JOHN E. POTTER
POSTMASTER GENERAL, CEO

September 18, 2001

To Our Employees and Customers

On Tuesday, September 11, our nation experienced a devastating tragedy. My heartfelt prayers go out to the individuals and families who have been affected by this horrendous ordeal.

As the nation moves forward, the best thing the Postal Service can do for America is to keep the mail moving. That's what all 800,000 of us are doing. Mail continues to flow to its destinations and post offices throughout the country are open to serve customers.

I want to express special appreciation to the postal employees in the New York, Washington, and Pittsburgh metropolitan areas who are responding gallantly in the midst of great adversity. During my visit to New York City three days after the terror attack, I was touched by the many stories of how our employees reached out to those in need in the minutes and hours immediately following the attack. With Church Street Station immediately below the World Trade Center, we are so fortunate that not one employee was injured.

I recognize that many of our employees have been touched in some manner by the tragedy. We are accommodating their personal needs, including making counseling services available, as necessary, during this difficult period.

In times of crisis and need, we've been there for the American people. This tragedy only strengthens our resolve to continue to bind the nation together. Our tradition of service to our nation reflects all of the strength and diversity that are the heart of our great country. We remain unwavering in our commitment to serve every customer.

Missing Children Poster Display Instructions

Please display this poster prominently on bulletin boards in retail lobbies of main post offices, classified stations, and branches. Operators of contract postal units may display this poster at their option.

Companion posters, authorized for display on bulletin boards maintained by employee organizations, appear periodically in The Postal Record, a publication for members of the National Association of Letter Carriers.

This poster is published in cooperation with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the United States Department of Justice, and the National Association of Letter Carriers. Information appearing on this poster is selected solely by NCMEC.

In addition to Postal Bulletin updates, NCMEC distributes information via broadcast fax. Notification of newly reported missing children is sent to designated district "Missing Children" coordinators at fax numbers provided by district managers. Within 24 hours of receipt of a facsimile Missing Children poster, district coordinators should distribute copies to all postal facilities in their districts. Missing Children posters are to be displayed for 30 days in post office lobbies, workroom floor areas, and other postal facilities, unless notification is received (from NCMEC) to remove a particular poster sooner. The broadcast fax network is used to distribute posters and information in only the most urgent cases of missing and exploited children. This system supplements, but does not replace, the missing children information in this Postal Bulletin.

Missing Children posters are available to the U.S. Postal Service only as described above. If postal employees are contacted by individuals or local agencies about displaying a sign or poster of a missing child in local post offices, the individual or agency should be politely informed that the U.S. Postal Service displays only those posters provided by NCMEC, because it has been designated by the U.S. Department of Justice to be the national clearinghouse and resource center for missing and exploited children. The individual or agency should then be referred to NCMEC at 1-800-843-5678.

Overseas Military Mail

Mail addressed to or from military post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO ZIP Codes through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes, which appear on the page following the table.

Acceptance clerks should use this table with the Integrated Retail Terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine whether an APO/FPO ZIP Code is active and which conditions of mailing apply.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

The complete table appears in the last Postal Bulletin of each month. Changes from the previous month's listing are in bold type.

Form 2976-A, Customs Declaration and Dispatch Note

AAFES	= Army and Air Force Exchange Service

FPO	= Fleet Post Office
DMM	= Domestic Mail Manual
MOM	= Military Ordinary Mail
MPO	= Military Post Office

A. Securities, currency, or precious metals in their raw, unmanufactured state are prohibited. Official shipments are exempt from this restriction.

B. Form 2976-A is required for all mail weighing 16 ounces or more, with exceptions noted below. In addition, mailers must properly complete required customs documentation when mailing any potentially dutiable mail addressed to an APO or FPO regardless of weight. The following are exceptions to the requirement for customs documentation on non-dutiable mail that weighs 16 ounces or more:

- Known mailers are exempt from providing customs documentation on non-dutiable letters, and printed matter weighing 16 ounces or more. (A known mailer is anyone who legally applies a permit imprint to a mailpiece. Mail with meter postage is not considered to be from a known mailer.)
- All federal, state, and local government agencies are exempt from providing customs documentation on mail addressed to an APO or FPO, except for those APOs/FPOs to which restriction B2 applies.
- Prepaid mail from military contractors is exempt, providing the mailpiece is endorsed "Contents for Official Use — Exempt from Customs Requirements."

B1. Form 2976 or 2976-A is required. Articles are liable for customs duty and/or purchase tax unless they are bona fide gifts intended for use by military personnel or their dependents. When the contents of a parcel meet these requirements, the mailer must endorse the customs form, "Certified to be a bona fide gift, personal effects, or items for personal use of military personnel and dependents," under the heading, Description of Contents. Exceptions: All other exceptions listed in restriction B above are applicable to this restriction.

B2. All federal, state, and local government agencies must complete customs documentation when sending mail addressed to or from this APO or FPO weighing 16 ounces or more.

C. Cigarettes and other tobacco products are prohibited.

C1. Obscene articles, prints, paintings, cards, films, videotapes, etc., and horror comics and matrices are prohibited.

HANDBOOKS REVISION

F-15, Travel and Relocation, and F-19, Accountability of Disbursing Officers

Effective September 20, 2001, travel advances for bargaining employees are no longer issued from imprest funds. Travel advances for bargaining employees will be issued only through the Accounts Payable and Reporting System (APARS). Managers need to make every effort to notify bargaining employees far enough in advance of the travel dates to enable them to obtain their advances through APARS.

We will incorporate these changes into the next printed editions of Handbooks F-15 and F-19 and into the online version of Handbook F-15 at <http://blue.usps.gov/cpim>.

HANDBOOK REVISION

F-15, Travel and Relocation

Effective September 20, 2001, Handbook F-15, Travel and Relocation, is revised to reflect changes in per diem claims versus actual expenses, how per diem works, policy for calculating per diem, and reimbursable expenses while traveling on your advance round trip.

We will incorporate these revisions into the next printed edition of Handbook F-15 and into the online version on the Postal Service Intranet at <http://blue.usps.gov/cpim>; click on Handbooks.

Handbook F-15, Travel and Relocation

* * * * *

7 Determining Daily Expenses

* * * * *

7-1.1.1.2 What's Allowed

[Revise 7-1.1.1.2c to read as follows:]

- c. Miscellaneous expenses such as renting viewgraphs or movie screens for training sessions or meetings.

Important: To claim miscellaneous expenses, you must attach a receipt for any expenditures over $50 and explain the expense on your travel voucher.

* * * * *

[Delete 7-1.1.3. Renummer 7-1.1.4 as 7-1.1.3 and revise it to read as follows:]

7-1.1.3 International Travel

If you are traveling to another country, your daily expenses are reimbursed at the per diem established by the Department of State for the areas where you are traveling. These rates are published monthly by the Department of State.

To claim your standard per diem, you do not need receipts or an itemized list of expenses.

Your trip must be preauthorized.

7-1.2 According to the Duration of Your Trip

[Revise title and text of 7-1.2.1 to read as follows:]

7-1.2.1 Travel Completed Within 12 Hours During the Same Day

If you are in travel status for less than 12 hours during the same calendar day, no per diem is allowed.

[Revise title and text of 7-1.2.2 to read as follows:]

7-1.2.2 Travel Lasting More Than 12 Hours but Less Than 24 Hours With or Without Lodging

Without Lodging — If you are in a travel status for 12 hours but less than 24 hours, you are reimbursed 75 percent of a full day's per diem at the rate listed for your travel destination.

With Lodging — If you are in a travel status for 12 hours but less than 24 hours and lodging is required, you are reimbursed 75 percent of the two days per diem at the rate listed for your travel destination.

* * * * *

7-2 What Per Diem Includes

[Revise 7-2 to read as follows:]

Per diem includes the following expenses:

- a. Meals.
- b. Incidental expenses, such as fees, and any tips to waiters, bellhops and porters, laundry and cleaning expenses.
- c. Laundry and dry cleaning.

7-3 How Per Diem Works

[Delete introductory paragraph in 7-3.]

[Revise title and text of 7-3.1 to read as follows:]

7-3.1 The Per Diem Calculation

On the first day of your trip, you are reimbursed 75 percent of the daily per diem rate of your destination, regardless of the time that you left to go on official travel. On the last day of your trip, you are reimbursed 75 percent of the daily per diem rate of the last destination of your trip regardless of the time that you returned to your home or duty station. The location of your permanent duty station or residence is not considered a destination for per diem purposes.

If your trip has a single destination, the per diem for the entire trip is that of your destination. For example: if you travel to Denver, CO, for a three-day meeting, your per diem for the entire trip is at the rate for Denver.

If your trip has multiple destinations, the destination where you end the day determines the per diem rate for the entire day. For example: if you travel from Washington, DC, to Minneapolis, MN, for a morning meeting and then travel on to St. Louis, MO, that afternoon for business and you spend the night in St. Louis, you are reimbursed at the rate for St. Louis for the entire day.

7-3.2 Different Types of Rates

7-3.2.1 According to Your Destinations

[Revise 7-3.2.1 to read as follows:]

Some areas that you travel to are more expensive than others. Per diem rates are set to reflect this difference.

The high-cost rates are in appendix A.

If you travel to several areas with different rates in the same trip, you will need to use different rates for each area. See 7-4.2.1.2 for more information.

7-3.2.2 According to Whether Meals Are Provided

[Revise 7-3.2.2a to read as follows:]

- a. If you stay with your immediate family while performing temporary duty at a former permanent duty station from which your family has not moved, you must reduce the cost of per diem for any meals they provide.

* * * * *

7-4 Policy for Calculating Per Diem

Although the fundamental concept of per diem is straightforward, travel isn't. When you travel to several areas in one trip, each with different per diem rates, when must you switch from one rate to another? How do you handle combining official travel with annual leave? What about nonworkdays? Are you eligible for per diem then? This section covers the details on how to calculate per diem in a variety of circumstances.

7-4.1 Determining the Beginning and End of Your Official Travel Status

7-4.1.1 Standard Policy

[Revise 7-4.1.1 to read as follows:]

When calculating per diem allowances, your official travel begins when you leave your permanent duty station, home, or other authorized point, and ends when you arrive back at your permanent duty station, home, or other authorized point. Official travel may include nonworkdays.

Important: If your travel status is interrupted for any reason, you must clearly document these periods on your travel voucher.

[Revise title and text in 7-4.1.2 to read as follows:]

7-4.1.2 Policy for Nonworkdays While in a Travel Status

If you are en route to or from a temporary duty station on a nonworkday, you are entitled to per diem (75 percent of the daily rate) for the day.

If you are in travel status on a nonworkday but are not en route to or from your permanent duty station or home, you are entitled to per diem for the full day.

7-4.1.3 Policy for Annual Leave

[Revise 7-4.1.3 to read as follows:]

If you take annual leave while in a travel status, the following rule applies:

If you take 4 hours or less of annual leave, you are reimbursed per diem for the full day.

If you take more than 4 hours of annual leave, you are not reimbursed per diem for the day.

If you take more than 4 hours of annual leave on the day immediately before or after a nonworkday, you are not reimbursed per diem for the nonworkday.

* * * * *

[Revise 7-4.2.1.2 to read as follows:]

7-4.2.1.2 When Traveling Between Average- and High-Cost Areas

When you travel from an average-cost area to a high-cost area or vice versa, the per diem rate for the entire day becomes that of your final destination for the day.

Table with 2 columns: 'If You Are . . .' and 'Then . . .'. Rows include: a. Leaving, b. Traveling between destinations, c. Returning.

* * * * *

[Delete 7-4.2.2. Renumber 7-4.2.3 as 7-4.2.2 and revise it to read as follows:]

7-4.2.2 For International Travel

For international travel, you must use the current rates provided monthly by the Department of State.

Table with 2 columns: 'If You Are . . .' and 'Then . . .'. Rows include: a. Leaving, b. Traveling between destinations, c. Returning.

HANDBOOK REVISION

F-12, Relocation Policy

Effective September 20, 2001, Handbook F-12, Relocation Policy, is revised to reflect per diem changes.

We will incorporate these revisions into the next printed edition of Handbook F-12.

3 Advance Round Trip and En Route Travel

310 Taking an Advance Round Trip

[Revise 312.5a, b, and c to read as follows:]

- a. For you: Standard per diem rules apply, plus actual lodging. The standard per diem rules include 75 percent of the first and last days' per diem and 100 percent of the rest of the days claimed.
- b. For your spouse: 75 percent of your per diem rate.
- c. For advance round trips to Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or U.S. possessions, per diem for you is allowed at the rate published in Appendix A of Handbook F-15, Travel and Relocation. Per diem for your spouse is 75 percent of the per diem allowed you.

* * * * *

332 Computing per diem for minimum driving distance

[Revise 332 to read as follows:]

When computing the per diem amount for a prescribed minimum driving distance per day, the Postal Service reimburses you 75 percent of the daily rate for per diem for the first and last day of your en route travel and 100 percent of all other days of your en route travel. However, you must average 300 miles per day in order to claim this reimbursement. If you do not average 300 miles per day, you must prorate the per diem based on the mileage driven.

If you take annual leave during your en route trip, the following rules apply:

- If you take less than 4 hours of annual leave during a day, you are reimbursed per diem for the full day.
- If you take more than 4 hours of annual leave during the day, you are not reimbursed per diem for the day.
- If you take more than 4 hours of annual leave on the day immediately before or after a nonworkday, you are not reimbursed per diem for the nonworkday.

The per diem rate used should be that of your destination.

* * * * *

335.1 Expenses for lodging and per diem.

[Revise 335.1a to read as follows:]

- a. For you: Appropriate daily per diem rate.

* * * * *

[Revise 335.2 to read as follows:]

335.2 Expenses for spouse when traveling alone.

When your spouse is not accompanying you, but travels at a different time, his or her per diem is at the appropriate daily per diem rate.

[Revise 335.3 to read as follows:]

335.3 Exclusion for the 12-hour rule. The limitation provision that allows no per diem for travel less than 12 hours does not apply to en route travel.

* * * * *

5 Temporary Quarters

510 Allowances for Temporary Quarters

[Revise 512.4 to read as follows:]

512.4 Determining temporary quarters starting and/or ending periods. When computing temporary quarters allowances, you must consider the following:

- The time period is computed from the beginning of the calendar day for which you claim reimbursement for the temporary quarters lodging. If you arrive at your temporary quarters during the day, the computation for temporary quarters for the first day includes lodging plus 75 percent of the per diem for the day (since it is the last day of your en route travel).
- On whatever day you begin to occupy permanent quarters, the temporary quarters' period is continued for that day.

STAMP ANNOUNCEMENT 01-46

Christmas: Lorenzo Costa Virgin and Child Stamp

Copyright USPS 1999

The Postal Service will issue a 34-cent Christmas: Virgin and Child stamp (Item Number 665200) in a self-adhesive, double-sided convertible booklet of 20, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on October 10, 2001. The stamp, designed by Richard Sheaff of Scottsdale, Arizona, and based on a painting by artist Lorenzo Costa, goes on sale nationwide October 11, 2001.

Coinciding with the 125th anniversary of the Philadelphia Museum of Art in 2001, this latest offering in the Holiday Celebrations series features a detail of Italian Renaissance painter Lorenzo Costa's oil-on-panel Virgin and Child, circa 1490. Lorenzo Costa is well represented in major European galleries; this painting is a rare example of Costa's work in an American museum.

STAMP ANNOUNCEMENT 01-47

Thanksgiving Stamp

Copyright USPS 1999

The Postal Service will issue a 34-cent Thanksgiving stamp (Item Number 551000) in a self-adhesive pane of 20, in Dallas, Texas, on October 19, 2001. The stamp, designed by Richard Sheaff of Scottsdale, Arizona, and illustrated by Margaret Cusack of Brooklyn, New York, goes on sale nationwide October 20, 2001.

The U.S. Thanksgiving holiday, observed the fourth Thursday of November, stems from a rich history of celebrations. The best known of these celebrations is the first harvest festival at Plymouth, where in autumn 1621, Colonists and Native Americans gathered for a three-day feast to offer thanks for a bountiful harvest. In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln issued a Proclamation of Thanksgiving, marking the beginning of national recognition of an annual Thanksgiving holiday in the United States. The Thanksgiving stamp is part of the Holiday Celebrations series.

STAMP ANNOUNCEMENT 01-48

Holiday: Santas Stamp

Copyright USPS 1999

The Postal Service will issue four 34-cent Holiday: Santas self-adhesive stamp in Santa Claus, Indiana, on October 10, 2001. The stamp, designed by Richard Sheaff of Scottsdale, Arizona, goes on sale nationwide October 11, 2001. The stamps will be produced in a self-adhesive pane of 20 (Item Number 551500); a self-adhesive convertible booklet of 20 (Item Number 665100); self-adhesive vending booklet of 20 (Item Number 665000); and a 21-cent postal stamped card (Item Number 883100).

The 2001 Holiday: Santas stamps feature four images (circa 1915–1920) that represent part of the rich folklore of Santa Claus. Over the centuries, numerous cultures have contributed to the legend, and these images are part of that tradition. The story of Santa Claus begins with St. Nicholas, a fourth-century bishop in Asia Minor. St. Nicholas was considered a generous gift giver and protector of children and his reputation flourished throughout Europe. When the Dutch landed in the New World, they named St. Nicholas — Sinterklaas in Dutch — as their patron. In America, the Dutch legend of Sinterklaas merged with the English tradition of Father Christmas, creating the character that we know today as Santa Claus.

James Madison Commemorative Stamp*Copyright USPS 2000

The Postal Service marks the 250th anniversary of James Madison's birth with the issuance of a 34-cent James Madison commemorative stamp (Item Number 451700) in New York, New York, on October 18, 2001. The stamp, designed and illustrated by John Thompson of Waterloo, Iowa, goes on sale nationwide October 19, 2001. The stamp will be produced in a gummed pane of 20; the pane may be split and the stamps may be sold individually.

James Madison was elected to the Virginia Constitutional Convention in 1776 and to the Continental Congress in December 1779. Madison was instrumental in organizing the body of delegates who wrote the U.S. Constitution in 1787 and is remembered as the "father of the Constitution." Later, while a member of the U.S. House of Representatives, Madison played a leading role in the creation of the Bill of Rights, which was proposed in 1789 and adopted in 1791. After serving as Thomas Jefferson's secretary of state for eight years, he was elected president and served two terms, leading the nation during the War of 1812. After his presidency, Madison retired to Montpelier, his Virginia estate, where he died on June 28, 1836.

Pictorial Cancellations Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service offers pictorial cancellations to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial cancellations are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial cancellation appears in italics under the date. Also provided, as space permits, are illustrations of those cancellations that were reproducible and available at press time.

People attending these local events may obtain the cancellation in person at the temporary post office station established there. Those who cannot attend the event, but who wish to obtain the cancellation, may submit a mail order request. Pictorial cancellations are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be post-marked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial cancellation date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail postage. Items submitted for cancellation may not include postage issued after the date of the requested cancellation. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a cancellation should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL CANCELLATIONS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP + 4 CODE, exactly as listed below (using all capitals and no punctuation, except the hyphen in the ZIP + 4 code).

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for cancellation, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial cancellation, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

NEW HANDBOOK

EL-800, Managing Contract Safety and Health Compliance

Handbook EL-800, Managing Contract Safety and Health Compliance, May 2001, is a new guide for managers, contracting officers, contracting officer's representatives, and other enabling function representatives to use to carry out Postal Service contractor-related safety and health requirements.

Look for the online version of Handbook EL-800 on the Policies and Procedures web page of the Postal Service Intranet at <http://blue.usps.gov/cpim>.

The online version contains changes to Appendix A, a replica of Occupational Safety and Health Administration Directive Number CPL 2-00.124, effective December 1999. These changes were made by OSHA to correct minor internal reference errors.

Hard copies of Handbook EL-800 have been distributed to field offices. Employees may order by one of the following means:

POSTAL INSTALLATION HEADS

Central Sprinkler Recalls Sprinklers With O-Ring Seals

Central Sprinkler Company, an affiliate of Tyco Fire Products LP, of Lansdale, Pennsylvania (Central), and the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) announce a voluntary replacement program to provide parts and labor to replace 35 million fire sprinklers that have O-Ring seals.

Postal installation heads must ensure that all sprinkler systems are inspected to locate all potentially faulty sprinklers. Faulty sprinklers can be difficult to identify. For a helpful information packet, call 1-866-505-8553, or download it from www.sprinklerreplacement.com. If you have problems, check with your sprinkler contractor.

Review the information packet and inspect all sprinklers. If action is required, follow the instructions in the packet. See also the Maintenance Management Order (MMO-075-01), Central Sprinkler Company O-Ring Sprinkler Recall, from the Maintenance Technical Support Center. The MMO can be found online at www.mtsc.usps.gov/Bulletins/bulletins.html.

expenses and, except for the G Fund, after deduction of trading costs and accrued investment management fees as well. The returns for the four indexes shown do not include any of these deductions.

Corrugated Boxes

The Memphis Purchasing and Materials Service Center (PMSC) has awarded a 5-year contract to Smurfit-Stone Container Corporation to supply mail transport equipment (MTE) corrugated boxes to the Capital Metro, Great Lakes, Pacific, Southeast, Southwest, and Western Areas. Rand-Whitney continues to supply those corrugated boxes to the Eastern, Northeast, and New York Metro Areas under its existing contract. The Postal Service expects significant price reductions as a result of those two contracts.

Ordering offices should continue to place their orders via the Touch Tone Order Entry (TTOE) system. Send orders via the Material Distribution Center (MDC) electronically to the appropriate supplier.

These two national contracts provide for uniform f.o.b. origin pricing across the country. All shipments will be made by Government Bill of Lading (GBL) with freight costs being charged to the requiring office. Shipments will be tendered to carriers specified by the Postal Service to ensure the lowest cost.

Part of this supply chain management (SCM) initiative is product standardization — six different styles of corrugated boxes are identified for use in Operations.

The six styles of corrugated boxes are as follows:

1. 47" x 39" x 30" corrugated fiberboard box CF class D variety DW grade 275	$2.80 each *
2. 47" x 39" x 36" corrugated fiberboard box CF class D variety DW grade 275	$3.20 each *
3. 47" x 39" x 48" corrugated fiberboard box CF class D variety DW grade 275	$4.03 each *
4. 47" x 39" x 54" corrugated fiberboard box CF class D variety DW grade 275	$4.42 each *
5. 47" x 39" x 60" corrugated fiberboard box CF class D variety DW grade 350	$5.39 each *
6. 47" x 39" x 32" corrugated fiberboard box CF class D variety TW grade 1100	$7.10 each *

* Minimum order quantity is 1,000 (MX); however, facilities are encouraged to order in truckloads (TL) to minimize freight costs.

You must place all orders for MTE corrugated boxes under these national contracts. Do not use any other sources or other sizes of boxes.

UPDATE

Voyager Fleet Card State Fuel Tax Processes

The two existing processes for removing state taxes from Postal Service fuel purchases are:

- Exemption.
- Recoupment.

Exemption

Exemption occurs when the Voyager fleet card management system interfaces with the oil company that owns a particular service station and bills the Postal Service's fuel transactions back, without taxes included in the purchase price. The details of such a transaction are reported to, and are visible in, a data flow to the Postal Service's fleet card system. Voyager Fleet Management then pays the oil company, net of taxes, and provides the oil company with the information it needs to offset its own tax liability with the state where the transaction occurred. This is the only way that the tax exemption process can work, and there are many variables affecting this process.

An oil company's presence is state specific. An oil company may not allow taxes in a certain state as a result of its corporate tax liability while it allows exemptions in other states. Further, because one oil company exempts taxes in a state does not mean that other oil companies also do so in the same state. There are also independent and small chain retail service stations that are not affiliated under any major oil company's umbrella, and those stations have no system to allow tax exemptions. The kinds of excise taxes exempted vary by state; normally, they encompass state excise taxes only, and not county or local excise taxes.

Through working with the General Services Administration (GSA), U.S. Bank, and Voyager Fleet Management, the Postal Service is now exempting nationwide at the pump approximately 70 percent of all applicable state excise taxes. That equals about $7 million for 2001 to date.

Recoupment

Voyager Fleet Management currently has an arrangement with specific oil companies to process exemptions for gasoline and diesel in 23 states. For the other states, separate Postal Service procedures have been developed for registering and applying for tax recoupment for relevant state taxes already paid. The Postal Service/Voyager implementation team has developed these procedures and has retroactively begun centrally filing for all recoupment nationally where exemptions cannot occur back to January 1, 2001.

Do not file locally for recoupment. The individual states have informed the Postal Service that they prefer only one central filing per federal agency.

Questions and Answers

Q. Does Headquarters plan to list the 23 states? (How do I know if this pertains to me?)

A. You can tell if your fuel taxes are being deducted by reviewing your accounting period (AP) charges in the eFCS system, which is available on the Postal Service Intranet. If the "Exempt Tax" column is 0, then your taxes are not being automatically exempted. If numbers are shown as being exempted, then you are in one of the states in which Voyager Fleet Management can exempt taxes.

Q. What if I'm reading this and am not in one of those 23 states?

A. Then if it is allowed by your state, Postal Service Headquarters attempts to file for recoupment of your fuel taxes. If you are one of the small number of sites that has been filing for such taxes, do not file any further requests.

Q. What is Headquarters doing about recouping local and county taxes? Can I still pursue this on my own?

A. If you are interested in trying to recoup local taxes, you need to check with your particular state's Department of Revenue. While some states refund only state-level taxes, some states do refund local taxes at the same time. It varies from state to state. If you have concerns, you need to check your own particular situation.

Q. Do I need to tell Headquarters if I've been filing, since Headquarters is now going to file?

A. You need to inform Headquarters only if you are filing, or have filed, for state fuel excise taxes your location paid in 2001.

Q. So, for the independent and small chain service stations, do I still file myself (manually)? How do I know if my service station is independent or not?

A. Whether your service station is independently owned is not the issue. The issue is whether or not your taxes are being automatically exempted through use of the U.S. Bank Voyager fleet card. Again, you can determine this by reviewing your AP reconciliation report in the eFCS. If you are having your taxes deducted, do nothing. If they are not being deducted, but you have never filed for recoupment yourself, then still do nothing. If you have been filing for recoupment yourself, then stop filing. This filing is now being done at Headquarters.
