exterior walls of buildings may be authorized, provided that they are not installed directly on the street or a public sidewalk. Wherever possible, keep at least 15 feet between the boxes and the street or sidewalk; the location should be clearly visible from one or more apartment windows. A canopy must be provided, and it must be designed and located to afford maximum protection from the weather, including driving rains. In addition, adequate night lighting must be installed.

Handbook M-41, City Delivery Carriers Duties and Responsibilities

1 General 13 Delivery and Collection Rules 131 Delivery on Letter Routes 131.3 Actual Delivery 131.39

a. For addresses above the third floor, delivery of accountable mailpieces and/or pieces that do not fit into the mailbox or parcel locker (if available) will be made to one (1) authorized, designated location on the first floor, or PS Form 3849 will be completed and left in the customer's mailbox.

Don't Get Caught on the Phishing Line

CyberSafe at USPS™ presents best practices for identifying and avoiding phishing schemes. Did you recently receive an offer for a free vacation or win a giveaway sweepstakes? Think before you click!

Hackers often use similar schemes to steal personal or business information for their gain or profit. These schemes, known as phishing attempts, can greatly compromise your professional or personal well-being.

CyberSafe at USPS is highlighting key tips and best practices to identify and avoid phishing attempts when navigating your personal and business inboxes.

When receiving an email from an unknown sender, be cautious of messages that include:

- Giveaways, sweepstakes, or special promotional offers (especially near major holidays);
- Offers for free or discounted vacations;
- Solicitations for charity donations; or
- Requests for personal information in response to natural disasters, epidemics, health scares, or major political elections.

These communications may be phishing attempts aimed to steal your personal or USPS® information.

To identify and avoid phishing scams, consider the following steps when reviewing an email:

- Assess the sender. Make sure you recognize the sender or the email address.
- Check for errors. Mistakes in grammar or spelling can indicate a phishing attempt.

 Question attachments and links. Consider what you are opening and make sure it's from a reliable

After identifying a phishing trap, avoid clicking on embedded links or attachments and report the message to the Cybersecurity Operations Center (CSOC) by attaching the suspicious message to a new email and sending it to CyberSafe@usps.gov.

It's important to remain cautious when communicating online. "When you're online it's important to stop and think before you click on links in emails and open attachments or give out personal information," said Deputy Chief Information Security Officer, Gregory Crabb.

The CyberSafe at USPS website (https://lite-blue.usps.gov/cyber) includes additional helpful tips to spot phishing scams.

For more information about staying safe online and avoiding phishing attempts, visit the Department of Homeland Security Stop. Think. Connect.™ website: http://www.dhs.gov/stopthinkconnect-cyber-tips.

Identifying and avoiding phishing traps is a top priority for USPS employees, suppliers, and customers — don't take the bait! By keeping our personal and business email accounts secure, we all can proactively safeguard our personal and USPS information.

As a community, information security is our shared responsibility, so stay CyberSafe!

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail[®] postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserviced.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items.
